SEMPRONIUS' SPEECH FOR WAR.

From "Cato," Act II., Scene 1.

BY JOSEPH ADDISON.

My voice is still for war.
Gods! can a Roman senate long debate
Which of the two to choose, slavery or death?
No; let us rise at once, gird on our swords,
And at the head of our remaining troops
Attack the foe, break through the thick array
Of his thronged legions, and charge home upon him.
Perhaps some arm, more lucky than the rest,
May reach his heart, and free the world from bondage.
Rise! Fathers, rise! 'tis Rome demands your help;
Rise, and revenge her slaughtered citizens,
Or share their fate! The corpse of half her senate
Manures the fields of Thessaly, while we Sit here deliberating, in cold debate,
If we should sacrifice our lives to honor,
Or wear them out in servitude and chains.
Rouse up, for shame! our brothers of Pharsalia
Point at their wounds, and cry aloud—"To battle!"
Great Pompey's shade complains that we are slow,
And Scipio's ghost walks unrevenged amongst us.

NO RACE BARRIER TO NEGRO CULTURE

Systematic Education the Key to the Future of the Black Man in This Country.

HAS POWER TO ACHIEVE.

Dr. Frissell of Hampton, Va., Talks of His Close Analysis of the Character of His Pupils.

[BY RAYMOND.]

Hampton, Va., June 30.—[Special.]—"There is no dead line in the education of the negro. His capacity for culture cannot be bounded so far as individuals are concerned."

"Slavery had its good features as well as its bad ones. It kept negroes from being criminal, and it also kept them from being educated. When slavery disappeared, the criminal class was let loose, and it is that class which is now making the trouble."

"It is not true that when you cultivate a negro he becomes impudent or demands social equality. The south must learn that when the negro is really cultivated he prefers to keep to himself and does not bother the whites."

"No race in the history of the world has made such progress as the negroes since their emancipation. This means that the negroes themselves should not lose hope now because they do not secure all the rights they consider themselves entitled to."

These four sections of a philosophical analysis of the race question are worthy of thoughtful study north and south, because they come from Dr. H. B. Frissell, who has made a careful study of the negro during the quarter of a century in which he has been connected with the Hampton Normal and Agricultural institute. For a dozen years Dr. Frissell has been at the head of this school, taking up the work where it was left upon the death of Gen. S. C. Armstrong. There are probably few men in the country who are as well qualified to speak intelligently as to the mental capacity of the neegro, which involves, of course, the ultimate solution of the race question, for it is evident that if the negro is capable of indefinite mental training, his moral and physical condition will be so improved in the course of a few generations that he will no longer be a menace to the community.

Negro Mentally Sound.

Southern men, including educators, editors, statesmen, business men, and most of those who have known the negro during many years and have watched him at close range, insist that he has a deficient mental organism; that he is constitutionally unable to approximate the culture of the white man; and that men like Booker Washington and Prof. Dubois are either freaks or merely the products of a white strain. It is worthy of notice that a man like Dr. Frissell, a trained educator, a graduate of Yale, and the principal of the institution which graduated Booker Washington, and which is still sending out teachers to Tuskegee and almost every other colored school, declares that this expression of opinion by southern men is not founded upon facts. The Hampton school is manned almost exclusively by white teachers, and the day of enthusiastic missionary influence has gone by, so that the negro is being studied from a purely professional educational standpoint. Every officer and teacher of the Hampton school, including many from the south, unite in the declaration that while the percentage of ignorance among the negro race in America is startling, the individuals who can be reached by patient instruction respond with even more readiness than densely ignorant white people. Their investigations, I cannot but feel, are full of hope for negroes and whites alike, because they show that with intelligent and persistent effort the black people can be raised to a condition which will approximate at least that of their white neighbors, and which will, therefore, raise them in the political and social scale.

I was particularly impressed with the acute observations of Dr. Frissell as to the immediate results of the emancipation of the slave. His view, it seems to me, goes a long way to explain some of the problems which have troubled the friends of the negro and have been constantly brought to the front by his enemy. Educated at one of the two great New England universities, and brought into contact with the negro day after day and year after year for a full quarter of a century, Dr. Frissell has been able to study the character of the black man without the prejudice of the southern white and without the long distance ignorance of the northern white.

Some weeks ago I had an interview with Prof. Otis Ashmore, the superintendent of schools at Savannah, Ga., who asserted that the negro was constitutionally deficient in his reasoning faculties, and that there was, therefore, a bar to his progress which he could not hope to pass so far as the race was concerned. This declaration is entirely out of harmony with that which I have quoted at the beginning of this dispatch as coming from Dr. Frissell.

No Dead Line in Education.

"There is no dead line in negro education," began the doctor. "I mean by this that there is no limit to the possible culture of the negro race as a whole. There is a jumping off place in education for all races, white, or black, or brown, or yellow. That is to say, there is a place at which the great mass of the race stops and only the individual goes beyond it. The negro is undeniably inferior to the Anglo-Saxon. There can be no question as to that, but the inferiority is a matter of training, of heredity, of association, and of opportunity. When we reach the ordinary jumping off place there is a vastly greater number of white individuals than of black ones who will leap over the barrier.

"My observation for twenty-five years or more of close contact with the negro does not lead me to believe at all that there is any constitutional limitation to the mental capacity of his race. On the contrary, there is a certain amount of receptivity which is quite marked in the negro. Once you get him interested, he learns readily, and within certain bounds progresses about as well as the average white boy with the same lack of home training. Nor is there any apparent difference between the full blooded negro and the mulatto, except so far as the lighter colored negro has associated more with the whites owing to his having been chosen for indoor employment. We have for years endeavored to trace the work of the full blooded negro as compared with the mixed blood. I cannot see that we have established any dif-

MINE A TOMB FOR 234.

Explosion of Damp at Hanna, Wyo., Buries Miners in Depths.

FORTY-EIGHT TAKEN OUT.

Work of Rescuers Stopped by Gas; Twenty Dead in One Spot.

Hanna, Wyo., June 30.—[Special.]—A terrible explosion of firedamp in mine No. 1 of the Union Pacific Coal company at 10:30 o'clock today is believed to have caused the death of 236 miners and caused the destruction of a large amount of property. Forty-eight men were taken out during the afternoon, all badly injured. Two of them died after reaching the surface.

The explosion completely shattered the timbers of the main shaft and the other entrances and filled the working with broken timbers and huge masses of earth and coal brought down by the shock. Those of the miners who were not killed outright by the explosion were buried alive, it is believed.

The explosion was heard for many miles around and attracted people from the adjoining settlements. Huge timbers and railroad iron were hurled from the mouth of the shaft a distance of 200 or 300 feet. Supt. E. S. Brooks and a large force of men at once went to work to remove the débris from the shaft and reach the entombed miners. Their progress into the mine was blocked by the foul gases, and several times they were forced to return to the surface.

Rescuers Bring Out Forty-four.

The rescuing party was increased from time to time by the arrival of ranchmen and others from nearby towns, and a large number came on a relief train sent out from Rawlins at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. About 1 o'clock this afternoon four men were taken out alive, and a half hour later they were followed by forty-four others.

Gases Delay the Work.

Then the rescuers were driven out by the gas and were unable to penetrate farther into the mine until an additional opening had been made to permit fresh air to reach the lower levels.

The work is progressing slowly tonight, owing to the narrow space in which the rescuers are compelled to operate, but by daylight the mine should be opened sufficiently to permit of deep explorations and the rescue of the dead, for the experienced miners declare that no one could remain alive so long.

Some of the miners that escaped said they saw twenty dead bodies in one entry. They reported that many of the men were crazed by the explosion and ran hither and thither in the mine.

Mine Considered Dangerous.

The Hanna mines are among the best on the Union Pacific system, being established in 1878. The town was named for Senator Mark Hanna, when he was interested in the Union Pacific Coal company. Mine No. 1 is practically a new property. It has twenty-six entries, fifteen miles of workings, and a main incline shaft of one and one-half miles in length. The mine has been recognized as a dangerous property for some time on account of the large amount of gas, but the system of ventilation has been so good that an accident was not anticipated.

ASKS $250,000 BALM.

Katharyn Poillon Sues New York Man for Breach of Promise.

SAYS MILLIONS PARTED THEM

W. Gould Brokaw, Once an Admirer, Is Not Found.

New York, June 30.—[Special.]—Letters of an ardent nature will figure in the evidence which will be brought forward by Mrs. Katharyn Poillon in support of her suit demanding $250,000 damages for breach of promise from a young man of great wealth and good position in this city. Mrs. Poillon asserts her heart was broken by the man who deserted her almost at the steps of the altar and that it is vindication more than gold she wants. She says this is proved by the fact that she refused a certified check for $50,000 that was offered her.

Mrs. Poillon lives at 200 West Eighty-sixth street and it was there she says her admirer called almost daily when she was in the city. She left New York on a few occasions as the guest of the man whose promised wife she then was and made one of a house party that went to his shooting estate in North Carolina.

W. Gould Brokaw, who often has been seen in the company of Mrs. Poillon, and who has been an admirer of hers, was not to be found at any of his clubs today. At his country home in Great Neck, L. I., it was said Mr. Brokaw was not there. Mr. Brokaw was divorced about five years ago from his wife, who is a daughter of Charles Coudert and a niece of Frederick R. Coudert.

Woman Tells Her Story.

Mrs. Poillon has a reputation for beauty here and in Troy, N. Y., where she was born. She is about 28 years old, but looks younger. She has been married and divorced.

"The papers in the suit which I have brought have been served on the man whose love I thought I possessed," said Mrs. Poillon, "and he has made his answer. In that answer he admits all the allegations save the one that he promised to marry me. His friends accepted me at least as his equal, and it was well understood that we were to marry. The wedding it was agreed would be some time in April of the present year. He told me to get my trousseau, and I did so, spending a large amount of money on it. He addressed me as his 'wife to be.' I have over 250 of his letters.

"He took my engagement ring on the pretext that it was too large and should be smaller.

Man Asks to Be Released.

"Just before Easter he called for luncheon. Suddenly he turned to me and, catching hold of my hand, said: 'Kathryn, our engagement must be broken. I love you as much as ever, but I cannot marry you; I cannot keep on having these quarrels with my relatives. I tried to have them accept you, but they will not do so. They want me to marry into the 400. I have $6,000,000, and when my father dies I will have as much more, and I must look for a wife in another sphere. You are too domestic.'"

Mrs. Poillon said this action dumfounded her, but when she saw he was in earnest she accepted his decision but decided to bring suit.

Japan Sends Note of Protest Over Recent Russian Invasion.

WARSHIPS ARE ON THE WAY.

Petitions Sent to Emperor at Tokio Urge Immediate War.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

TOKIO, June 30.—Japan is sending a protest to Russia regarding the invasion of Corea by 150 soldiers and the situation in Manchuria.

Japan and Great Britain have dispatched warships to the Yalu river.

War Fleets Are Gathering.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

TIEN-TSIN, China, June 30.—There is considerable excitement over the gathering of the British, American, and Japanese fleets in the northern part of the gulf of Pechili, and it is believed that much significance is attached to their movements. It is asserted that no less than fifty-seven Russian warships are assembled at Port Arthur. The Japanese reserve officers, who were on leave in north China, have been called home.

No Solution in Sight.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

PEKIN, June 30.—Minister Conger and other Americans here profess to expect that the coming Russian conference at Port Arthur, summoned by Gen. Kouropatkin, the Russian minister of war, will result in a solution of the Manchurian entanglement. The Japanese, however, regard this expectation as purely speculative. The general impression is that neither America nor Japan will venture to disturb Russian policy. The Russians say that the mobilization of troops at Liao Yang is for the purpose of allowing thier inspection by Gen. Kouropatkin.

Japan's Voice for War.

Victoria, B. C., June 30.—The steamer Aki Maru, which arrived today from Yokohama, brought news that an ominous tone pervades the Japanese press regarding Russian activity in Manchuria.

The Japanese Gazette says that the patience of the press is exhausted, and another paper tells of a petition having been presented to the Japanese cabinet stating reasons why it is advisable that Japan should go to war with Russia. The petition, it is said, is signed by many nobles and a large number of prominent business firms.

Russians Active in Corea.

News also has reached here by the steamer Aki Maru that the Russians are going on with their building operations at Yongampho irrespective of Corean protests. Communication with the Manchurian mainland is being maintained by three steamers from Antung. Permanent barracks, warehouses, stores, etc., are being built. The Russians have secured concessions on both banks of the Yalu. The Corean government has granted a concession to A. Jinsuike, a Japanese, in the same locality, and complications will doubtless arise as a result.

NEW MAN AT HEAD OF STEEL TRUST.

W. A. Corey Assistant to President Schwab, but Will Assume All of His Active Duties.

BEGAN AT DAY WAGES.

Like Man Whose Place He Takes, He Has Worked Way Up from Humblest to Highest Position.

New York, June 30.—[Special.]—W. E. Corey, aged 36 years, who started in at day wages in the Braddock iron mills and worked his way up to the presidency of the Carnegie Steel company, is now the active head of the $100,000,000 United States Steel corporation. His title is assistant to the president, but his work is that of president in every salient particular.

Charles M. Schwab, who also started at day wages in the Braddock mills and rose to the head of the biggest concern in the world, and received, according to common report, the largest salary ever paid, is still president, but only in name. His assistant will run the United States Steel corporation.

The deposing of Schwab is as sensational as the other important points in his career. He has in the last few years been the subject of more kinds and varieties of rumors than even J. P. Morgan.

It is generally accepted as a fact that Mr. Schwab's connection with the shipbuilding company is one of the chief reasons for his retirement.

Change Long Talked Of.

The retirement of Mr. Schwab was first suggested when he sailed for Europe less than a year ago to rest his nerves and to take his mind off his work. Rumors followed him and reports were sent out about him. One day it was said he had paid $100,000 for a yacht and was dashing madly up and down Lake Geneva with it. The next day he was reported to have sold it or traded it for automobiles in which he was careering about in a vain effort to calm his nerves.

Rumors and reports of this sort about the young millionaire were endless and many of them were believed. All were contradicted.

Upon his return from Europe the first question asked him was "Are you going to resign the presidency of the United States Steel corporation?" and his flat, positive answer was "No."

His denial has been borne out by the developments of today. Technically he is still president of the United States Steel corporation and technically Mr. Corey is only his assistant.

Official Announcement Made.

The official announcement was made today that in consequence of the ill health of Charles M. Schwab, the president of the steel corporation, W. E. Corey had been appointed his assistant to perform the active duties of the presidency. This announcement was made after a meeting of the finance committee of the corporation by Richard Trimble, the secretary.

The statement was written on typewriter and handed out as the complete expression of the committee. It read:

"In consequence of the continued ill health of the president he has requested the appointment of an assistant to perform the active duties of the presidency, and at today's meeting of the finance committee W. E. Corey, president of the Carnegie Steel company, was appointed to such position."

Change Has Long Been Predicted.

For a month Wall street has been filled with rumors that Schwab would resign as president, and these stories had been denied by persons who stated that they spoke for Schwab. Some rather heavy liquidation of securities of the steel corporation took place in the market, and one of the rumors has been that the securities liquidated represented selling on account of Schwab.

This rumor also has been denied, but Wall street, when it read the official statement given out regarding the appointment of an assistant, was inclined to the opinion that the action, while not representing the actual resignation of Schwab, was practically the same thing so far as the conduct of the business of the steel corporation is concerned.

Carried Too Many Side Affairs.

It was said that as soon as Morgan returned from his European trip some definite action would be taken in regard to the presidency of the United States Steel corporation, as there was a well defined feeling in banking circles that Schwab devoted too much of his time to the promotion of industrials and syndicate operations rather than to affairs of the company of which he was the executive head.

In this connection it is pointed out that he is largely connected with the formation and flotation of the International Nickel company, the American Steel Foundries company, of which his brother, Joseph Schwab, is president, the Chicago Pneumatic Tool company, and the unfortunate United States Shipbuilding company, in which he was a controlling factor.

Members of the finance committee of the steel corporation declined to say anything further regarding the matter. Mr. Schwab was at the office of the steel corporation, 71 Broadway, but was not visible. Mr. Corey also was there, although his headquarters as president of the Carnegie Steel company have been at Pittsburg.

Corey Has Grown Up in Business.

Mr. Corey has grown up in the steel business, as did Schwab, and, like Schwab, he started in the Braddock mills. From there he followed Schwab to Homestead, and, still following Schwab, served with the Edgar Thompson Iron works, and, finally, with the Carnegie Steel company. Corey has been president of the Carnegie Steel company, which is easily the most important subsidiary company of the United States Steel corporation, since Schwab resigned the same post. Once more Corey, who has had no direct connection with the United States Steel corporation heretofore, follows in the steps of Schwab in becoming the active head of the steel corporation.

Morgan Rules Committee.

The finance committee of the steel corporation is dominated, according to popular belief, by Mr. Morgan and his friends. One of its leading members is H. C. Frick, who was induced by Mr. Morgan to accept a place on the committee.

The strongest pressure was brought to bear upon Mr. Frick in March last to accept the presidency of the corporation, but Mr. Frick resolutely declined.

IRISH ARE EAGER FOR AUTO RACE.

NOTHING ELSE TALKED OF

Green Flags of Various Kinds Along Course Mark Variety of Dangers.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]
[Copyright: 1903: By the New York Herald.]

DUBLIN, June 30.—Never was there such a time in Dublin, even an election riot is tame fun as compared with this great automobile excitement. Dublin is going about quivering with delight, bubbling over with high spirits, and betting on the "Frenchmen" on Farmina, on the Americans, the English, or on all.

"Which is yer chice, sur?"

"Ah, yer roight, ye've a good eye in yer head. He's a good man he is that, I've put a bit on him meself."

Thus spoke the waiter at the hotel in Athy on the course, and he made a frantic rush to the door, carrying a plate of mutton to see "the cyar' go past."

Crowds Listen to Oracles.

Almost every hundred yards or so you see a crowd gathered round an automobile, while the raggedest in the group explains fluently "how the divil works." He may not have a penny and probably has not, but he talks about the machine as though he had invented it. In fact, the less clothes the darling has, particularly about the part he usually sits on, the more emphatically does he lay down the law on the automobile.

"An' what might be thim holes for?" asked a bystander in one such group this morning, pointing to a honeycomb radiator of a Mercedes standing before the Shelbourne hotel.

"Them holes? Why, theys fur the stame to come out of."

The shop windows are full of articles named from the race. The streets are full of hawkers selling "maps of the coorse" and "guides to the coorse," and badges representing the cup.

A sort of holiday prevails and hotels are filled, packed, pressed down, and running over. Every incoming train and boat brings a fresh multitude. Even the temperance hotels are crowded. Nothing could better describe the state of affairs than "O, the blessed, glorious time nobody is having. Why can't it be automobile race week all the year round?"

Everybody Will Quit Work.

Thursday will be a sort of official holiday. Every road abutting on the course will be barred with wire fences from 6 in the morning till the close of the race, so nobody will be able to work whose business calls him on the roads on that day; nobody wants to work and nobody will work. There would be a rising if the race were called off.

The visitors here are being treated with the consideration due to real or presumed wealth and with a touching confidence in the said visitors' honesty. A shirtmaker here who couldn't change a bank note said: "It's all right, sir; ye'll pay me whin yer passing."

The money this affair will cost the automobile club must be terrifying. "We don't like to think about it until after the race," said one of the officials, "but the bill will be faced when it comes in, so we're enjoying ourselves until it does come in."

Green Flags Mean Danger.

Nothing but praise is due for the ingenuity which has prevailed in the arrangement to guarantee safety to the racers. A system of flag signals has been devised to warn them of dangerous points. Thus, a small green pennant indicates he must drive cautiously for a quarter of a mile; a large green flag indicates a corner within 300 yards; a large green flag with a red pennant indicates a dangerous turn within 300 yards; a large red flag means stop; and so on. It is significant that certain sections of the course are a succession of green pennants. Parts of the road also have been covered with a mixture of broken stone and Portland cement and then rolled with a steam roller, the result being a surface as hard as a rock and as smooth as could be desired. Little remains to be done, in fact, except to run the race.

It is hardly likely that the official result will be known on Thursday. At a computation that allows for almost record speed ten hours will be required for the fastest automobile to cover the course, and as the last one only starts at 8:17 a. m. its driver cannot possibly arrive at the winning post before 6 in the evening. Then the various timekeepers, numbering sixty-four, stationed at the different neutralization controls along the course, will have to bring in their reports, some of them from distances of a couple of hours' journey, before M. Tampier and R. E. Phillips, the official timekeepers, can have all the data necessary to begin their calculations. It will probably be 10 or 11 o'clock at the earliest, and as official timekeepers' motto usually is slowly but surely it will be in the early hours of Friday morning before anything definite is announced.

But the public long before that time will have decided for itself who is winner, and if the choice should not be officially confirmed the crowd will have had a great day and their enjoyment will not be lessened.

Vague Fear of Accidents.

There is a vague fear that an accident may happen, and there is even so early a sort of thrill of expectation in the air—a thrill that was felt this morning when there was seen in a shop window a big lettered notice: "Indispensable to motorists. Notebook for touring and records. Carries with it $500 life insurance policy for the year."

After a discussion that promised at one time to last until after the race for the international cup, the commission has arrived at a decision in regard to tires. In view of the frank declaration of Michelin that he could not guarantee the air valve to be of German manufacture, the tires at present on the Mercedes machine were ruled to be inacceptable, and consequently tomorrow they will be replaced by tires of bona fide German manufacture in order that the Mercedes may not be disqualified after the race.

FRANCE INCREASES CATTLE TAX

Chamber Votes New Bill Raising Rats of Import Duties on Oxen, Sheep, and Hogs.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

PARIS, June 30.—The chamber of deputies today passed M. Debussy's bill increasing the duties on cattle and fresh meat. The new duties on oxen are $6 in the general tariff and $4 in the minimum tariff; sheep $8 and $5, and pigs $5 and $3. A clause in the bill empowering the government to suspend the duties without consulting the chambers in the case of a rise in the price of meat was rejected at the request of the government.

The senate has adopted by 186 votes to 77 a government bill requiring the communes to build schools to replace those belonging to the unauthorized congregations which have been closed by the government. The measure was debated without noteworthy incident.

The chamber unanimously voted $120,000 for the expenses of President Loubet's visit to London and for expenses here in connection with the coming visit of King Victor Emmanuel.

VISIT TO KIEL IS ENDED.

AMERICAN SQUADRON BIDS FAREWELL TO GERMANS.

Event Declared to Have Been a Success in Every Particular — Officers Impressed with Heartiness and Sincerity of the Emperor — Next Stop of Real Importance Will Be at Portsmouth on July 7—Sailors in Final Boat Race.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

KIEL, June 30.—The visit of the American squadron is ended and is declared by all to have been an unqualified success. An American cutter crew was defeated in a race this morning by a German crew, but the American sailors cheered the German victors as heartily as the Germans cheered the American victors yesterday.

The officers of all the vessels are glad the affair is well over, as they have been under a terrific strain during their entire stay, one of the least of their troubles being the necessity for changing uniforms four or five times a day in order to conform with the regulations.

The squadron sailed at 6 p. m. today from Kiel, all the German ships saluting and the Americans replying. The flagship Kearsarge, the Chicago, and the San Francisco will go through the Cattegat, stopping at Kallundborg, Denmark, for two days. The Machias will go by way of the Kiel canal to Brunsbuttel, and thence will rendezvous with the other American ships south of Spithead.

Reach Portsmouth on July 7.

The squadron will arrive at Portsmouth on July 7.

As each American ship passed along the line of German vessels the Germans cheered and their bands played "America." Admiral Prince Henry of Prussia, on the bridge of the German flagship, stood at salute until the last ship had passed.

Americans Show Great Tact.

There has not been a single incident to mar the pleasant sentiments so well shown at the outset by that most important event, Ambassador Tower's dinner, to the importance of which perhaps not enough attention has been drawn. Mr. Tower is essentially persona grata here, being highly appreciated by the emperor as what his majesty would call an up to date diplomatist, just as he himself wishes to be considered an up to date monarch.

Cotton's Opinion of Kaiser.

The rear admiral was asked his opinion on the whole effect of the week. His reply was: "You may say from me that Kaiser Wilhelm met us in a way which can never be forgotten. He impressed me as a man who wishes to know his people and wishes his people to know him, but he has shown in the strongest ways that he wishes Americans to know him, and he has as clearly shown he wishes to know Americans by his more than kindly and hearty treatment of us as representatives of the United States. In character he reminds me strongly of President Roosevelt.

Chicago's Cutter Is Beaten.

The fourteen oar cutter of the German turret ship Kaiser Wilhelm II. beat the United States cruiser Chicago's twelve oar cutter today in a race over a two mile course, covering the distance in twenty-three seconds better time. The winning German cutter, on account of having an extra pair of oars, started fifteen seconds after the Chicago's cutter and finished eight seconds ahead.

The Kaiser Wilhelmn II.'s cutter is the champion of the German squadron and won a cup from twelve other German fourteen oar cutters yesterday. The crew, which was in excellent training, challenged the best boat of the American squadron, which was the Chicago's, the winner of several competitions in Mediterranean ports this spring.

Ambassadors to Return Home.

George von L. Meyer, the American ambassador to Italy, and Charlemagne Tower, the American ambassador to Germany, will sail for New York from Cherbourg on the new steamship Kaiser Wilhelm II.

The Meteor III., with the kaiser aboard, left this morning at 7 o'clock to accompany the racers to Eckernfoerde and back to Kiel tomorrow.

Kaiser in Jovial Mood.

Upon the departure of the Meteor, as the imperial yacht glided past, the jacks manned the yards and the officers respectfully saluted. In a minute it had passed. Seeing the rear admiral on the quarter deck the kaiser, who had been lying along by the skylight, promptly rose, and, placing his hand to his mouth, called out:

"Good-by, gooy voyage, and luck to the champagne lady."

To explain the latter reference it may be mentioned that Capt. Hemphill, when the emperor came aboard the Kearsarge, showed his majesty a sort of rough engraving upon brass framed as a picture. It showed a woman of decidedly joyous temperament sitting in a champagne glass. On one side of the stem was written "Here's Real Pain to Our Sham Friends," and on the other "And Champagne to our Real Friends."

It is probable that Rear Admiral Cotton will present an engraving of the Kearsarge to Emperor William in return for the present by the kaiser of a punch bowl to the Kearsarge. The imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Empress Augusta Victoria aboard, followed the Meteor out this morning. The American squadron fired a farewell salute of thirty-three guns as the vessels passed out.

Hamburg Beats Meteor.

The yacht Hamburg beat the emperor's Meteor in the fifty mile race to Eckernfoerde, crossing the finish line a minute and a fraction ahead, which, with the handicap, made the Hamburg win by four minutes and 38 seconds.

The Iduna was half an hour behind, but, as the empress remarked to those with her, she did not care for a fast boat and only wanted a comfortable one.

German Commanders Recalled.

BERLIN, June 30.—The commander of the German squadron in American waters, Commodore Schedor, and Admiral Count von Baudissin, second in command of the east Asiatic squadron, have been recalled.

Famous Men Aid Kaiser.

During one of the recent races at Kiel the emperor, who was steering Meteor III., saw the need to tighten sail. He left the wheel, shouted for all hands to help in the work, whereupon Ambassador Tower, W. K. Vanderbilt, and other guests aboard hastened to assist. Ambassador Tower afterwards remarked to the emperor it was a pity nobody had photographed them. His majesty, liking the idea, called his son, Prince Adalbert, to get a camera, and all hands resumed their positions at the rope they had been hauling upon and Prince Adalbert made a picture of them.

SERVIAN PARLIAMENT CLOSED.

Special Session of Skupshtina Called by Provisional Government at Belgrade Is Dissolved.

BELGRADE, Servia, June 30.—At the meeting of the skupshtina today Premier Avakumovics read a ukase closing the session specially summoned by the provisional government on June 11. After reading the ukase the premier thanked the skupshtina in behalf of the government for the election of King Peter, and pledged the government to see that the elections were carried out with perfect freedom, so that the result may truly represent public opinion. The elections are expected to take place in the middle of September. King Peter today visited the scene of the assassination of King Alexander and Queen Draga in the old palace.

British Revenue Shows Decrease.

LONDON, June 30.—The revenue returns for the quarter ending June 30 were $172,054,575, a decrease of $3,420,540 compared with the corresponding period in 1902. The principal decreases were excise, $1,350,000, and property and income tax, $1,950,000.

NEW HEAD OF THE STEEL TRUST.

William E. Corey, who has been chosen assistant to President Schwab of the United States Steel corporation, and will be the active head of the big corporation, has been president of the Carnegie company and the Carnegie Steel company since April, 1901. Mr. Corey is one of Mr. Carnegie's "thirty young men." Fifteen years ago he was pushing a wheelbarrow in the yards of one of the Carnegie mills in Braddock. He wheeled so much more iron in a day than the men at his elbows that he was soon made foreman over them. Then his employers noticed that he got three times as much work out of his men as the other foremen and at the same time the men worked harder without any grumbling and swore by their new and youthful boss. Corey was straightway picked out by Mr. Carnegie as a promising, valuable acquisition and given constantly widening opportunities. He worked hard, studied at night to improve his public school education, and in time became an expert chemist and an armor plate authority. He was made superintendent of this mill and that department, and invariably increased the output. He was born at Braddock, Pa., in 1866.

MULLAH LOSES 1,000 MEN.

ABYSSINIAN FORCES SURPRISE BIG WATER PARTY.

British Officer Telegraphs That 1,000 Camels Were Also Taken, Leaving Leader Almost Helpless in Arid Region—Further Operations Preparing—Gen. Manning Denies Reported Capture of Officers — Rumor Believed to Be Groundless.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

LONDON, June 30.—The war office has received news of a severe blow administered the mad mullah and also a report from Gen. Manning denying the report that three British officers are prisoners in the mullah's hands.

The first dispatch received was from Col. Rochfort, one of the British officers serving with the Abyssinian force in Somaliland. This says the Abyssinians on May 31, after a series of forced marches, struck the mad mullah's forces near Jeyd, surprising them at dawn and killing 1,000 spearmen and capturing almost all their cattle and sheep and 1,000 camels.

Mullah Cut Off from Water.

Col Rochfort adds that the Abyssinians have effectually closed to the mullah all the watering places south of the Gerlogubi-Galadi line and he hopes they will soon be in contact with the British forces and thus be able to coöperate in the pursuit of the mullah, who is delayed in his movements by the fact that he is crossing a waterless part of the country.

The colonel's dispatch was dated June 14.

Officers Not Prisoners.

The message of Gen. Manning, the British commander in Somaliland, east Africa, telegraphed to the war office, discredits the reports that several British officers are prisoners in the mad mullah's camp. The general says deserters from the mullah's forces deny the rumors.

Apparently the only foundation for the rumor of a British defeat in Somaliland was the gossip of Somalis who arrived at Jibutil, Abyssinia, from Berbera, apparently magnifying the old Plunkett affair. The story bears its own refutation, as the natives said three whites who had survived the disaster arrived at Berbera on June 19. As Berbera is only three hours from Aden the news, if correct, would have reached London the same day.

POWERS TO PUNISH CHINA.

IF INDEMNITY IS NOT PAID TIENTSIN WILL BE SEIZED.

Minister of Commerce Notifies the Envoys at Pekin That His Government Is Practically Bankrupt and Will Have to Pay Its Debt of $350,000,000 in Silver—France and Russia Insist on Gold and Threaten to Repossess a City.

[BY CABLE TO THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.]

LONDON, July 1, 3 a. m.—The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that Chang Chi Tung, director of commerce, has visited all the foreign heads of legations, to whom he declares that China is seriously financially embarrassed, in consequence of which the powers should accept payment of the indemnity in silver.

Chang Chi Tung says the viceroys were led to believe that the indemnity was only 450,000,000 taels ($350,000,000) in silver without any reference to fluctuations in value.

None of the ministers, except the American representative, would agree to the payment in silver. France and Russia warned Chang Chi Tung that the powers would insist on the payment of the indemnity in gold, and would take strong measures to enforce the terms of the protocol. They said that in the event of noncompliance the powers contemplated the reoccupation of the native city of Tien Tsin.

The government has not made any attempt at financial reform, and the corruption is as great as ever. The money squandered by the court of Pekin would pay double the amount of the indemnity.

The provincial authorities of Kiang Si are negotiating with a local American bank to raise a loan of a million taels for ordinary administrative purposes, secured on the opium revenue of the province.

The former was indicted in six cases for peonage, and the latter for nine cases for peonage and twenty for conspiracy. The cases against W. D. Cosby were nolle prossed by the district attorney because of the statute of limitations.

DISCORD AT NEGRO BANQUET.

Remark by W. D. Crum Is Not Liked, but Discussion Is Avoided by Toastmaster.

A statement that the negro is made what he is by the white people of the south was resented last night at a banquet given at the Appomattox club, at 3144 Wabash avenue, for Dr. W. D. Crum of South Carolina. The statement was by Mr. Crum himself.

"The negro is a creature of his environment," he said. "There are many ignorant whites in the south, and the negro cannot be expected to arise above their intellectual plane."

J. Webb Curtis jumped to his feet and was about to reply to the statement when Toastmaster B. F. Mosely ordered him to sit down. Some bitterness was shown by others, but there were no serious clashes.

BANKRUPTCY CASE CAUSES SCANDAL.

Edmond R. Lyons Says He Was Agent for a New York Congressman.

HAD PUBLIC CONTRACTS.

Contest Over Estate of G. F. Gilman Is Finally Brought to an End.

NEW YORK BUREAU CHICAGO TRIBUNE.
New York, June 30.

There was a hearing today in bankruptcy proceedings before United States Referee Stanley W. Dexter at 71 Broadway. The hearing was the result of a petition made in April, 1902, by Edmond R. Lyons, then of 258 Fifth avenue. Lyons' petition showed liabilities of $30,000 and no assets. Two of Lyons' creditors, Littauer Bros. of New York City and Gloversville, N. Y., and Revillon & Freres, New York City, objected to Lyons' discharge in bankruptcy.

Says Congressman Was in Deal for Gloves.

These two firms put in the objection that "upon information and belief the bankrupt with fraudulent intent to conceal his true financial condition and in contemplation of bankruptcy destroyed, concealed, or failed to keep books of accounts or records, from which his true financial condition might be ascertained."

Lyons was the first witness and denied he had attempted to conceal his financial condition. He said he had large accounts with the assistant quartermaster's department, United States army, and with Littauer Bros. Lucius N. Littauer, a congressman from New York, who has been known as a great friend of President Roosevelt, gives his business in the congressional directory as a maker of gloves in Gloversville. Lyons in his testimony said his contracts with the government were for gloves and gauntlets and caps. He testified regarding his contract "Littauer Bros. were in with me on the muskrat gauntlets and muskrat caps."

Several letters to Lyons in Representative Littauer's handwriting were produced, one, written on letterheads of the committee on manufactures of the house of representatives, gave a statement of the cost of the muskrat gauntlets and showed Lyons' share. Another letter to Lyons, signed by Representative Littauer, said:

"By tomorrow or Frida night the 1,000 pair special contract will be delivered and the 577 pair will be delivered by Monday night.

"I have done everything I possibly can to fix our arrangements so that we can meet the requirements of the government."

The goods called for by the contracts were furnished during the Spanish war.

During the fiscal year ended tonight 604,924 aliens arrived at this port through Ellis Island, as against 479,791 for the fiscal year ending June 30 last, an increase of 125,133. The first six months of this calendar year, ending tonight, show an increase of 56,729 over the same period of 1902.

Long Litigation Over Gilman Estate Ended.

Except for the claim of Mrs. Helen Potts Hall, which is still pending, the long litigation over the estate of the late George F. Gilman, millionaire tea merchant, was ended today with the issuance of a decree by Judge Lacombe in the United States Circuit court, providing for a contract of compromise.

According to the terms of the settlement, George H. Hartford, the manager of Mr. Gilman's business, who claimed that a contract had been made with him making him a partner, is given all of the $700,000 common stock and $150,000 of the 6 per cent preferred stock in the Atlantic and Pacific Tea company, the corporation which has taken over the entire business maintained under that name, but not incorporated as such. The administrators of Mr. Gilman's estate, his nephew, E. L. Norton, and his half brother, Theodore Gilman, are given the remainder of the preferred stock, amounting to $1,250,000.

The officers of the bank today forwarded a request to the controller of the currency at Washington for permission to increase the capital stock of the institution to $500,000 and the surplus to $100,000.

Creditors Ask Receiver for Paper Pulp Trust.

Proceedings were brought today at Rochester against the United Boxboard company, the pulp trust, capitalized at $20,000,000, by the Oswego Falls Pulp and Paper company, which may result in its dissolution. The plaintiff alleges that it transferred its mills to the merger company on the representation that twenty-six mills had gone into it.

It now alleges fraud, sues to have the transfer canceled, and asks for the appointment of a temporary receiver for the company and an injunction restraining the company from mortgaging its property.

An accounting is also applied for. The Morton Trust company is made a co-defendant, but is exonerated from having had knowledge of the alleged fraud.

RIOT MARKS THE KELLOGG STRIKE.

Detectives, Taking Girl Workers to Their Homes, Encounter Angry Crowd.

THREE PERSONS INJURED.

Only Arrests Made by the Police Are the Private Guards; One Badly Hurt.

A clash between strikers and guards precipitated a riot at the plant of the Kellogg switchboard company, Green and Congress streets, last night. Three persons were injured and two were arrested.

The strikers blame the company's detectives; the company places responsibility on the strikers, declaring it is a premeditated renewal of hostilities as a result of the failure of the peace conference held on Monday.

While two private detectives were escorting six girls employed at the plant to their homes at 6 p. m. they were set upon at Van Buren and Aberdeen streets. Several revolver shots were exchanged. One man in the crowd of strikers was shot, the detectives were beaten, and one detective and a Kellogg workman were arrested.

The Injured.

QUACKENBUSH, GEORGE W., detective employed by Alexander agency, guard at Kellogg plant; beaten and kicked by rioters after he had fired several shots, one of which struck a spectator who had joined the rioters. Taken to County hospital, where wounds were dressed. Under arrest at Desplaines street station.

ROBERTSON, GEORGE, 629 West Madison street, nonunion cable splicer employed at Kellogg plant; assisted Quackenbush in defending girls and was beaten and kicked. Under arrest at Desplaines street station.

WILSON, EDWARD, waiter, 509 West Congress street; shot in leg; taken to county hospital.

Jeers from the Crowd.

The Kellogg plant closed down just before 6 p. m., and Detectives Quackenbush and O'Connell were detailed to escort six girls to their homes. This has been the custom since the strike reached the bitter stage. Accompanying them was Robertson, the cable splicer.

The party of nine was greeted with jeers upon emerging from the plant. Bricks and stones were thrown at them, but no one was hit.

On Van Buren street, between Aberdeen street and Center avenue, the crowd became so menacing that Quackenbush, O'Connell, and Robertson faced about and, it is said, drew revolvers. Wilson, the waiter, who was passing, saw the crowd, and joined it. Soon the crowd numbered several hundred persons.

Shots were fired, some apparently from the crowd, and Quackenbush responded. The police say Quackenbush fired first. This he denies. All the shots went wild with the exception of one, which struck Wilson. He fell and was carried into a store.

The crowd grew more angry, and Policeman James McGurk of the Harrison street station, who was on his way to work, appeared. West Park Policeman Leonard also jumped off a car. They rushed toward Quackenbush, intending to arrest him, when he is said to have turned his weapon on the uniformed officers and pulled the trigger twice. The chamber of the revolver was empty.

The rioters then grew furious. Quackenbush and Robertson were knocked down, while O'Connell with the six girls hurried away. The rioters struck right and left, hitting friends and foes alike. McGurk and Leonard were roughly handled, while Quackenbush and Robertson were being kicked and in imminent peril when a patrol wagon appeared. The reinforcements put the rioters to flight, and the two detectives were the only persons arrested.

Fight Continues Bitter.

The fight of the strikers against the Kellogg company has been a bitter one and both the civil and criminal courts have been sought by the company. Eleven strikers are now under indictment on the charge of assault with deadly weapons, and five of them are under arrest.

The position of the company was outlined yesterday in a statement, in part as follows:

"The Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company has formally notified the Arrow Transfer company, with which it has a contract for all of its teaming, that unless the Arrow Transfer company can fulfill its contract and continue its teaming work, it will hold the Arrow company liable for all damages, and will cancel the contract. The Arrow Transfer company has been unable to do any teaming for the Kellogg Switchboard and Supply company since June 24, when a sympathetic strike of the teamsters' union was called."

TWO BABIES ARE ABANDONED.

One Left on Doorstep at Grand Crossing, Other at House in Mohawk Street.

A girl baby was found late Monday night by Oscar Rolander on the front steps of his home at Grand Crossing. A note was attached to the baby's jacket, which said:

"Born May 20, 1903. Please be good to her and some day you will be rewarded for your kindness."

The baby will be taken to the St. Vincent's infant asylum.

Lying in an old satchel, a 2 weeks old boy baby was found last evening in the hallway of Nicholas Kuehn's home at 106 Mohawk street. The little one was abandoned by a well dressed, middle aged man, who hurried into the hall after he had rung the doorbell. The stranger was pursued, but escaped. This baby was taken to St. Vincent.

The "dream baby" found by Mrs. John Manack, 1207 Montrose boulevard, on the doorstep, after she had dreamed it was there, will not be taken to the asylum. The Janacks are poor people and have five children of their own, but want to adopt this one.

TWO SMALL BOYS DROWNED.

Falls Into Lake While Fishing, Other Dives Into the River.

Albert Bernth, 8 years old, living at 3638 Wentworth avenue, fell from the breakwater at the foot of Thirty-sixth street yesterday afternoon and was drowned. The boy had been fishing with his brother, Walter Swazen, 3829 Wabash avenue, saw the accident and summoned the police, who recovered the body.

Tony Swaren, 9 years old, dived into the river with several companions. He could not swim and was drowned. He lived at 2051 Blue Island avenue.

Mary Braun Arrested Again.

Mary Braun, 18 years old, who twice in the last week has been arrested for threatening to commit suicide by jumping into the Lincoln park lagoon, was again a prisoner at the East Chicago avenue police station, having been arrested while wandering across Chestnut street near the Lake Shore drive. The police believe she is demented.

STRIKE OF 3,000 TODAY.

WOODWORKERS PREPARE FOR A GENERAL WALKOUT.

Their Demands for an Advance in Wages Is Denied, Which Will Throw Over 5,000 Men Out of Employment—President Curran Determined to Force Teamsters to Help the Chicago and Alton Freight Handlers—Row As Likely.

Three thousand woodworkers will strike tonight in the large mills of the city until their employers grant them a 20 per cent increase in wages. Their action will tie up twenty-three plants and throw over 5,000 workmen out of employment.

Orders for a general strike were issued last night by the woodworkers' district council, after a futile attempt to get the firms to grant the advance in wages demanded. The union leaders have no hope that such a concession will be made today and look for a long fight.

Besides the nine firms mentioned in THE TRIBUNE yesterday the following also will be affected:

Kelly Bros.,	Jessen & Rosberg,
Louis Hansen,	J. B. Madsen,
Joseph Dux,	August Nafe,
John Preyhuber,	E. J. Noblett,
Julius Bender,	Fred Bender,
L. A. Becker,	Melchior Bros.,
Decorators' Supply company,	A. H. Andrews & Co.

The strike will tie up the manufacturing of desks, household furniture, store fixtures, billiard tables, bar fixtures, and fancy house decorations. In this line of work Chicago leads all other cities of the country, and while summer is the light season of the year, the firms have hundreds of thousands of dollars' worth of work under contract.

The woodworkers expect that the manufacturers will be backed by the Employers' association. They have been at war with that body for several months over a strike in three of the south side desk factories.

Curran Demands Drivers' Aid.

"Larry" J. Curran has started out to embroil the teamsters in the erratic fight he has forced the freight handlers to wage against the Chicago and Alton railroad. To do this he has set about stirring up dissension among the drivers by questioning the ability of their leaders and playing on the sympathies of the radical element.

All yesterday forenoon Curran was at the Alton's Van Buren street freight sheds attempting to teach the teamsters "true labor ethics." They told him they were under orders to deliver freight, and did it.

"We'll get them all right," remarked Curran. "They're no labor skates like some of the men that run them, and there will be a change soon. We will tie up every union in this town before we give in."

If Curran attempts to fulfill his threat there promises to be trouble. He has received the indorsement of the Chicago Federation of Labor, and unlike the cooks and waiters, who received similar encouragement and did not use it, he intends to find out just what the central body can do for him. Its executive board meets today, and he will appear before it and ask for assistance.

So far as the strike itself is concerned, the discerning members of the freight handlers' union acknowledge that they are beaten and that "somebody has made a couple of mistakes." The victory of the Alton was won so easily that all of the freight handlers will back Curran in his demands for assistance from the Chicago federation. They will ask that it "order" the teamsters to take part in the fight, or prefer charges against them as being "enemies to organized labor."

In Other Labor Fields.

President Huber of the Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners will arrive in Chicago today to assume charge of the strike of the carpenters at the Union stockyards. There were only seven men at work at the various packing houses yesterday, and the strikers feel confident that with Huber in control they can win their fight.

The Hammond and the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger companies are willing to meet with the union now and arrange for peace, but the strike leaders want to hold a joint meeting with all the packers and get a uniform agreement.

Judges Gary and Baker will take up the quarrel between the Chicago City railway company and its employes and decide which is right regarding the date when the agreement between the two expires.

Five hundred machinists in the employ of the Inland Steel company, at Indiana Harbor, struck yesterday, because they could not reach any agreement with their employers regarding a new scale. They ask for an advance from 32 to 40 cents an hour, and an eight hour instead of a ten hour day. One thousand men will be thrown out of work.

President Keefe in Conference.

President D. J. Keefe of the International Longshoremen's union and William G. Bain, president of the Marine council, held a conference last night with the Hoisting Engineers' union in South Chicago. It was said that the prospect of the strike extending from South Chicago to other points on the lakes was unlikely. The hoisting engineers of the Illinois Steel company are on a strike for higher wages.

William E. Richardson Gets Divorce.

A decree giving William E. Richardson of the King-Richardson Publishing company, a divorce from Mrs. Constance M. Richardson was entered by Judge Holdom yesterday. The four children are placed in the custody of the father, the mother having the right to see them every Sunday. The decree of the Iowa court giving Mrs. Richardson $100 a month was set aside. From July 4 to Sept. 5 she will receive $5 a week and nothing afterwards.

KIDNAPED BABY IS FOUND.

TAKEN BY LONELY WOMAN WHO WANTED A CHILD.

Detectives Find Little Alice Furlong in the Room of Mrs. Hazel Avery, Clad in New Clothes and Happy with Toys and Candy—Pathetic Scenes When the Child Is Restored to Her Parents—Strange Story Told by the Prisoner.

Two year old Alice Furlong, in lace cap and ruffled frock, the like of which she has never known before, is at home again after a week's adventure with a kidnaper. The finding of the little girl in a Washington boulevard boarding house yesterday morning by Inspector Shea's detectives reveals a strange story of a lonely woman's longing for a child, and how it impelled her to steal the baby.

Miss Alice has seen a bit of life since she wandered away from her father's home at 333 Aberdeen street a week ago, but she is none the worse for her experience. Mrs. Hazel Avery, the kidnaper, is in a cell at the Maxwell stret police station, disconsolate over the loss of the child and fearful of her fate when she appears in the police court this morning.

Woman a Puzzle to the Police.

Mrs. Avery is a puzzle to the police. Capt. Haines of the Maxwell street police station can discover no motive of kidnaping for ransom in the woman's deed, and will prefer no such charge against her. Between sobs she told how she has yearned for years for the solace of a child to call her own, and how one night she saw the little Furlong child and carried it away.

From what the police gather, Mrs. Avery not only sought no ransom for the little girl but never knew that the whole police department was searching for the child. She bought an entire new outfit of clothes for the baby and gave up her work that she might stay at home and care for it.

In his mail Monday morning the captain found a note scrawled in pencil on a piece of paper, evidently torn from an account book. It read:

"People living in the vicinity of 469 North Paulina street have seen a heavy set, strangely acting woman calling there with a child answering the description of little Alice Furlong."

Capt. Haines thought this one of those "fake" tips which deluge the police when working on a mystery, but he was overlooking no chances. He gave the note to Detectives Mulbrandon and Hageman and told them not to return till they found the child.

At 469 North Paulina street the detectives could find no clews beyond vague descriptions of a woman and child, but a few doors up the street they found a man who admitted that his sister had kidnaped a child and had brought it to his house several times in the hope that he would give it a home. Her name was Avery, he said.

Search from Door to Door.

Yesterday morning Mulbrandon and Hageman, with Detective Bullis from Inspector Shea's office, started in to work Washington boulevard systematically from house to house, being aided in their search by a photograph of Mrs. Avery. The search was vain till near noon, when the detectives dropped into the saloon of Max Herman, 201 Washington boulevard.

"Did you ever see this woman about here?" asked Mulbrandon, holding up the picture.

"Yes, sir," replied Herman. "I saw her go past just now; had a kid with her."

The detectives rushed out. A block away they saw a woman carrying a child. As they neared she stepped into a store and bought a bag of cakes. Then she entered a house at 207 Washington boulevard.

She was arrested and taken to the Desplaines street police station. There Inspector Shea with Baby Alice sitting on his knee and trying to swallow his watch, heard the first story of the kidnaping.

In the midst of the woman's story the door of the inspector's office burst open and a wild eyed, trembling man stood before the little group. It was John Furlong, the baby's father.

"Alice, Alice—O, my baby," cried the father, catching up the child from Inspector Shea's lap and smothering it with caresses. Inspector Shea, with lowered eye, studied the back of his hand. And in the hush the baby said:

"Papa, gimme tum tandy."

Furlong was soon driven home in the patrol wagon, and the mother's joy at the return of her baby touched the hearts of the policemen. Then the neighbors began to flock in, but all the time Baby Alice, in her lace cap and patent leather shoes and pink stockings, held her mother's lap as a princess a throne.

Kidnaper's "Reason" for It.

From the story told the police it appears that Mrs. Avery was separated from her husband some time ago after moving to Chicago from Kansas City. She has been living at 77 Carpenter street, where Edward S. Ward also lived. She worked as a chambermaid in neighboring boarding houses, earning $7 a week.

One week ago, at Taylor street and Center avenue, she noticed a little girl playing. She called to the child and it came to her readily. Then, as there was no one looking, she picked it up and carried it away. After buying new clothes for the child she gave up her work and remained in her room, amusing Alice or "Gracie" as she called the baby with toys and sweetmeats. On Saturday she gave up her room and went to live at 207 Washington boulevard

FIND POISON AT INQUEST.

CHEMIST GIVES ANALYSIS OF PITTSBURG RECORDER'S BODY.

Belief Grows That He Was Murdered and Excitement Is Great—Nephew Says Uncle Had Capsules Which Physician Ordered Destroyed—Latter Declares He Did Not Prescribe Them, but That He Can Explain the Cause of Death.

Pittsburg, Pa., June 30.—[Special.]—The belief that Recorder Brown was murdered is gaining ground. He died mysteriously on March 15. He was buried under a physician's certificate that death was due to natural causes. The inquiry into the cause of his death, now in progress in the city, is, therefore, attracting intense interest.

At today's session of the coroner's inquiry experts testified that poisons were found in the stomach and intestines. R. S. Eckles, the chemist who made the analysis of the stomach, intestines, brain, and liver, said he found in the stomach walls arsenic, antimony, and sulphonal. In the intestines was sulphonal dissolved. In the liver he found arsenic, antimony, and sulphonal. In the intestines he found sulphonal and corrosive sublimate. Antimony is not an ingredient of embalming fluid, neither is sulphonal, he added.

Poisons May Have Caused Death.

"The changes in the liver and kidneys could have been produced by the poisons," testified the chemist, "and might have caused death. I do not say they did."

At the inquest yesterday Walter A. Black, a nephew of Recorder Brown, testified that just previous to his uncle's death he found a box of capsules, which Dr. William H. McKelvey, Mr. Brown's physician, ordered destroyed. In an interview today Dr. McKelvey said: "If Joseph O. Brown took any of the medicine in the box which was found it would have killed him." The box referred to is said to have contained cyanide of potash.

Doctor May Explain All.

Dr. McKelvey said further: "When I am put on the stand I will for the first time tell all about the sickness and the cause of death of Mr. Brown. My statement will explain, I think, all the trouble in the case."

"Did you prescribe the medicine found in the box which was destroyed?" was asked.

"No, sir, I did not, nor did any of the doctors who were with me in the case," was the quick answer.

Coroner Says He Was Deceived.

Coroner Jesse M. McGeary, when asked about the statement of Black regarding the certificate, said:

"I am not in a position to discuss the case, because I am here only in an official capacity. I will say, however, that when I directed the physicians to make out a certificate of death due to natural causes I was deceived. Further than that I will not discuss the case."

Elias J. John, a nephew of the recorder, was on the stand today. He testified that his uncle was nervous on the day of his death and said he was troubled over politics, but mentioned no other cause for disturbance. When he called to see his uncle on that day he was told he had taken trional powders. He said the recorder left no ante mortem statement with him and he did not know the cause of death.

MURDERS TEXAS OFFICIAL

DISCHARGED EMPLOYE SHOOTS CONTROLLER AT CAPITOL.

Assassin Enters Private Office with Letter of Recommendation and Uses Pistol While It Is Being Read—In Struggle for Weapon with a Third Man Assailant Is Shot in the Breast and Is Killed — Charges Ill Treatment.

Austin, Tex., June 30.—Controller R. M. Love was assassinated at 10:45 this morning while sitting in his office at the state house, by W. G. Hill, a discharged ex-employé of the controller's department.

Hill had entered the office and presented Love a letter, recommending Hill for a position in the department. While Col. Love was reading the letter Hill, without a word of warning, pulled out a pistol and fired at the controller. The ball took effect in the region of the heart. Love sank to the floor, and while he was falling Hill fired another shot, striking Love in the back.

Killed in a Struggle.

J. W. Stephens, an employé of the department, who was working near by, rushed in and attempted to take the pistol away from Hill. In the struggle the pistol was discharged and Hill was shot in the breast. He was picked up and carried to the Austin sanitarium, where he died. Love died an hour after being shot.

Just before dying Controller Love made the following statement:

"Mr. Hill shot me. He presented a letter of indorsement to me for a place in the department. I was reading the letter when he shot me. I had asked him about his brother's wife's death. I regretted her death very much. Mrs. Hill was a good woman. I have no idea why he shot me. May the Lord bless him and forgive him. I cannot say more."

Text of Letter.

The letter that Hill gave to Love reads as follows:

"Col. R. M. Love, State Controller. Dear Sir: Public office is a public trust. Public offices are created for the service of the people and not for the aggrandizement of a few individuals. The practice of bartering department clerkships for private gain is a disgrace to the public service, and in this nefarious traffic you are a record breaker.

"You have robbed the state employés and your incompetent administration has prompted others to rob the state.

"The greatest mind that ever gave its wisdom to the world, the mind of all others most capable of 'umpiring the mutiny between right and wrong' said, 'you take my life when you do take from me the means by which I live.'

"If that be true, you are a murderer of the deepest crime. Although I cannot help myself, before laying life's burdens down, I shall strike a blow—feeble though it be—for the good of my deserving fellowman.

"For the right against the wrong,
For the weak against the strong.
"W. G. HILL."

It is believed Hill was insane.

WOMAN ROBBED ON TRAIN

MRS. F. F. ADAMS OF MILWAUKEE SAYS SHE LOST $18,500.

Wife of Vice President of Tobacco Company Insists Female Held Her Up in Toilet Room of Car, Struck a Blow on Head with Blunt Instrument, and Jumped to Ground—Railway Agent Denies He Has Received Any Such Report.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 30.—[Special.]—Mrs. F. F. Adams Jr., wife of the vice president of the Adams Tobacco company, who achieved previous fame by seeing sea serpents last summer and a new kind of snake while picking wild flowers two weeks ago, now claims to have been sandbagged and robbed of $18,500 on the Northwestern train which left Chicago at 4:55 Monday afternoon.

She reported to Inspector Reimer of the police department that she had gone to Chicago on Monday to draw a $25,000 inheritance from the First National bank of that city. After paying some debts she had started back to Milwaukee with $16,000 in cash and a certificate of deposit for $2,500. On the way she went into the toilet room of the car, where another woman entered and struck her over the back of the head with some blunt instrument. She was knocked unconscious and robbed.

Does Not Notify Trainmen.

Mrs. Adams appeared to have notified no one on the train of the robbery. The conductor did not hear of it nor did any of the trainmen. No report was made to any of the Northwestern officials, either in Milwaukee or Chicago.

The train was running at the rate of forty miles an hour, and yet Mrs. Adams asserts that her assailant jumped off the train after the robbery.

Mrs. Adams has not been seen at her apartments at the Schlitz hotel. Her husband says they are not looking for newspaper notoriety and refuses to discuss the alleged robbery.

"Mrs. Adams is nervous at present," he said. He also showed signs of uneasiness. "She is confined to her bed and is almost prostrated."

J. H. Martin, general agent in this city of the Northwestern, said tonight: "No report of any such robbery of Mrs. Adams or any one else on any of our trains has been made, and, of course, a report by the trainmen would be the first thing done upon reaching any division headquarters.

"If Mrs. Adams or any one else has been robbed, as she claims to have been, how could the robber, especially a woman, leave the train after the robbery? The victim would certainly report it and then the robber could easily be arrested on the train."

Police Doubt the Story.

Mrs. Adams' story apparently is not believed by the police, to whom she was known before her marriage to Adams. They refuse to talk of the case, however, only saying that they are investigating. Mrs. Adams professes to be sick, and continued during the night to refuse to be interviewed. She did not report the case to the police until today, though the robbery is alleged to have taken place on Monday. No reason for this delay is assigned.

SEA AND MONSTERS FLOOD CAFE

Man Falls Into Aquarium at Baltimore Restaurant and in Floundering to Get Out Breaks It.

A broken aquarium, fishes, turtles, and small alligators, swimming and crawling over the floor, and women and men sitting on tables and standing on chairs to get out of the water and escape the teeth of the sea monsters formed a humorous situation in the Baltimore café, 17 Quincy street, yesterday afternoon.

It was shortly after noon, and the café was filled with people. John Ellsworth and George W. Ames of Sycamore, Ill., were leaving the café after luncheon when the former noticed a large aquarium at the entrance. He sat on the edge of it and lost his panama hat in the water. Reaching to get it, he fell in himself. Then floundering, to extricate himself he broke the glass front of the tank, and the sea water flowed over the room. The turtles escaped, and a baby alligator made a dash for the front door. Water, three inches deep, covered the floor.

After paying the damage, amounting to $25, Ellsworth and Ames repaired to their quarters in the Great Northern hotel, to prepare for a visit to the races.

BRAVE SMOKE TO QUENCH FIRE:

Firemen Stand on Ladders at 29-35 Erie Street and Fight a Stubborn Blaze.

Perched on top of two ladders and in clouds of black smoke which poured from the windows of the top floor, members of three fire companies fought a stubborn fire last night at 29 to 35 Erie street. The flames, which started in the Hughes & Brown Satchel and Valise company's factory, were finally extinguished without any of the three lower floors being damaged except by water. The loss is small.

Piper to Have Hearing Today.

John Piper, suspected by the police of having been implicated in the murder of Policemen Pennell and Devine, will be arraigned before Justice Gibbons this morning. Inspector Campbell will ask for a continuance for ten days so he can secure more evidence.

RECEIVER FOR SHIPPING TRUST.

Court Decides Affairs of $80,000,000 Concern Need Immediate Attention.

CREDIT NOW IN BAD SHAPE

In His Opinion, Judge Declares, Directors' Affidavits Are Grossly Misleading.

New York, June 30.—[Special.]—Judge Kirkpatrick's announcement that he would appoint a receiver for the United States Shipbuilding company caused the most heated legal controversy today in the United States Circuit court room in Newark that has marked the struggle for possession of the assets of that $80,000,000 corporation. After arguing all the morning session the lawyers adjourned and returned at half past 2 o'clock and exchanged bitter retorts for an hour longer.

Judge Kirkpatrick then stopped them and told them to come into court tomorrow with an order comprising the powers and limitations that both sides must agree to, and he would sign it, naming one or perhaps two receivers.

In delivering his decision the judge said something must be done at once to conserve the interests of all involved. He said he would appoint a receiver immediately if the opposing counsel would agree upon names to submit to him.

Receiver to Take Everything.

The decree which Judge Kirkpatrick will sign tomorrow morning will direct all holders to place in the receiver's possession all leases, all stock, and all property, real and personal, in the name of the United States Shipbuilding company. The judge stated that the receiver would have all the powers the statute granted such an officer. Some question was raised as to the disposition of the valuable Bethlehem steel plant of C. M. Schwab, and until the terms of his lease are digested that point lies in abeyance.

Judge Kirkpatrick's Opinion.

Judge Kirkpatrick's opinion, after showing that the corporation is without funds, that the directors are unable to raise money upon the corporation credit to meet maturing obligations, and that it is therefore insolvent, goes on to say:

"It would appear that the directors of the company have abdicated their powers, and that the company is drifting along without any guidance. Not only are the directors not striving to relieve the company from embarrassments but they are advising the stockholders to submit to numerous extortions to procure present funds, and threatening foreclosure to those bondholders who refuse to relinquish the security of their mortgages. These people are entitled to the protection of the court, and that protection can only be had by the interference of the court and the appointment of a receiver."

Affidavits Are Misleading.

Referring to the affidavits filed by the directors, the court says:

"If taken literally they would have a tendency to mislead the court. As, for instance, Mr. Gary admits the truth of the statement attributed to him in the complainant's bill that the bills payable of the Shipbuilding company maturing between now and Aug. 1 next, independent of maturing accounts current, are $410,021, but says the liability arises from an indorsement of the notes of the constituent companies and that all of the maturing and pressing accounts in the bill, and mentioned in his statement therein referred to, are obligations incurred by the constituent companies and are not acts chargeable to the United States Shipbuilding company, or that it is liable for them, and adds that there are no notes or bills payable against the United States Shipbuilding company.

"Mr. Hyde, the vice president and general manager of the Bath Iron works, whose affidavit is also annexed, says that in order to carry on the ordinary business of the company, which is one of the constituent companies of the defendant corporation, they have been obliged to borrow money from local banks on their promissory notes, bearing the indorsement of the United States Shipbuilding company.

"Mason Smith Chase, president of the Crescent Shipyard company, says: 'The Crescent Shipyard company has been able to finance its business with assistance from time to time from the defendant herein by lending its credit through indorsement of the company's notes.'

Owns Everything; Owes Nothing.

"It also appears that the defendant company is the owner of practically all of the capital stock of the subsidiary companies, and that it is the actual owner of the plants where the business of this company is conducted; that the organization of the subsidiary companies is maintained merely for the purpose of retaining contracts which are not transferrable; that the properties where the business is conducted, owned by the defendant company, are leased to the subsidiary companies under leases which are terminable on five days' notice."

SCAFFOLD FALLS: ONE MAN SLIDES DOWN 120 FOOT ROPE.

His Companion Carpenter, A. C. Gundling, Plunged to Death—Accident on New Building in Indiana Avenue.

After seeing his companion dashed to death from a scaffold John Anderson, a carpenter, made a desperate fight for his life by clinging to a rope 120 feet from the ground on the high building in course of erection at Fifteenth street and Indiana avenue. While he was dangling in the air he managed to twist the rope about his leg and then slowly slid to the ground.

Once safe on the ground, he saw the body of A. C. Gundling, who had been working with him. Then he realized his own narrow escape and fainted. Gundling had been instantly killed. He was 33 years old and lived with his family at 614 North Campbell avenue. Anderson lives at 300 North Campbell avenue.

The cause of the accident was a guy rope which hung from the scaffold. It caught in the wheel of a wagon driven by August Zastrow, 2019 Oakley avenue, became fastened securely, and when the vehicle moved the scaffold was pulled to pieces. Anderson chanced to be standing at the end of the scaffold, holding to a rope. He instinctively grasped this and was saved. Gundling was standing in the center of the platform and was hurled downward before he knew what was happening.

DON'T FEED THE PARK BEASTS.

Men Will Be Watching You if You Do and Trouble Will Be in Store.

Two yards of rope and a safety pin, found in the stomach of the Lincoln park zebra, induced the park board yesterday to make provisions for hiring men whose whole duty will be to watch the captive beasts and see that their diet is limited to digestibles. A few days ago one of the park sea lions died, and it is believed that the cause of death was some article of food thrown it by a visitor to the park. Hereafter even the small boy who throws peanuts to the bears will come under suspicion.

UNCLE SAM HAS A BIG SURPLUS.

After Paying All Expenses in Fiscal Year There Remains $52,710,590.

BEATS WORLD IN GOLD.

Repeal of the War Taxes Shows No Effect on Government Receipts.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—[Special.]—There was a surplus of $52,710,590 in the treasury at the end of the fiscal year which closed today, notwithstanding the repeal of the war taxes. The United States government now has in its vaults more gold than any other nation on earth.

The receipts for the year were $558,887,526, and the disbursements $506,176,590. The amount of gold in the treasury is $631,630,808, including that against which gold certificates have been issued and the $150,000,000 of gold reserve fund.

The large amount of the surplus was unexpected. At the beginning of the fiscal year it was anticipated that the reduction of internal revenue taxes by the repealing of the war taxes would be $75,000,000, whereas the actual loss was only $41,764,866. Owing to the enormous importation of partly manufactured goods the customs receipts were greater than those of last year by $29,434,701.

There was increase of $9,311,697 in taxes paid on whisky, and the receipts from miscellaneous sources were $8,727,148 greater than last year, the increase being due to phenomenal sales of public lands in the west. The sources of the receipts were:

Customs, $283,891,719; internal revenue, $230,115,256; and miscellaneous, $44,880,551.

The items of expenditure were:

Civil and miscellaneous, $125,016,512; increase, $11,546,988.

War (including river and harbors), $118,549,638; increase, $6,277,468.

Navy, $82,696,803; increase, $14,893,674.

Indians, $12,931,556; increase, $2,881,971.

Pensions, $138,425,618; decrease, $62,942.

Interest, $28,556,618; decrease, $551,427.

Total, $506,176,590; increase, $34,985,732.

Available cash balance in treasury at close of business today was $231,545,012, a gain of $19,357,651.

During the fiscal year ended today the mints of the United States coined 205,893,462 pieces, of which 19,182,824 were pesos and various denominations of centavos for the Philippines; 750,000 were for the government of Venezuela and 1,360,000 for Colombia. The total value of American coins executed was $74,203,000, against $94,526,678 in the previous year.

There was a decrease of $16,278,800 in the value of gold coined, and a slight increase in minor coinage. Deposits of gold with the mints and assay offices during the year, however, increased $1,722,279 over those of the previous year, the total being $134,303,108.

The circulation of the national banks at the close of business today aggregated $413,870,650, being an increase of $56,998,559 over the previous year. Five hundred and thirty-seven new banks began business in the twelve months just closed, being an increase of more than 100 over those for the previous year. The number of national banks which failed during the year was five, and seventy-two went into voluntary liquidation. A majority of those which went into liquidation, however, were merely consolidations with other banks.

The total money in circulation in the United States is $2,375,943,337, being an increase during the last year of $126,532,786. Gold certificates alone furnished $72,957,780 of this increase, the total amount of these notes outstanding being $409,109,869.

The amount of treasury notes issued under the law of 1890 has been decreased from $30,000,000 on June 30 last to $19,243,000 today, this withdrawal being due to the coinage of silver bullion into standard dollars and subsidiary coins.

The amount of public money deposited with the national banks is $151,724,432, being an increase of $27,741,365 during the last twelve months. The number of depositories increased from 574 to 710.

Under the offer of the secretary of the treasury, made on March 26 last, to refund $100,000,000 of short term 3 and 4 per cent bonds in exchange for new 2 per cents, $59,793,800 of 4 per cents of 1907 and $14,408,600 of 3 per cents of 1908 have been exchanged up to today, when the offer was withdrawn. In effecting this exchange the treasury paid out $3,221,024 in cash for the adjustment of premiums and accrued interest, but the annual interest charge on the interest bearing debt of the United States has thereby been reduced $1,339,962. A further reduction of $661,437 in the annual interest charge has been accomplished by the purchase of $16,529,600 of bonds for the sinking fund. The interest bearing debt on June 30 amounted to $914,541,410, being a decrease of $16,528,930 during the year. The 2 per cent consols outstanding comprised $520,143,150 of the total debt.

Hungary intends to impose countervailing duties on American manufactured goods, according to a report received at the department of state from Consul Chester, or to demand the termination of the commercial treaty of 1829 and the institution of a reciprocal in place of the most favored nation convention. Consul Chester says:

"Exports of sugar from Hungary to the United States ceased last year. In concluding a reciprocity treaty with the United States Hungary will lay more stress on her export of glassware, majolica, hand embroideries, bentwood furniture, rubber toys, and tobacconists' ware than on articles paying specific duties, such as mineral water, wine, and brandy, beans, tobacco, and wool.

"It is to be feared that the United States will have difficulty in securing tariff rates as low as those now prevailing under the favored nation clause, or as low as those granted to the manufactures of Germany and Switzerland."

NEW DEAL IN POSTAL SCANDAL.

Bureau of Corporations to Furnish List of Stockholders in Companies Dealing with the Government.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—[Special.]—James A. Garfield, chief of the bureau of corporations, will give material assistance to the inspectors investigating the postal scandals. He had a conference today with Postmaster General Payne, the result of which will aid in securing lists of stockholders of corporations which have contracts with the postoffice department, thus showing whether any postal officials are directly or indirectly interested in business relations between the government and the companies involved.

The question of calling in the bureau of corporations was brought up in connection with the contract between the General Manifold company of Franklin, Pa., of which Representative Sibley of Pennsylvania is a large stockholder, and the postoffice department. Some difficulty has been experienced by inspectors in securing lists of stockholders of this company, and in the absence of authority to compel the production of such lists the bureau of corporations was called in.

A particular effort is to be made in this particular case to discover whether Supt. Landvoigh of the classification division, who is one of Assistant Postmaster General Madden's chief subordinates, and who has a son in the employ of the General Manifold company, also owns stock in that concern.

COTTON CORNER UNBROKEN

NEW ORLEANS BULLS MEET SHOCK IN NEW YORK.

Attacks from Liverpool and Elsewhere Send Prices Down at Alarming Pace, but Buying Orders Soon Restore Them to Safe Level—Head of Southern Operators Says Affairs Will Go Through as Planned—England Is Reshipping.

New York, June 30.—[Special.]—Cotton literally was thrown on the market in this city today, and it was taken to mean that the corner had at last been broken, but the stampede to sell did not last long, when the aggressive and confident tactics of the New Orleans party were resumed.

An impromptu curb had forced prices from 10 to 20 points below the regular closing quotations on Monday, and when the opening arrived today many others had decided to throw their holdings on the market. The excitement was accentuated by news from Liverpool that there had been a sharp break in prices in that city.

Bull Corner Heavy Buyer.

The New Orleans bull party, however, rushed a great number of buying orders to this market, with the result that after the first panicky liquidation was over there was a sharp recovery.

One of the developments of the day was the announcement that Liverpool dealers had reshipped to this country 1,000 bales of American cotton for delivery on contract here. This has happened once or twice before, but the repetition of the event caused a great deal of unfavorable comment.

The bulls still hold firm and appear sure of their ground.

Cotton Bulls Are Confident.

New Orleans, La., June 30.—[Special.]—Each day as it passes seems to strengthen the hand of W. P. Brown, Frank B. Hayne, and their associate bulls in the movement which has cornered the cotton market.

Yesterday, despite the report that 100,000 bales were to be offered for delivery, there were less than 1,000, and today there were practically no offers made.

Mr. Hayne got here from New York yesterday. "In New York," Mr. Hayne said, "we accepted notices for 95,600 bales. As we already owned some of the New York stock we had taken on May and June, there is only left about 53,000 bales of certificated cotton in New York. Whenever that is tendered us we are ready to take care of it.

"All of this cotton, except what we have already disposed of, is for sale to the cotton trade, and we expect before the new cotton begins to make its appearance to dispose of our holdings to advantage.

Not Enough to Go Around.

"No mill with cotton on hand will shut down, but as there is not enough cotton to go around many mills will be forced to suspend operations. I don't think, however, that any mills that can obtain the quality of cotton they need for their requirements will shut down if they are able to purchase cotton at the present prices.

"As soon as the mills disabuse themselves that the present advance is not manipulative, but legitimate, the better it will be for them."

BOGUS LORD SAYS SUPPOSED MURDERED MAN IS ALIVE.

F. Seymour Barrington, Accused of Crime, Blusters About Affair and Insists He Is Innocent.

St. Louis, Mo., June 30.—F. Seymour Barrington, confined in the county jail at Clayton on the charge of having murdered James H. McCann, continues to declare his innocence.

"Jim McCann will show up," Barrington declared today, "and when he does it will make those who called me his murderer sweat blood." The prisoner went on to say that he knows McCann is alive, but that for certain reasons McCann is remaining in hiding, and, even though he sees the newspaper accounts of his probable murder, he will not return to St. Louis and dispel the murder theory.

The body found near Bonfels was buried today in St. Peter's cemetery as that of James P. McCann. Barrington will not talk of his plans for defense. He declares that he will be cleared and that he will conduct his case himself.

WEALTHY YOUNG WOMAN SUES FOR BREACH OF PROMISE.

Miss Epsie George of Bedford, Ind., Asks $25,000 Damages from Attorney S. B. Peugh of the Same Town.

Bedford, Ind., June 30.—[Special.]—Miss Epsie George, 20 years of age, has filed a suit in the Lawrence county Circuit court against S. B. Peugh for breach of promise and the amount of damages asked is $25,000. Miss George is the owner in her own name of property valued at over $100,000.

In her complaint she says that through the confidence she had in Mr. Peugh on account of his promise to marry her she bought thirty-three building lots near this city belonging to Jule Walters, and that the price was double what the lots were worth, and that her affianced pocketed the half of the proceeds.

She also alleges that she spent nearly $200 for a wedding outfit, and that the wedding was to have been celebrated on June 16. Mr. Peugh is one of Bedford's leading attorneys.

NEW BRIGADE IN ILLINOIS.

Springfield, Ill., June 30.—The new military code, which takes effect tomorrow, creates a fourth brigade in the Illinois National guard. An order was issued today from the adjutant general's office reorganizing brigades as follows:

First brigade—First infantry, Second infantry, First cavalry, Gen. George M. Moulton, commanding.

Second brigade—Fourth infantry, Fifth infantry, Battery "A." Gen. Horace S. Clark, commanding.

Third brigade—Third infantry, Sixth infantry, Battery "B."

Fourth brigade—Seventh infantry, Eighth infantry, Battery "D." Gen. James B. Smith, commanding.

Col. D. Jack Foster, commander of the Sixth infantry, will be commander of the Third brigade.

CHICAGOANS BUY BOSTON BANK.

Otis, Wilson & Co. Purchase the Mount Vernon National, Whose Capital Is $200,000.

Boston, Mass., June 30.—[Special.]—Control of the Mount Vernon national bank of this city has been bought by Otis, Wilson & Co. of Chicago. The Mount Vernon has a capital of $200,000. The semi-annual dividend, payable in January, was passed, as the directors decided to charge off some old accounts. According to the return which the bank made to the controller on June 9 it had total deposits of $1,009,761, loans and discounts of $858,488, and surplus, including undivided profits, of $25,368. Otis, Wilson & Co. recently obtained control of the Western State bank of Chicago, and the Mount Vernon bank will be its Boston correspondent.

NO RACE BARRIER TO NEGRO CULTURE

Education the Key to the Future of the Black Man in This Country.

HAS POWER TO ACHIEVE.

Dr. Frissell of Hampton, Va., Talks of His Analysis of the Character of His Pupils.

ference between them. On the contrary, our valedictorians, as we have noticed, run all the way from the blackest negro to the lightest mulatto who would pass for white anywhere in the northern states."

Cause of Crimes.

I asked Dr. Frissell what was the cause of the apparent increase of serious crimes among the negroes, and in reply he gave me a luminous analysis of the effect of slavery, in the first place, and the effect of emancipation in the second.

"Slavery had its good uses after all, and some of us northern people ought to learn that fact," said the doctor, who had been in New England in attendance upon the commencement exercises at both Yale and Harvard. "The institution of slavery of necessity put all the negroes on a dead level. It held up a certain class of black men who had criminal and vicious instincts. They were forced to be industrious, had no opportunity to commit crimes, and when they broke over the bounds were punished so relentlessly they were speedily cowed into subjection. In this way, slavery as a matter of course prevented crime to a great extent. When emancipation came, the naturally depraved and criminal class of negroes was deprived of this upholding influence of the slavery system. They began, naturally, to exhibit license instead of liberty, and they have distinctly degenerated since slave days.

"It is this degenerate, natural criminal class among the negroes which is giving us all the trouble today. They are not any more numerous proportionately than the same class of criminals in any other race. They are the single 'submerged tenth' among the negroes, and are practically identical in their instincts and their criminal instincts and their criminal following with the same class we find in the white slums of New York and Chicago. They are not growing, but, on the contrary, the advance of education in the south is reducing their number."

Bad Effects of Slavery.

"On the other hand," continued the doctor, "slavery had a distinctly bad effect with which we are entirely familiar. The slavery system involved, as a matter of course, the denial of education to the negro. In fact, slavery could not exist with an educated, cultured class of slaves. The result was that a large proportion of the negroes who were capable of a fair measure of culture were reduced to the same level by slavery with the incompetent and criminal class. Since emancipation this portion of the colored race which could be reached by the purely voluntary educational methods the country has been satisfied to adopt has made enormous strides for them. Washington, Dubois, and many other negroes whose names have become familiar to white men are not freaks, but are merely examples of what education has done and will do for that great class of negroes whose natural mental activity was reduced by slavery to the natural dead level. They have advanced as no other race in the history of the world ever did advance in the same length of time. They have had the advantage of association with cultured white men which no other barbaric race ever had. The negro has shown himself susceptible of education, and it is impossible for us to deny this fact.

"Furthermore, we must not lose sight of the fact that there was a great middle class of the negroes midway between the progressive and the criminal elements, which was neither helped nor hindered by emancipation. This great intermediate stratum is today about where it was a generation ago. It is at the dead level to which slavery compressed the whole race, and it is this element which is neither criminal nor intellectual, which is merely inert, that we have to train into good citizenship by education. For the great mass of the colored people work with their hands must continue to be the only thing they can hope to do successfully. It is in harmony with this idea that we have laid such stress here in Hampton upon agriculture. Our academic course is entirely subsidiary. It seeks merely to teach the pupil how to become a better farmer, and in our industrial department we have been laying more and more stress upon those trades which can be practiced more easily in connection with agriculture. Blacksmiths, wheelwrights, ordinary carpenters, and similar simple mechanics can find ready occupation in farming districts."

Hampton Teachers White.

Having but recently been at Tuskegee, where, as a matter of course, all the instructors, both industrial and academic, were negroes, I was much struck here at the Hampton institute by the fact that the teaching faculty is entirely white. I called Dr. Frissell's attention to this difference and asked him whether it did not seem to indicate a certain shutting off of the avenues of promotion to bright negro students.

"We have deemed it best," he replied, "to maintain a white faculty in this school for colored children for a variety of reasons. The most important, perhaps, is that the negro for a long time to come must expect to reap the benefit of the culture and the experience of the white man. If we were to turn the negroes loose to educate themselves exclusively there would be but little progress. It seems to be necessary, in fact, to keep a constant stream of white culture pouring in so as to secure the best results. We find that the association with cultivated white teachers is an excellent thing for the young negro boys and girls. They learn a great deal by mere imitation, and they appreciate the fact readily that the culture of the white man, which has made him what he is, is being freely put at their disposal."

Effects of Association.

This question of the influence of white teachers upon colored students can, perhaps, be best understood from the fact that Booker Washington is a graduate of Hampton, and that the Hampton school sends colored teachers annually to Tuskegee and other negro institutions, which are exclusively manned by colored men and women. In truth, it was Gen. Armstrong at Hampton, who, on request of the people of Alabama, selected Booker Washington to organize the school which has made such a vast success so much farther south under the exclusive control of negro teachers. This question, however, brought up that of the delicate social relations between the white teachers and the negro scholars, and on this point Dr. Frissell elaborated the results of his experience by saying:

"I wish our friends in the south could learn the lesson we have learned here, which is, that when the negro is really cultivated and taught self-respect, he prefers to keep to himself, to associate with other cultivated negroes, and does not bother the white people at all. It is not true that the moment you attempt to cultivate the negro you instill into him notions of social equality. Quite the contrary is true. When we succeed in teaching the colored men and women self-respect, from that moment they begin to realize that there is something in their own race to be proud of, they seek the society of colored people with similar ideals, and they never make the slightest attempt to cultivate social relations with white people of the vicinity. The well bred, educated negroes into whose homes you have been in this vicinity, must have convinced you of the truth of this statement."

RELIANCE WINS IN A SEA.

NEW CUP YACHT SHOWS SUPERIORITY IN HEAVY WEATHER.

Over a Course of Thirty Miles Off Newport, R. I., Defeats Constitution by More than Seven Minutes and Columbia by Eight Minutes — Latter May Get Second Place — Shamrock III. Disabled by Broken Traveler—President to See First Match.

SUMMARY OF RACE.

	Start.	Finish.	Elapsed.
Reliance	11:45:06	3:00:44	3:15:38
Constitution	11:46:01	3:08:41	3:22:40
Columbia	11:45:09	3:08:48	3:23:39

Newport, R. I., June 30.—Reliance scored another decisive victory over Constitution and Columbia today in a fifteen mile thrash to windward and return. Boat for boat Constitution won over Columbia, but time allowance will probably give the latter second place. The new craft sailed the course in 7 minutes 2 seconds less time than Constitution, and 8 minutes 1 second less than the older boat. Constitution covered the thirty miles in fifty-nine seconds less time than Columbia.

The race was sailed in a breeze of from ten to twelve miles strength, and after Point Judith had been left behind on the way out to the weather mark a long, rolling sea was met. Reliance dipped deeper into the waves than did either of the other boats, but it had no retarding effect upon its speed. On the contrary, the new craft walked away from its opponents the fastest in the sea.

Columbia also gained over Constitution in the rough water going to windward, outpointing and outfooting the latter.

Sir Thomas Lipton is expected here in the morning on Erin to witness tomorrow's race, while repairs are being made to Shamrock III. Commodore F. G. Bourne of the New York Yacht club will also be here on the flagship Delaware.

Shamrock III. Is Disabled.

New York, June 30.—Three minutes after crossing the starting line of what was to have been a thirty mile race over the international course off Sandy Hook with Shamrock I. today, Shamrock III. was disabled when the traveler, by which the main sheet is held to the deck, was carried away. It was compelled to withdraw. Repairs may be completed in time to race tomorrow.

President Will See Race.

Oyster Bay, L. I., June 30.—President Roosevelt has expressed his intention to witness the races between Reliance and Shamrock III. to be sailed on Aug. 20. He will go to the course on the Mayflower. Sir Thomas Lipton recently extended to the president a cordial invitation to witness the races from his yacht Erin, but, while appreciating the invitation and the spirit which prompted it, President Roosevelt felt obliged to decline it.

HILLMON INSURANCE CASE ENDED AFTER 24 YEARS.

Litigation Over Policies on Life of Man Who Disappeared on Hunting Trip Is Over at Last.

Leavenworth, Kas., June 30.—[Special.]—The famous Hillmon insurance case was finally taken from the docket of the United States Circuit court today. The case had been on the docket for more than twenty-four years, during which time there were six long trials, taking up about 300 working days of the court, and it was appealed twice and passed upon by the United States Supreme court. In each of the appeals verdicts in favor of the widow were set aside.

The original suit was brought against the New York Life for $10,000, the Mutual Life of New York for $10,000, and the Connecticut Mutual for $5,000. The New York Life settled after the fifth trial, and the Mutual Life settled in August, 1901, nine months after a verdict had been rendered against it during the sixth trial for $22,008.

The Connecticut Mutual carried the verdict against it for $11,054 to the United States Supreme court, and it was set aside.

This reversal left Mrs. Hillmon Smith liable for an enormous amount of costs, estimated at $90,000, unless she secured a new verdict and one that would hold good.

It is said that she has accepted an offer to settle by the Connecticut Mutual agreeing to take care of its own costs. On the other hand, F. W. Hutchings, one of her counsel, stated that she received several thousand dollars besides.

FIRE IS DR. TORREY'S THEME.

Series of Revival Meetings in Moody Church Come to a Close.

"All who feel the need of more fire in their hearts stand up," said the Rev. R. A. Torrey last evening, and four-fifths of his large audience arose. Then there was a call for sinners who sought repentance, and two score more were on their feet. The gathering broke into a song of praise, and the last of the present series of revival meetings in the Moody church was over. "Fire" was the theme of the evangelist's address, and in part he said:

"What we need in our pulpits are men of fire. Ministers preach with all the beauties of rhetoric and nice distinctions of thoughts, and the members of the congregation say, 'What a fine preacher we have,' but no one is moved. There are no conversions.

"Then along comes a man who does not know half as much, who is perhaps uncouth and ungrammatical, but who is on fire, and sinners are moved to repentance. Fire is what we need in the Sunday schools, too—teachers who are on fire. I wish we had teachers who knew less about texts and were more on fire."

NEW CLERKS FOR POSTOFFICE.

Washington Authorities Order Employment of Seventy-five More Today in Chicago.

Seventy-five new clerks will go to work in the postoffice today, the beginning of the new fiscal year. The additional men were allowed by the authorites at Washington yesterday in response to a request for more help made by Postmaster Coyne two months ago. They are only a part of the total requisition put in by Mr. Coyne. He was told some time ago that he could appoint 200 additional clerks, and it is expected that the promise will be fulfilled as soon as the present tangled conditions in the department at Washington are overcome. It is expected that the proposed increases of salaries also will be made soon.

LYNCH NEGRO IN ALABAMA

MOB AT SCOTTSBORO ENGAGES IN FIGHT WITH SHERIFF.

Official Attempts to Save Andrew Diggs, Arrested for Criminal Assault, with Two Revolvers—Is Shot Twice and His Daughter Is Forced to Give Up Jail Keys—Governor Orders Special Term of Court to Investigate—Five Leaders Recognized.

Scottsboro, Ala., June 30.—Andrew Diggs, a negro, was taken from the jail last night and hanged by a mob. The negro was arrested Sunday for an attempt to criminally assault Miss Alma, the 19 year old daughter of Dr. B. B. Smith.

The sheriff attempted to stand off the mob with two pistols. Mounting the stairs he said he would kill any one who attempted to come up. The threat was met with a volley, and the sheriff emptied his revolver in reply. One shot took effect in the sheriff's right leg and the other in his pistol arm.

Take Keys from Sheriff's Daughter.

The daughter of the sheriff ran to her father and was at once covered by a pistol in the hands of a member of the mob and made to deliver the keys to the cell in which the negroe was confined. One of the masked men summoned a doctor, who responded promptly and dressed the wounds of the sheriff, which are not dangerous.

Negro Makes Confession.

The negro made a confession to the brother of the young woman and others who visited the jail after his capture.

Calls Special Term of Court.

Atlanta, Ga., June 30.—[Special.]—Gov. Jelks of Alabama has ordered a special term of court to try five members of the Scottsboro mob, who were recognized at the jail when they lynched Andrew Diggs, a negro.

Negro Seeks His Child.

Chattanooga, Tenn., June 30.—[Special.]—Habeas corpus proceedings were begun today in the Circuit court by J. T. Sunderland against Mrs. Steele, the manager of the Steele Colored Orphans' home of this city, used exclusively for negroes, for William, the 2 year old child of the petitioner. The petition alleges that the child was kidnaped from its home in Knoxville in May and was by some person brought to the home for negro children. Mrs. Steele in a statement says that she was asked by prominent white people, including County Judge Collier of Knox county, to care for the child, and that she has been doing so.

NEWSBOY OF SEVEN SLAIN

MUTILATED BODY FOUND NEAR ROCKFORD, ILL.

Deed of a Degenerate — Remains Are Split Open, Hands Tied, and Mouth Gagged—Last Seen a Week Ago and No Motive Can Be Learned for Crime —Police Unable to Get Any Trace of the Assassin — Public Feeling Is Aroused.

Rockford, Ill., June 30.—[Special.]—The remains of Richard Tebbetts, a newsboy 7 years old, who disappeared eight days ago, were found today by section men near the Driving park, about two miles north of the city. The circumstances point to a brutal murder, but the motive is a mystery.

The child had been practically disembowled, the chest being split open as though with a sharp knife. In his throat was stuffed an old handkerchief. His hands were bound by his suspenders. Beside him lay his unsold papers, a bag of candy, and some pennies. The body was badly decomposed.

Last Seen June 22.

The boy was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Tebbetts, who are divorced. He was last seen on the night of June 22, when he was on the streets selling his papers. He did not return home, and a few days later the river was dragged for a considerable distance, a playmate of about the same age having told that he saw him fall into the stream. The theory of drowning had been abandoned, however, and it was thought the boy had run away.

The police so far have found no evidence of value. Public feeling over the discovery is intense.

The police confess they are baffled by the mystery which envelops the crime. The fact that more than a week has elapsed since the commission of the crime adds to the difficulties which beset the authorities.

The circumstances of the murder stamp it as the work of a degenerate.

Said His Prayers at Mother's Side.

Mrs. Tebbets, the mother of the murdered boy, says she last saw him alive when he said his prayers before her a week ago last Sunday night. She left home to go to her work the next morning before he was awake. A sister of the boy met him on the streets during the day, and others saw him early in the evening and bought papers of him. No one has been found who saw him in company with any stranger.

So rapid have been the changes in business methods within the last five years that a man who hopes to keep in the race must be alert and ready at any moment to change his methods and take advantage of every progressive step in the matter of better system that offers. And if he is not prepared to do this he may as well shut up shop and retire at once, for the business struggle has become so strenuous that only those who are able to adapt themselves to the conditions of today, no matter how radically they may be at variance with those of yesterday, have reasonable hope for success.

HOLD AN INQUEST ON 'PHONE GRANT.

Directors of Manufacturers' Association Find Plan Dead, but Not Interred.

ALDERMEN TO BURY IT.

Proposed Franchise for "Trunk Tunnels" Under Downtown Streets Safeguarded.

Directors of the Illinois Manufacturers' association held what one of them styled an inquest yesterday afternoon. The subject was the United Telegraph, Telephone and Electric company's ordinance, and the verdict was that, while it showed every sign of being dead, still it would bear watching.

At the city hall, however, the verdict was that the ordinance was "the deadest thing in Chicago." The prediction was that it would never be even reported out of the committee, and the council would not even have a chance to vote it down. Nobody has a good word to say for it, and the members of the committee who originally voted for it are busy explaining that they never intended it seriously.

Corporation Counsel Tolman gave the measure to Assistant Counsel Fyffe in the afternoon to be drafted in proper form and presented to the committee for its final action at the next meeting. As nearly as can be learned now when this is done the majority who voted for the ordinance last week will suddenly discover that the paper in its perfected form was not what was wanted, anyhow, and that will be the end of it. Chairman Herrmann has stated that he thought the committee acted in ignorance of the real meaning of the ordinance, and the nine members who recommended it are getting ready to take the hint.

Formal Declaration Made.

At the meeting of the directors of the Illinois Manufacturers' association all the information given was that there was no chance of the ordinance passing even if it were brought to a vote in the council. The directors, however, determined to go on record as opposed to any system of measured telephone charges which did not provide for a maximum charge a 'phone, and with this idea in view adopted unanimously resolutions which declare:

Resolved, That it is the sense of this organization that the passage of the ordinance of the United Telegraph, Telephone and Electric company will be detrimental to the industrial, commercial, and business interests of Chicago, as well as to the general public; and be it further

Resolved, That this association is unalterably opposed to any measured service system of telephone charges without a maximum limitation less than that now charged by the existing company, and that the president, secretary, and counsel of the association take such steps as they may think proper to carry out the intent of these resolutions.

Tunnel Ordinance Safeguarded.

After weeks of wrangling, the amendatory ordinance, by which the Illinois Telephone and Telegraph company seeks the right to construct fourteen foot "trunk line" tunnels under certain downtown streets, was finally drafted at a conference between Corporation Counsel Tolman and Assistant Fyffe, Ald. Bennett and Mayor of the local transportation committee, and President A. S. Wheeler and Counsel T. A. Moran for the company. It is now claimed that safeguarding phrases have been incorporated by which the company will be prevented from selling out to the Chicago Telephone company or any similar corporation.

Corporation Counsel Tolman issued a letter to Ald. Bennett with the redrafted ordinance, calling attention to four points. "Legal objections have been removed," he asserted, "and only questions of policy remain."

It is first pointed out that the requirement that all tunnels, large and small alike, shall be torn out by the company should they obstruct any subway which the city may build applies only to the district bounded by Twelfth street, the lake, and the river. It is asked whether the council wishes to extend the northern and western boundaries of this district.

Removal of the tunnels, as thus specified, is required only in case of their interfering with a subway "constructed or owned by the city." Though the claim is made that it would be unfair to have a private subway corporation drive the Illinois tunnels out of business, yet it is pointed out that conditions may be such that the city may need to have the traction companies or some other corporation build subways. The council is asked to consider this point.

TRACTION MEETINGS ARE OVER.

Aldermen and City Railway Cannot Agree on Compensation—Ordinance Will Be Prepared.

Negotiations between the council's subcommittee on franchises and the representatives of the Chicago City railway company practically ended yesterday. No agreement was reached on the question of compensation. The company insists that "if it is to rehabilitate its entire system it can afford to pay little or no compensation, while if only a "reasonably good improvement" is made a small compensation can be paid. Another cause of the breaking off of negotiations was the reported illness of President D. G. Hamilton of the railway company.

The franchise subcommittee will now proceed to draft a tentative traction ordinance, leaving the question of compensation open.

Attorney Joseph S. Auerbach of New York will reach Chicago today, and further plans of the Union Traction interests will be mapped out. Judge Grosscup is not expected back from Ashland, O., before July 7. Consequently the receivers and attorneys for the corporation may make a trip there near the close of the week, and the jurist may then issue a formal statement of instructions as to improvements to be made, methods of service, and the position to be assumed on the ninety-nine year act claims.

AUTO RUNS DOWN LITTLE GIRL.

Idall Barnes, Four Years Old, Struck by Vehicle and Seriously Injured.

While crossing Wentworth avenue with her father 4 year old Idall Barnes, 3656 Wentworth avenue, was knocked down and seriously injured last evening by an automobile operated by A. O. Walworth, 657 Thirty-seventh place. The operator of the machine stopped his vehicle at once and offered his assistance in caring for the girl, who was taken to her home. The police would have arrested Mr. Walworth had not Mr. Barnes declared he was not to blame.

The mystery of the automobile which was wrecked at Clark and Polk streets early yesterday morning was explained yesterday when Albert W. Goodrich, 1474 Michigan avenue, president of the Goodrich Transportation company, explained that he was the owner and operator of the machine. The auto ran into a trolley pole, but the occupants were uninjured.

SAVES MOTHER FROM BEATING.

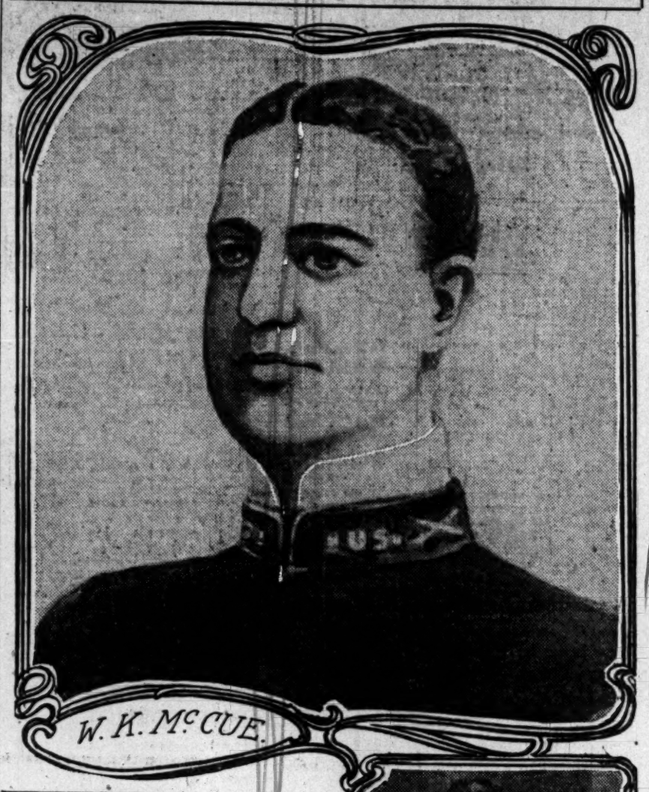
Charles Luchs Disables His Stepfather, M. B. Sargent, Farmer Near Evanston, Using Hatchet.

Because M. B. Sargent, a farmer two miles west of Evanston, beat his wife yesterday afternoon, Charles Luchs, the 18 year old son of Mrs. Sargent, went to her defense with a hatchet. Sargent now lies in the Evanston hospital with injuries which may prove fatal.

Ali Shubal of 10841 Torrence avenue was locked up last night by the South Chicago police, charged with an attempt to kill F. Chorak of 8910 The Strand.

It seems that Shubal had sent $300 to his sweetheart in Germany that she might join him here. She came but married Chorak. Shubal demanded his $300, and is said to have fired two shots in the effort to collect.

ERRATIC LIEUTENANT AND HIS WIFE NO. 1.



W. K. McCUE.

Mrs. McCue No. 1.

"HUSH" IS CHIEF'S ORDER.

"NO FIREWORKS," HE ASSERTS, "UNTIL JULY 4."

O'Neill Summons His Inspectors and Declares That All Premature Patriotic Celebrations Are Grounds for Arrests, but the Noise of Exploding Firecrackers Is Heard as Before — Students Blamed for Uproar Near the Hospitals—Police Plans.

Spike the guns and put out the punk! Chief O'Neill declares that there must be no setting off of firecrackers or toy pistols before July 4 under pain of immediate arrest. If necessary he will do the arresting himself.

Despite this threat the reports of exploding firecrackers and larger pieces of fireworks were heard from end to end of Chicago last night. Hyde Park, where the chief resides, was particularly noisy. But no arrests were made.

"I want arrests, that's what I want," was the chief's order at a conference with all his inspectors yesterday. "Get out and see that your men make arrests. Even if the courts do not fine offenders it will serve to show that we are making determined efforts to enforce the law."

The deadliness of fireworks, as well as danger to the public, is the ground the chief takes for his stand. He believes that there should be no noisy celebration on the fourth of July.

Chief Opposed to Fireworks.

"Every fourth brings its own increasing record of deaths, disasters, and disfigurements," said he. "Yet every year we go on with this way of celebration. Every fourth brings death and misery to thousands all over the country. Yet every year it's fireworks and danger over again. I can't see why people who are sensible in everything else will not see to it that their children have nothing to do with caps and pistols and firecrackers."

One important point taken up with the inspectors was the question of details about hospitals on the fourth. "And what do you think we find?" queried the chief. "Why, that the greatest offenders about hospitals are the students who are studying there. It is almost impossible to stop them. I hope a sense of shame will have some effect.

"I just venture to say," concluded the chief, "that there will be some arrests within twenty-four hours."

General Order on the Subject.

Then the following order was issued to each member of the department:

To all members of the force: The premature efforts of boys to celebrate the fourth of July in advance is causing no end of inconvenience to people with sensitive nerves and those who are sick and ailing. It also makes it dangerous to drive, and especially to leave a horse standing without a driver for any length of time.

All officers will make an earnest effort to prevent the setting off of fireworks or making other objectionable noises tending to disturb the peace and quiet of the community until the fourth of July, the day set apart for the celebration. Also put a stop as far as possible to the placing upon street car tracks of torpedoes or other explosives.

WATERED MILK THROWN AWAY.

Inspectors Confiscate Eight Cans on Santa Fe Cars—South Water Street Men Score a Point.

Enforcement of the new milk ordinance began yesterday, with the result that twelve cans of watered milk, destined for Chicago dealers, were dumped into the gutter. Supt. Grady and Inspectors Kelly and Weiss found this milk in cars on the Santa Fé tracks at Archer avenue. The shippers charged with sending it were:

S. J. Williams, Romeoville, eight cans.
Fred Hahn, Bryanville, two cans.
John Heartt, Lemont, two cans.

The judiciary committee of the council recommended for passage the ordinance prohibiting the selling of perishable fruit or vegetables from railroad tracks except in carload lots, under fines ranging from $10 to $50. The measure is in the interest of South Water street men, who object because small dealers who have "offices under their hats" are making heavy profits by selling fruit and vegetables in small lots direct from cars.

The new boiler and smoke inspection department will begin work today. Robert B. Wilcox of the public works department will be transferred as the mechanical engineer to serve on the new department's board.

HARMONY IN IOWA CONVENTION.

Republicans Meet Today Without the Sign of a Contest Over the Platform —Only One Fight.

Des Moines, Ia., June 30.—[Special.]—The leaders of the forces that are seeking to get most possible out of the republican convention which meets tomorrow laid many schemes today, but the harmony arrangement still stands and there is no longer any doubt that, so far as it relates to the platform, there will be no break and that the document will go to the convention from the committee with a unanimous report behind it.

Early in the day a determined effort was made to force a change in the platform as agreed upon by Senator Allison and Gov. Cummins, the attempt being made through Senator Allison by the anti-Cummins men. Gov. Cummins refused to change a single word in the draft and Senator Allison informed the other side that this must end the matter so far as he was concerned.

Ministers Make Trip to Milwaukee.

Presbyterian and Baptist ministers enjoyed their annual outing on Lake Michigan yesterday. At 10 o'clock 2,000 preachers and their friends boarded the steamship Christopher Columbus and left for Milwaukee. Devotional services were held on the deck. At Milwaukee the ministers were driven through the parks and boulevards on coaches.

BELIEVES IN HER SOLDIER

BRIDE OF LIEUT. M'CUE DOUBTS HE'S A BIGAMIST.

Military Man Convinces Wife No. 2 That He Is Innocent, but He May Have More Trouble in Squaring Himself with the War Department—Officer Is Now Under Detention at Fort Sheridan—Declares That Accusing Telegrams Are Bogus.

It was a case of kiss and make up yesterday between Lieut. W. K. McCue, U. S. A., and his bride, but placating the girl he had mistreated was the least of the army officer's troubles. He must "square" himself with the war department, and pending an explanation of his conduct he is being detained at Fort Sheridan, having been taken there last night by Lieut. Willis, aid to Gen. Bates.

Mrs. McCue remained at the Great Northern hotel last night and expects to join her husband at Fort Sheridan today. Despite seemingly absolute proof, she refuses to believe he is a bigamist.

McCue stoutly denies that he is a bigamist and says that the Cincinnati woman to whom he is known to have been married is only a "dear friend." He also denies that he had any intention of deserting his bride in Chicago.

All Charges Denied.

"I left my wife in the hotel at half past 9 in the morning," said Lieut. McCue, "and when I returned at 11 she was gone. I was told she had left the hotel and I hunted all night for her. She ran away from me and I get the credit of deserting her. I shall stay at Fort Sheridan until this thing is straightened out. It is a dreadful thing for me and for the service. It may take a month to straighten it out. Yes, Mrs. McCue will come up there. I'm not going to lose her again.

"It is all the work of a jealous woman in San Francisco. She is a married woman. She got hold of those letters of my cousin Ida Westcott and used them to try and make out a story against me. I don't think Ida Westcott had anything to do with it. She did write me some affectionate letters, but she was my cousin and she was young. I was her hero then. It was in '98, just at the beginning of the Spanish war, and you know every soldier was a hero to some girl. That was all there ever was to it. I didn't marry her.

"I don't think any of these telegrams purporting to be from her or from the priest are genuine. A telegraph office attaché told me they were not. There were no numbers on them and they were signed with a blue pencil. Telegrams are never signed with a blue pencil."

Priest Says It's Bigamy.

Mrs. McCue No. 2 yesterday wired to Father John Mackay, the priest in Cincinnati who was said to have married Lieut. McCue and Ida Westcott, and received a reply that the ceremony was performed, as reported. This is one of the telegrams which the lieutenant, in his rambling way, claims are bogus.

Lieut. McCue had the appearance last night of a man who had been drinking to excess, but he attributed his extreme nervousness to the mental strain to which he has been subjected.

Lieut. McCue is being detained at Fort Sheridan pending an investigation of his marital affairs. He has a wife in Cincinnati and a bride in Chicago.

ARMY TO INVADE KENTUCKY.

Regular and State Troops Will Have Field Maneuvers There, It Is Thought, in the Fall.

Field maneuvers for the United States army and the national guard of four states, similar to those of last fall at Fort Riley, Kas., but on a larger scale, will take place next October, probably at West Point, Ky. The states which will participate will be Wisconsin, Michigan, Indiana, and Kentucky, the state officials of Illinois and Ohio having declined. It is said that fully 8,000 soldiers will take part in the exercises. War balloons will be used, it is expected.

IGNORE SUMMONS OF MERIT BOARD.

Health Department Men, on Lawyer's Advice, Refuse to Attend Hearing.

STORMY SESSION HELD.

Attorneys and the Civil Service Commissioners Have Angry Arguments.

Officials of the health department yesterday contested the authority of the civil service commission to continue the department investigation, which has now reached its crucial stage.

Sanitary inspectors who were wanted as witnesses refused to appear. As a result what has been an investigation of alleged lax enforcement of sanitary laws may result in charges being filed against municipal employés for refusing to appear before the merit board. These men have engaged Attorney Joseph A. O'Donnell as their counsel. In a stormy argument he challenged the merit commission's right to call these inspectors unless individual charges are filed against each man.

"I represent the employés of the health department," began Attorney O'Donnell when the session was opened with only Commissioners Powell and Meier present.

"We must refuse you the right at this stage of the investigation to represent any individuals," returned President Powell.

O'Donnell Denounces Methods.

Here Commissioner Errant appeared and Mr. O'Donnell made a statement.

"I have come here, gentlemen," he said, "to protect employés of the health department from being placed in jeopardy; from being cross examined and afterwards placed under charges on their own statements. It is unlawful. This is a systematic sweat-box investigation. You can't go into such an investigation under the law. I shall advise my clients not to come here if they are called."

Attorney Donahue, who is defending the department, was asked if he was ready and the case took a new tack. "We are not ready to proceed with the defense," he answered. "We have no witnesses."

"Have the employés of the health department refused to come here?" demanded Commissioner Meier.

"Some of them told me," replied Attorney Donahue, "that they had engaged Mr. O'Donnell and would not appear. I gave some blank subpœnas to Inspector Young, but they were not served."

"Mr. Donahue, you are getting yourself into a position which would give you no standing in a court of record," warned Mr. Meier.

"I am conducting this case as an attorney," retorted Donahue. "I will stand no criticism from this board."

Commission Appeals to Fyffe.

Assistant Corporation Counsel Fyffe, who is aiding the prosecution, appeared at this point. "There are no charges against the men wanted and yet these men of the health department have refused to come in," explained Commissioner Powell. "We understand that blank subpœnaes merely were left with the head of the inspection bureau."

"Such notice should have been sufficient," asserted Mr. Fyffe. "If these men have refused to appear then we are confronted with a matter more vital and more serious than the question of sanitary conditions in the Nineteenth ward. Why, this is most serious as affecting the rights of the civil service commission to maintain discipline in the city service."

"Those opinions are without weight," asserted Mr. O'Donnell. "They are unworthy of the attorney who makes them."

"If the commission desires any employés of the department notified to appear, I will see that they are notified," said Mr. Fyffe. "If they then refuse there will be ground for charges for refusing to obey the civil service board. That is a most serious matter."

Commissioner Errant asserted that the commission hardly knew just what men it desired, it having been expected that the health officials would give some information as to those employés most conversant with inspection work. "Would you give us the names, Commissioner Reynolds?" he asked, turning to the head of the department.

Reynolds in Awkward Fix.

"I can give you the entire roster of attachés if you want it," replied Dr. Reynolds, much perturbed. "I don't know where I am in this matter. It seems that I must stand in the position of prosecutor, if not persecutor, of the men I am supposed to direct. I care to say no more."

Commissioner Reynolds did not answer questions as to how contagious diseases were placarded or whether fines against violators of sanitary laws had been remitted when the necessary work to comply with the laws was performed.

There was a long wrangle over the department having submitted no report on the twenty-six cases chosen from the "stay book," on which the commission asked detailed reports. Attorney Donahue charged that the commission had held a secret session and had gone over the cases to get evidence from Miss Gertrude Howe of Hull house, who has compiled most of the evidence presented.

"We demand to know what charges are made in these twenty-six cases," asserted Mr. Donahue. "Are there any charges of blame on the department?"

"We'll decide that when we get your report," said Commissioner Powell.

Requests for extended delay by the department were denied and the inquiry will continue Friday afternoon. Today the commission will decide finally whether it will formally subpœna the sanitary inspectors wanted.

SUDDEN DROP IN THE LAKE ALMOST COSTS SIX LIVES.

Young Women and Three Divinity Students Caught in Swift Current in Park Lagoon and Thrown Into Water.

A sudden drop in the lake's level early yesterday evening resulted in six persons being nearly drowned in the Jackson park lagoon. Several times during the afternoon the water dropped a foot or more, and as suddenly rose as far above normal. These strange changes caused a dangerous current in the lagoon, in which two boats were capsized, and three men and three women, the former students of the University of Chicago, were thrown into the water.

The men were J. P. Grath, S. E. Moon, and C. R. Eastman, theological students. As they passed the caravels their boat was caught in the current. At the same time they noticed that another boat ahead of them, containing three girls, was being drawn under the bridge. Boards had been nailed across the lower part of the structure, and against these both boats were drawn. Instantly they were capsized, and the six persons were struggling in the water. Members of the Jackson Park Yacht club heard their cries and rescued them. One of the girls had been sucked under the bridge and was rescued with difficulty. The young women refused to give their names.

The sudden changes in the lake were noticed along the entire lake frontage of the city.

"The first tide was observed at about 2 p. m.," the life saving station reported. "The water rose a foot and a half and then fell a like amount. Immediately it began to mount again and continued to fluctuate in a succession of waves. The maximum fluctuation was four feet."

Jewish Churches to Affiliate.

At an enthusiastic meeting in Zion hall, 274 West Twelfth street, last evening, delegates representing sixteen leading orthodox Jewish congregations elected Rabbi Jacob David of Sluzk as their chief rabbi. Recently a movement was begun to affiliate the Jewish congregations of Chicago.

ATTACK ON BIBLE SCORED

PAPERS OF PROF. DELITZSCH TO KAISER DECLARED WRONG.

Rabbi K. Kohler of New York, in Conference at Detroit, Says German Professor "Blew the Horn of Anti-Semitism" for Purpose of Seeking Favor — Holds That Kisheneff Horror Was Due to Similar Utterances.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—[Special.]—The utterances of Prof. Delitzsch of Berlin in criticism of the Old Testament of the bible were severely scored at today's central conference of American rabbis by Rabbi K. Kohler of New York. He charged Prof. Delitzsch with "blowing the horn of anti-semitism, and insisted that the riots at Kisheneff may be traced to "just such sham German utterances." The reason for the attack on the bible, he said, was a craving for popularity.

Copies to Be Sent to Kaiser.

Dr. Kohler's paper was adopted as official Jewish literature and copies will be printed and sent to Emperor William, before whom the lectures on "Babel and Bible," by Prof. Delitzsch, were first delivered.

Rabbi Kohler's paper was entitled "Assyriology and the Bible." "We live in an age of strange contrasts," he said. "A bold striving for new truths and a revival of old falsehoods. Great achievements of human love and violent outbursts of cruel hatred come side by side. Men supposed to dwell above the passions of the multitude are seen to contribute their full share to the confusion of mind.

"Such an impression was created by the two lectures on 'Babel and Bible,' delivered a year ago by Delitzsch before the German emperor and empress. Instead of simply showing the new light that Babylonian monuments have cast on the scriptures and how the Chaldean civilization furnished the Jews with all the materials for forming their communities and their beliefs and the customs of the time, he made a most unwarranted attack upon the Old Testament. He made his second lecture especially the occasion for assailing the Old Testament, its people, its God.

Carried Away by Prejudice.

"The question to us is how a man like Delitzsch can be so carried away by prejudice and passion as to drag the book of books in the dust and impute to the God of Isreal an unrighteousness and sensuality, nay, assign to him horns and a sexual dualism. It may be said of these lectures: 'Whatever is true in them is not new, and whatever is new is not true.' There is little doubt in my mind that ultra-conservative training of Delitzsch made him the despiser, the mocker of the Old Testament."

Arouses Sharp Criticism.

A sharp criticism of Rabbi Kohler's remarks was delivered by Dr. Barnet A. Elzas of Charleston, S. C. His vigorous sentences for a moment threatened the calm demeanor of the gathering and resulted in Dr. Kohler interrupting the speaker and demanding that he be called to order. Dr. Elzas said:

"Following up the American Jewish literature of the last twenty years one cannot help being impressed with the fact that the chief results of the criticism of which Delitzsch is the expounder are admitted by leading men in the Jewish pulpit. I think that Dr. Kohler's paper in pointing out the faults of Delitzsch's conclusions lacked the positive element, as Dr. Kohler did not state what the Jews do believe of the bible."

As soon as Dr. Elzas saw that his criticism was objectionable he immediately retracted what he had said.

NO NEGOTIATIONS ON PROTEST.

Semi-Official Statement Is Issued at St. Petersburg in Relation to Action Taken by President Roosevelt.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 30.—The following semi-official statement was issued today:

"There have been no negotiations between Russia and the United States in regard to President Roosevelt's intention to forward to the Russian government a petition from the American Jews concerning the events at Kisheneff." As a result of the petition presented by the deputation from the mercantile community of Kisheneff which wafted on Finance Minister Witte June 26, the state bank at Kisheneff has been authorized to discount the bills of Kisheneff firms which were protested during the months of April and May, in order to rehabilitate their credit, which suffered from the riots.

ATTACK JEWS IN STRASSBURG.

Defeat of Clerical Candidate Causes Mobs to Stone Shops and Boycott Is Declared.

STRASSBURG, Alsace-Lorraine, June 30. —A riotous outbreak against the Jews was started today by the defeat of a clerical candidate for election to the reichstag in a country district adjacent to Strassburg. Mobs paraded the streets, hooting and stoning Jewish shops. The rioters attempted to liberate their arrested friends, which caused shots to be exchanged. The clericals have declared a boycott against the Jews and Protestants.

MAN KILLED BY THE HEAT AND OTHERS ARE OVERCOME.

A. M. Wakefield Loses His Life and a Number of Prostrations Are Recorded—Mercury Mounts to 90.

One dead and a number of persons prostrated is the heat record for yesterday—the hottest day so far this year. At 3 o'clock in the afternoon the mercury stood at 90°, and even in the evening the heat seemed little less intense. Continued heat and a thunder storm are on the program for today.

The man who died was A. M. Wakefield, Forty-second and Halsted streets. He dropped dead at State and Washington streets. Mr. Wakefield, who was 43 years old, was a stock buyer.

Those who were prostrated were:

Cook, Felix, 22 years old, 935 North Western avenue; overcome at Wabansia avenue and Mercy street; taken home by police.

Manzyk, Michael, conductor of an Ashland avenue car; overcome as his car approached Twenty-second street and was taken to his home at 1882 Archer avenue.

McDougal, Dougal, Sherman house; overcome in Washington street.

Owens, Michael, 106 Sherman street; overcome in Washington street and was taken home by the police.

CALL BISHOP M'CABE'S "BLUFF."

Ada Street Church Ushers Bring Him the Organ and Then He Sings as Promised.

"Now if that organ were up here on the platform I would sing for you, but I never sing unless I can play my own accompaniment," said Bishop C. C. McCabe, pointing to the organ in front of the pulpit. Bishop McCabe had delivered his war lecture in the Ada Street Methodist church last evening and "Aunt Mandy" Smith, the colored missionary, had sung an old fashioned camp-meeting song. Then some one who remembered the days when the bishop was best known by his reputation as a singer had called for a song from him.

There was a suspicion that the bishop was "bluffing," and with a sly twinkle in his eye the Rev. Mr. Carwardine stepped to the edge of the platform and asked, "Where are our ushers?"

Half a dozen men walked down the aisle, picked up the organ and put it on the platform.

The bishop was "game." And when he began the opening bars of "Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory" the audience joined in with a chorus that shook the building.

WORLD'S RECORD BY DICK WELLES.

WINS REMARKABLE RACE.

To Dick Welles, "Rome" Respess' King Eric—Tea's Over colt belongs the honor of being the fastest sprinter in America. Yesterday at Washington park, after being practically left at the post, he won the first race, a six furlong dash, in the record breaking time of 1:11⅘, one-fifth of a second faster than the distance has ever been run before. The record, 1:12, was held jointly by Bummer and Lux Casta.

The time hung up does not tell the story of Dick's race, which was by long odds the most sensational ever run by a thoroughbred. When Starter Dwyer sprung the barrier Dick Welles was turned sideways, and the field, which consisted of some of the fastest sprinters at the track, was well on its way before he was faced the right way of the track. Apparently hopelessly out of it, Knight sent the colt after the flying field fully fifteen lengths to the bad.

Backers Give Up Hope.

The admirers of Welles gave up all hope of seeing their favorite win, but Tommy Knight knew the kind of a colt he had under him, and showed good judgment by not running the colt's head off trying to catch the leaders too early in the race. Instead, he nursed him along carefully, and at the end of four furlongs had disposed of two of his field.

John Peters, up to this stage of the race, was in the lead by nearly two lengths, but this lead was cut down by Runnels to a half length at the stretch turn, at which point Welles was in fifth place, with nearly eight lengths separating him from the front runner. Knight made for the inside when he hit the straight, and once in a direct line for the wire set the colt down and made play for the leaders. At the three-sixteenths pole he was still four lengths behind, but from that point on he began devouring space, and in one of the most sensational stretch runs ever witnessed on a racecourse he ran over Peters, stood a tremendous drive with Runnels, and won the greatest sprint race in the history of the turf by a short head.

Unofficial Time Much Lower.

The winner's time was caught, by a half dozen expert clockers in 1:10⅘. When the pair, the boy and the colt, returned to the stand the crowd cheered them for fully five minutes. Old turfmen and, in fact, every man at the track, pronounced Welles' performance the grandest and the most wonderful ever witnessed.

Dick was favorite in the betting at odds of 6 to 5 and a fraction less, at which price he was backed for thousands of dollars, while Runnels was a heavily played second choice at 11 to 5. John Peters, which finished third, was held at 10 to 1. It was announced after the race Knight was set down for three days by Starter Dwyer for failing to get away, which, to say the least, was not approved by patrons of the track.

The Kenwood stakes, for 2 year old colts, at five furlongs, and worth $3,190 to the winner, went to Talbot Bros.' Prince Silverwings at odds of 15 to 1.

Favorite Is Fairly Outrun.

Of the fifteen named to start Ort Wells, Patsy Brown, and Gayosa dodged the issue, and Foncaster, a stable companion to Ort Wells, owned by John A. Drake, was added. Proceeds was the topheavy favorite and was backed from 2 to 1 down to 7 to 5. Lonsdale at 30 to 1 set the pace, followed closely by Silverwings and Requiter. The first named colt was a length to the good at the head of the stretch, but was beaten out by both Silverwings and Requiter on the run in. Proceeds was outrun early in the race and finished fourth. English Lad was cut off at the start.

The tightest fit of the day, next to that between Dick Welles and Runnels, came up in the second race, in which Witchcraft and Jason hooked up half way down the stretch and fought it out to the end, the former winning by a scant head. Jason was the favorite, but Witchcraft was much the best, as she left the post eleventh in a field of thirteen, while Jason was first away and led into the straight. Buccaneer, at 100 to 1, ran third.

The fourth race, a handicap at one and one-sixteenth miles, resulted in a victory for Waswift, the favorite. Off in the first flight, Wonderly lost no time in sending him to the front, and by dint of hard hustling on the end managed to keep in the lead to the wire. Bragg was always the runner up, and in the final sixteenth was compelled to do his prettiest to stall off Nitrate's determined rush to win second money by a short head.

The Kentuckian, backed for a killing, won the fifth and Orsina took the last race.

Washington Park Summaries June 30.

GOLDSMITH WINS EQUALITY.

Defeats Africander and Others in Stake at Sheepshead Bay—"Bookies" Are Hit Hard.

New York, June 30.—[Special.]—From the first race to the last at Sheepshead Bay today the bookmakers suffered heavy financial losses. Technically the six winners were not all post favorites, but they carried, nevertheless, many thousands of the "educated" money.

Wotan and Floral King in the first race were particularly costly to the layers, as the former was backed from 10 to 1 down to 7 to 2, while Floral King was well supported at 40 to 1. The entire theatrical colony seemed to be on the colt, which might have won if Wilkerson, his rider, had begun whipping a little earlier. It was in the Equality stakes won by Goldsmith, however, that a lot of money was taken from the bookmakers. Goldsmith opened at between 3 and 4 to 1, and when the horses went to the post he was 9 to 5.

Africander was not supported, as the handicappers argued he could not concede nineteen pounds to Goldsmith. On a track other than slushy the race showed the experts had it right, for Africander could not even get third. Tommy Burns had the mount on the colt and this caused no little gossip, as Burns is under contract to Whitney. Goldsmith was handled with exquisite skill by Redfern laying in third position, while Burns had Africander racing out in front with Lux Casta, this pair opening up a gap of four lengths in the fifth furlong. Such a pace was bound to tell on those who made it. Africander was under the whip in the stretch and Burns seemed to punish him with unnecessary vigor as if to convince the stewards he was doing all he could.

In the meantime Goldsmith had come through in the stretch without effort, apparently, and won by two lengths, while Proper, which was lost for half a mile, finished a good second. Lux Casta was third, and on the outside of the track Africander and Igniter were fighting it out.

First race, 5½ furlongs of Futurity course—Wotan, 102 pounds [Gannon], 7 to 2, won; Floral King, 102 [Wilkerson], 20 to 1, second; Trouvillo, 108 [Hicks], 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:08 1-5. Mohave, Short Cake, Sir Walt, Tommy Rot, Albertola, Docile, Auf Wiedersehen, Col. Kearny, Bally Castle, Hands Up, Honey Bee, Miss Shylock, Juvenalle, Grey Knight, Dixie Paradise, and Miss McKenna ran.

Second race, 6 furlongs, on main track—Shot Gun, 102 pounds [Odom], even, won; Royal Summons, 105 [O'Neil], 2 to 1, second; Duelist, 120 [Hoar], 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:15 1-5. Dean Swift, Orloff, Frank Keane, and Sweet Nell ran.

Third race, 1⅛ miles, selling—Highlander, 111 pounds [Burns], 8 to 5, won; Arden, 105 [Cochran], 20 to 1, second; Bob Hilliard, 95 [Redfern], 12 to 1, third. Time, 1:56 1-5. Agnes D., Akela, Spring Silk, Tribes Hill, Royal Pirate, and Justice ran.

Fourth race, the Equality, 1 mile—Goldsmith, 111 [Redfern], 9 to 5, won; Proper, 104 [Michaels], 4 to 1, second; Lux Casta, 116 [Odom], 20 to 1, third. Time, 1:40. Africander, Igniter, Duke of Kendal, and Yardarm ran.

Fifth race, last 5½ furlongs of Futurity course—Jocund, 112 pounds [Burns], 16 to 5, won; Montreson, 112 [Redfern], 5 to 1, second; Prince Salm Salm, 112 [Beauchamp], 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:07 4-5. Pentaur, Cascine, Graceful, Tippecanoe, Bound Brook, Long Distance, St. Valentine, and Luminosity ran.

Sixth race, handicap, 1½ miles on turf—Duoro, 119 pounds [Odom], 9 to 10, won; Flying Jib, 97 [Redfern], 4 to 1, second; Surmise, 103 [Haack], 18 to 5, third. Time, 2:38 2-5. Colonsay and Moroton ran.

Race Results at Detroit.

Detroit, Mich., June 30.—The steeplechase race drew a big crowd to Highland Park today, and the contest through the infield was filled with exciting situations. Hieaway led all the way and won by a close margin from Lord Farandale, with Maple Sugar third. At the second last jump Presgrave stumbled and threw Jockey Lahey. The lad escaped without serious injury. Weather fine; track fast. Summary:

First race, 7 furlongs—Ethel Davis, 99 pounds [R. Martin], 20 to 1, won; John Coulter, 5 to 1, second; Jigger, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:28¼.

Second race, 4 furlongs—The Globe, 102 pounds [J. Walsh], 2 to 1, won; Orderly, 4 to 1, second; Jim Ferrin, 5 to 2, third. Time, :49¼.

Third race, 1 mile—Autolight, 101 pounds [J. Miller], 3 to 1, won; Easy Street, 5 to 2, second; Glenwood, 3 to 1, third. Time, 1:41.

Fourth race, 7½ furlongs—Flora Bright, 102 pounds [Pieratt], 3 to 1, won; Snare, 2 to 1, second; Decoration, 4 to 1, third. Time, 1:36¼.

Fifth race, 7½ furlongs—John J. Regan, 110 pounds [T. Dean], 7 to 2, won; On the Quiet, 10 to 1, second; Barnacle, 11 to 5, third. Time, 1:35½.

Sixth race, steeplechase, short course—Hieaway, 141 pounds [Pemberton], 5 to 2, won; Lord Farandale, 2 to 1, second; Maple Sugar, 12 to 1, third. Time, 3:38½.

Washington Park Track Notes.

Instructor bolted at the head of the stretch.

Dick Welles and Waswift were the winning favorites.

Waswift tied the track record, 1:45, hung up by Hargis on Monday.

Alan-a-Dale was scratched out of the first race, but will start in the opening event today.

John A. Drake scratched Foncaster out of the second race and will send him after the Kenwood stakes.

Caviar carried all the big money in the last race, but after leading part way down the backstretch he blew up.

E. E. Farley, who was ruled off the track at Detroit, put in an appearance at Washington park and was ordered off the grounds.

"Kid" Weller was hit hard on The Kentuckian by taking every bet that was offered, while O'Leary made a killing by refusing bets and playing him on the outside.

Adkins rode two winners. Other jockeys to earn brackets were Knight, Gray, Wonderly, and Treanor. Knight was set down for three days by the starter, but will be permitted to ride in stake events.

Drake bet $4,000 on Runnels to win one-two and Gates strung $5,000 behind Dick Welles to win. Drake bet $10,000 across the board on Waswift and Gates went to Glassful for the same amount. Drake lost a big bet on Caviar, but won some of it back on Haviland for place.

YANGER-HANLON BATTLE A DRAW.

Featherweights Fight Twenty Fast Rounds at Frisco and Break Even.

DECISION IS POPULAR.

Benny Has the Advantage in Early Periods, but Eddie Comes Fast at End.

San Francisco, Cal., June 30.—[Special.]—A grand battle between Benny Yanger of Chicago and Eddie Hanlon of San Francisco went the full twenty rounds here tonight, and at the end it was so even that Referee Eddie Smith could only call it a draw.

From first to last it was a slugging match. Neither Hanlon nor Yanger seemed to care about making it a pretty battle, but each was desirous of ending it as quickly as possible. Hanlon assumed his crouching position and blocked most of Yanger's vicious swings.

For the first six rounds the battle was Yanger's, but no one could have picked a winner. In the seventh Hanlon's eye began to bleed and it gave him the appearance of having much punishment, but throughout the entire battle he was cool and collected. Neither man seemed to want to keep away and both mixed it fiercely in every round. Many times they were kept from falling through the ropes by the uplifted hands of spectators.

Both Strong at Finish.

Yanger made a fine impression as a sturdy, hard hitting man, who can fight all the time and be strong at the end. In this, however, he had no advantage over the local boy.

From the first to the ninth round Yanger had slightly the better of the contest. He led the Californian on and by clever straight leads for the head occasionally broke through the crouching guard which has made Hanlon famous throughout the pugilistic world.

In the ninth round the tide turned in favor of the Californian. In this round, by a series of lefts and rights to the head and occasional short arm blows to the body, Hanlon had Yanger in a groggy condition. In the eleventh and twelfth rounds Hanlon's lead was decisive, but in the thirteenth Yanger recuperated and at one time seemed to have Hanlon at his mercy, but the local lad by good generalship stalled off what appeared to be a victory for the Chicago boy.

"Slasher" Floored in Seventeenth.

From the fourteenth to the twentieth rounds Hanlon had the better of the fight, on more than one occasion having Yanger all but out and willing to hang on at the slightest provocation. In the seventeenth round the first knockdown occurred, Hanlon putting a terrific right to Yanger's jaw, sending him through the ropes. Yanger was quickly on his feet, but the little Californian was after him with both hands, and had his opponent almost out when the bell rang.

Yanger's fighting on several occasions met with the disapproval of the crowd. He struck low a number of times, and was once warned by the referee.

Both left the ring in comparatively strong condition. Both had blood on their faces. Their bodies showed the effect of the many fierce blows, but aside from this there was no appreciable difference in their condition.

Everybody voted it a magnificent exhibition of fisticuffs, and that the decision could not have been different without inflicting an injury on the one declared the loser.

Round two—Hanlon missed right and left for the body, and then landed right and left to the stomach. Yanger got in a straight left to the face and tried a right uppercut, but it went wild. Benny sent a left to the head and right to the body. Yanger crossed his right to the jaw and landed his left to the face. He followed it with a hard right and left to the face. Hanlon fought back desperately, landing left and right on the face. At the bell Yanger was the fresher of the two.

Round three—Hanlon whipped a left to the body. Yanger came back with two rights and lefts to the head. Hanlon sent a left to the head and a hard right uppercut to the jaw. In a mixup both exchanged hard rights and lefts. Eddie sent a right to the body. Yanger uppercut to the jaw and repeated it. Yanger jabbed left to the face and Eddie put a right to the body as the gong sounded. It was Yanger's round.

Round four—Hanlon sent left and right to the head. Yanger cut loose with a series of rights and lefts to the face. Hanlon drove a left to the jaw. Yanger whipped a right to the body and Hanlon countered with a right to the head. Yanger shot a hard right to the kidneys and they clinched. Yanger again had the best of the milling.

Round six—Yanger's right went through Hanlon's guard and caught him on the head. Yanger jabbed with his left to the head and swung a right hard to the body. Yanger sent a straight right to the jaw and Eddie countered with a left to the head. Emerging from a clinch Hanlon sent a left to the body, but Yanger fought back hard. As the bell rang both were engaged in a fierce mixup. It was give and take, and they failed to hear the gong. They were parted by their seconds.

Round seven—Yanger cleverly evaded right and left for the head, and shot a straight left to the face. Yanger drove a right to the body. Eddie chased Yanger to a corner, but failed to land effectively. They exchanged rights to the body. Yanger sent in a vicious right to the body which made Hanlon wince. Yanger put a left to the head, but Hanlon caught him with a stiff punch to the head. Yanger jabbed Hanlon's left eye with a vicious right and the gong found Hanlon hammering away at Yanger's body without success.

Hammers at Hanlon's Eye.

Round eight—Hanlon missed a left for the head and they clinched. Yanger put vicious rights twice to Eddie's sore eye. Yanger was so quick Hanlon could not locate him. Yanger missed a right for the head, and then sent it into Eddie's ribs. He immediately uppercut to the head with his right. Eddie landed a left to the face, but Yanger countered with a right to the head. Yanger worked his left and right to the body. He followed with right and left to the head, but Hanlon fought back hard. Just as the gong sounded Hanlon shot in a vicious right on the point of the jaw which made Benny wince. It was Yanger's round, however.

Round nine—Yanger drove in a hard right to the body and Hanlon put a left to the body. Yanger sent a straight right to the face and cleverly evaded two vicious counters. Yanger crossed his right to the jaw and then sent another right to the head. Hanlon put his right and left hard to the jaw, and Yanger clinched to avoid punishment. Yanger put a left to the head and Hanlon drove him back with left and right hard to the body. Yanger fought hard, but Hanlon hammered him with rights and lefts to the head and body, sending him across the ring. This was decidedly Hanlon's round.

Round eleven—Both came up fresh. Yanger put a right to the head. Hanlon sent a left straight to the nose and followed with right and left to the body. Benny stalled, but Hanlon sent a right hard to the face. Eddie put a left to the face and followed with a right to the face and a right swing to the ear. Hanlon slugged Yanger with rights and lefts to head. They fought hard in a mixup, but Yanger broke it up with a hard right to the body. Hanlon's round.

Benny Swings Viciously.

Round twenty—Hanlon put his left to the jaw lightly and blocked a right counter. Yanger put his left to the body. Hanlon brought his left to the jaw. Yanger uppercut with his right to the jaw. Eddie swung a hard right to the jaw and they clinched. Both fought fast, with Yanger forcing matters. Yanger got Hanlon to the ropes and nearly put him through. Hanlon came back with a hard left to the jaw, but Yanger went in like a demon. Hanlon rained right and left to the head and body, and the referee had great difficulty in separating them. The fight ended with the men fighting like demons, but Hanlon succeeded in landing the most telling punches.

The pavilion was in an uproar and when the referee declared the fight a draw, the spectators cheered tumultuously.

In the first preliminary between Monte Attel and Baurne Attel was the aggressor from the start, and, after knocking his opponent down three times for the count in the third round, finished the job at the opening of the fourth with a left hook to the jaw.

The second "prelim," a ten round go between Mikey Welch of Alameda and "Kid" Root of Los Angeles, resulted in a victory for Welch in the second round, Root's seconds throwing up the sponge, when their man went to the floor more from a push than from a blow.

FORBES PUT OUT IN SEVENTH.

Johnnie Reagan Scores Victory Over Clarence—Bout Is Fought on a Floating Arena at Memphis.

Memphis, Tenn., June 30.—Johnnie Reagan of St. Louis tonight defeated Clarence Forbes of Chicago in the seventh round of what was to have been a twenty round go. The contest was held on the Mississippi river in the floating arena of the Memphis Athletic club.

Honors were even for the first two rounds. In the third and fourth rounds Forbes was sent to the mat by the St. Louisan, but showed no bad effects. In the fifth Forbes had the best of it and floored Reagan. In the early part of the sixth Forbes was fighting well, but as the round progressed Reagan got in a hard right to the stomach and the fight was plainly his from this point.

Forbes was saved by the gong and was groggy as he went to his corner. Forbes was floored for the count early in the seventh round. He was groggy when he arose and swung wildly. Reagan rushed him repeatedly and Forbes' seconds threw a towel in the ring, closing the fight. The men weighed in at 120 pounds this afternoon.

End of Fighting in Butte.

Butte, Mont., June 30.—Mayor Mullins announced today that he would draw the line on prize fights in Butte after the present carnival is over. Three championship bouts are to take place here within a week. The mayor says they are plainly against the law and that he will overlook the violation of the statutes no longer. Butte is now full of fighters.

PLAY IN STATE TOURNAMENT.

Collins and Waidner Reach Finals in Doubles at Aztec Tennis Courts—Other Matches.

Improved tennis and closer matches were seen yesterday in the third day's play for the Illinois state championship at the Aztec Tennis club. The upper half of the double matches was finished and Collins and Waidner are in the finals, a place they secured by defeating Larned and Jones in the third round in straight sets, and afterwards putting Peters and Garnett out of the running. In the latter contest Peters and Garnett won the first two games of the match, but Collins and Waidner won the next eighteen games straight.

E. M. Ashcraft and J. C. Neely, two old timers, got back into the game, and played a hotly contested match, which finally went to Ashcraft after three hard sets, 3—6, 6—2, 6—4. Hunt, the Californian, played his best game of the tournament against Garnett, who was not in his best form. Lamb defeated Helmholz in a three set match. Snow, the Woodlawn player, won his first match of the tournament, defeating Gill. Summaries:

Singles, first round—E. M. Ashcraft defeated J. C. Neely, 3—6, 6—2, 6—4; J. J. Forstall defeated J. E. Ricker Jr., 6—0, 6—1; B. Lamb defeated A. Williams, 6—3, 6—0; C. G. Blake defeated J. M. Elliott, 6—2, 6—0.

Second round—B. Lamb defeated H. F. Helmholz, 7—5, 4—6, 6—2; C. G. Blake defeated W. Wilkins, 6—2, 6—3.

Third round—R. G. Hunt defeated C. Garnett, 6—2, 6—1; A. C. Snow defeated F. H. Gill, 6—2, 6—2.

Doubles, second round—Larned and Jones defeated Shay and Klaner, 6—2, 6—2, 6—2; Forstall and Elliott defeated Loesch and partner by default; Snow and Ashcraft defeated Glanz and partner by default.

Third round—Collins and Waidner defeated Larned and Jones, 6—1, 6—2, 6—3.

Semi-final round—Collins and Waidner defeated Peters and Garnett, 6—2, 6—0, 6—0.

Philadelphia Cricketers Beaten.

LONDON, June 30.—The Philadelphians resumed their cricket match with Somersetshire at Taunton this morning. In the first innings yesterday the Philadelphians were all out for 74 runs. Somerset scored 228 its first innings. Philadelphia went in for its second innings and when stumps were drawn had scored 22 for one wicket. The Philadelphians were all out in their second innings today for 210. Somerset went in for its second innings and batted out enough runs to win without the loss of a wicket.

Great Western Handicap Today.

Today's feature event, the Great Western handicap, distance one and one-half miles, will bring together some of the best handicap horses in the west. Interest in the race naturally centers on McChesney, and the question argued regarding the grand horse is, can he carry the weight allotted him 134 pounds, and win? Expert handicappers, although they admit McChesney the best horse in the country, have doubts as to his ability to give the weight asked and show his heels to Six Shooter, who is considered his real contender, and who won the event last year with 116 pounds up, one pound less than he will pack today.

Jockey Wilson Dies.

Jockey W. Wilson, who rode Elector and other good horses, died last night at 6259 Cottage Grove avenue of consumption. The boy had been suffering with the disease for over a year and has not ridden in that time. He was well known among racehorse followers. The funeral will take place today.

WHITE SOX SHOW FORM REVERSAL.

Defeat Boston with Ease at South Side Grounds by Score of 10 to 3.

ALTROCK IS HIT HARD.

Callahan's Men Make Eight Runs in First Inning—White Pitches Good Game.

Both the White Stockings and Bostonians exhibited form reversals at the south side grounds yesterday, and the second game of their series went to Chicago by a score of 10 to 3.

Jimmy Collins gave Altrock, his convalescent pitcher, his first turn on the rubber this year, and before three White Stockings could be retired in the first inning eight runs had been scored as the result of a weird combination of bases on balls, hits, and general demoralization on Boston's part.

While Boston was playing tail end baseball, the White Stockings whipped themselves together and gave Dr. White the best support in the field that he has had this year. It was far from perfect, but plenty good enough with a margin of eight runs all the time. It was the sixth inning before the visitors could connect with the plate, and then it was only for one run.

Altrock was wild at the start and passed Holmes, Jones, and Green in succession, filling the bases with none out. Then he slowed up, and put one over for Callahan, who swatted it into center, scoring two runs, sending Green to third and moving up to second himself on the throw in. Isbell lobbed a little fly out of reach behind second base, letting Green home and Callahan to third. Parent cut off Magoon's grounder and stopped Callahan at the plate, but Jimmy made them chase him so far that Isbell got around to third and Magoon to second, Tannehill scored them both with a punch to center for one bag.

Altrock had the plate gauged by this time, but the White Sox had him gauged, too. McFarland lined one through to right, which Freeman fumbled, then returned to Ferris, who threw wide of second in a belated effort to catch McFarland, who was sneaking down on the play. The ball rolled out toward left, Parent chasing it, while Tannehill scored, pulled up, and "Mac" trotted to third. White was called out on strikes, but Holmes kept up the merriment by driving a liner over O'Brien's head for three sacks, and scoring on Jones' single. Green followed with a safe one, but was nailed stealing second, and did not think fast enough to give Jones a chance to score before he was out.

That was about all there was to the game. Altrock came back in the next inning as if nothing had happened, and it was not until the eighth inning that the White Stockings could get another run. Then two scored as a result of fumbles by Ferris and Collins and a safe hit by Holmes.

Boston started in on White as if he was easy. Dougherty and Collins both singled. O'Brien sacrificed them around, but White got busy right there, and struck out the redoubtable "Home Run" Freeman. Parent popped a foul back of first base, which either Green or Isbell could have bagged, but they mixed each other up and lost it. Parent, however, popped to Magoon on the next ball. Not another visitor passed first base until the sixth, when White issued a couple of passes and these with a fumble by Magoon and a fly to Green counted one on the score sheet. In the eighth three singles and Callahan's fumble let in two more visitors. Score:

Notes of the White Sox Game.

Boston again today and tomorrow.

Two more days at home for the White Stockings, and then another trip east.

Tannehill chalked up a batting average of 1,000, with three hits and a sacrifice in four times at the plate.

Sheridan thought 10 to 3 was enough to win on apparently when he called Isbell out at first in the eighth inning.

As the team leaves home tomorrow night, President Comiskey will make Thursday instead of Friday "ladies' day" this week.

With two more hard games to play the White Stockings have won eight and lost three games in this home series. That's playing some.

Manager Collins put Jake Stahl behind the bat when it was apparent Boston had practically no chance to win. Stahl acquitted himself well in spite of the nervousness natural to a youngster performing before so many acquaintances. He struck out twice, then nailed a double into right, which scored Boston's pair of runs in the eighth.

If Manager Callahan had played the game Collins did at third yesterday the local anvil chorus would have been nearly deafening. Yet Collins made only one error, and that excusable. He made stabs at three or four hits which he could not get up, but the knocker expects a man to get everything in reach and some out of reach. Collins, in the opinion of nearly all the men whose opinion counts, is the best third baseman in the game at present. Callahan is a mere beginner at that most difficult position, but gives every promise of becoming a reliable man with the experience required to learn the best way to play the bag.

CLEVELAND WINS IN THE NINTH.

Ohio Team Takes Game Which Might Have Been Protested Had Athletics Won—Score 4 to 3.

Cleveland, O., June 30.—Bay's single sent Gochnaur across the plate with the winning run for Cleveland in the ninth inning. The game was characterized by a most peculiar decision by O'Loughlin in the eighth inning, which would have resulted in Cleveland protesting the game had Philadelphia won. With one out, Lajoie on third, and Hickman on second, McCarthy hit to first base. Davis touched first, but his throw home struck McCarthy on the head, knocking him unconscious. The ball bounded to the grand stand, and both Lajoie and Hickman came home. O'Loughlin, however, sent Hickman back to third. Score:

New York, 2; St. Louis, 1.

St. Louis, Mo., June 30.—New York took the second game of the series with St. Louis today. The game was a pitchers' battle between Griffith and Sudhoff and the winning run came in the eighth inning on a base on balls, a sacrifice, and a hit. The feature was Williams' home run into the left field bleachers. Score:

Magnates Busy but Reticent.

Nothing developed on the surface here yesterday in the American-National league tangle over George Davis. President Johnson was in conference with President Comiskey for some time. The only announcement made, however, was that the American league executive was in sympathy with the movement to form a new national agreement and had so notified the minor leagues through Secretary Farrell of the Minor Leagues' association some time ago. He expected to attend the conference proposed by Pulliam and Powers in New York the last of this month. Of course, if the break between the two big leagues should develop into open warfare the American league could naturally form no agreement except with the minor leagues.

WOMEN PLAN AN ASSOCIATION.

Preliminary Steps Are Taken at Meeting to Form Western Golf Organization.

Preliminary steps for the formation of a western women's golf association were taken at a meeting held yesterday afternoon at the Wellington hotel. The attendance and enthusiasm manifested exceeded the hopes of the promoters, and there is every indication the new association will be successful from the start. Forty-one delegates, representing twenty-two clubs, were present. President Edward P. Martin of the Western Golf association was chosen temporary chairman, and Secretary Charles T. Atkinson of the W. G. A. acted as temporary secretary.

After the general purposes of the proposed association had been outlined by President Martin a general discussion ensued, all of the speakers favoring the plan. The temporary chairman was instructed to nominate a committee of five to draw up a constitution and bylaws and nominate a ticket. These will be presented at a meeting to be held next Wednesday at 40 Randolph street at 10:30 o'clock. Mr. Craft W. Higgins offered to donate a trophy to be played for by the members of the new association under similar conditions to those used for the Marshall Field cup. His offer was accepted with a vote of thanks, and a vote of thanks was also given to President Martin for the great interest he had taken in the new association.

The various clubs were represented as follows:

Auburn Park—Miss Mosser, Mrs. Hathaway.
Belmont—Mrs. E. P. Martin.
Calumet—Mrs. C. O. Webster, Miss E. Young.
Chicago—Miss Aria Cotton, Mrs. J. Whitcomb Cotton, Miss Margaret Martin.
Edgewater—Mrs. A. T. H. Brower, Mrs. F. E. Donohue, Mrs. E. C. Berriman, Miss Loesch, Miss Auta Smith, Mrs. D. G. Maxwell.

Notes of the Golfers.

Teams of women from the River Forest and Westward Ho clubs will play at River Forest this afternoon.

The Belmont club will play an eighteen hole handicap match for the E. P. Martin cup July 4. There will also be a qualifying round for the members' cup and a women's putting and approaching contest.

Beginning next Monday, the Exmoor club will hold a series of fortnightly handicaps for women members of the U. S. G. A. These handicaps will be held until Aug. 17. Entries accompanied by the home club handicap must be received by the chairman of the sports and pastimes committee at the clubhouse not later than the Saturday preceding each event.

COLTS FINALLY STEM THE TIDE.

Defeat Phillies in Opening Game at the Quaker City, Score 7 to 2.

GOOD PITCHING DOES IT.

Both Teams Are Handicapped by the Absence of Regular Third Basemen.

Philadelphia, Pa., June 30.—[Special.]—Jack Taylor easily won the opening game in the Philadelphia-Chicago series today by a score of 7 to 2. The Phillies batted out eleven hits, but the Colts fielded well behind their pitcher, and not an error was charged up against them.

Washburn, the left handed Brown university man, who was in the box for the home team, was hit hard and often, but it was in the eighth inning that the Colts did their best. Five hits brought in four runs in this inning, and the end was not in sight then, but Taylor cut third base in coming home on Raub's single and was called out by O'Day.

The day was warm and sultry, the best baseball weather that has been enjoyed in the east for two weeks. The fans were scarce, however, as the Phillies have not been putting up the kind of baseball that draws. Gleason was out of the game and Hallman covered second in his absence, which weakened the Phillies some.

The first scoring was done by the Colts in the third inning, when Taylor made the round on a single, a stolen base, Slagle's out, and Raub's hit to center. Evers added one more in the next inning on a single and a two base hit by Kling. Slagle walked in the fifth, was sacrificed to second, and tallied on Jones' hit.

The fans began to do a little rooting in the last half of the fifth, when it looked as if it would be a close game. Washburn was first up and pushed a neat grounder along third base line. Thomas bunted and beat it. Titus popped to Taylor, and Keister struck out, but Barry pounded the ball hard enough to get to second, and Washburn and Thomas crossed the plate. This was the end of the scoring for Philadelphia, although the seventh inning started out the same as the fifth. Washburn singled, Thomas beat out a bunt, but neither Titus, Keister, nor Barry was able to get to first safely.

Jones opened the eighth with a single to center, and Tinker sent him to third on a two bagger over Titus. Evers got a life on Hulswitt's poor throw, filling the bases. Harley flied to Keister, and Jones was held on third. Kling hit past second base and scored Jones and Tinker. Evers came home on Taylor's single, Slagle died at first, and Kling improved the chance to score. Raub sent a hummer over Hulswitt's head, and Taylor had plenty of time to score from second base, but failed to touch third, and O'Day called him out when Thomas fielded the ball to Wolverton. Notes of the Colts' Game.

Selee may try out Doescher tomorrow.

Today's game was the first victory for the Colts since they won a game from Brooklyn last Thursday.

Two more games remain of the Philadelphia series and then the Colts return home for a long stay.

Selee signed Doescher, the Fordham college pitcher, today to a contract for the balance of the season.

Raub's batting was a feature of the game. Out of four times up he hit safely three times and sacrificed once.

PITTSBURG DEFEATS BROOKLYN

Champions Win a Batting Game from Trolley Dodgers by a Score of 17 to 8.

Brooklyn, N. Y., June 30.—Pittsburg defeated Brooklyn in a lively batting game today. The visitors knocked Schmidt out of the box in the third inning. Warner in the fifth inning made a home run over the fence in right center. The home team made twelve hits off Leever's delivery. Score:

GRAND JURY ACTS IN LEVEE CASES.

Indictments Are Voted Against Owners of More than 100 Resorts.

WILL CONTINUE CRUSADE.

Committee to Turn Attention Next to Property Owners Who Violate Law.

As a result of the effort of the First and Second ward property owners to prevent the spread of the "levee" district, more than 100 indictments were voted yesterday against proprietors of places in Wabash avenue, Twenty-second, and adjoining streets. More bills will be voted today.

The committee, led by Attorney Louis J. Behan, now will turn its attention to the owners of the buildings. They are amenable to indictment if they allow disorderly tenants to remain in their buildings. Claims of "police protection," freely made by several of those who were indicted yesterday, also may be made the subject of future investigations.

These secondary investigations, however, cannot be taken up by the present grand jury, which has before it a crowded docket and enough extra work to occupy its entire attention for the remainder of the term.

Silver and "Mushmouth" Escape.

Two names which have been connected with the conduct of questionable places are missing. One is George Silver, who owes his escape from indictment perhaps to the fact that the sentiment against his proposed saloon at 2020 Wabash avenue was so strong that the mayor and police were compelled to prevent his continuing the place.

The second missing name is that of John ("Mushmouth") Johnson, who has a saloon at 464 State street, at which gambling has been carried on openly. Why Johnson was missed in the roundup is not so apparent as the cause of Silver's escape.

Detectives employed by Behan told of debauchery which they had witnessed at the places in question, and their testimony was supported in many cases by the women habitués of the saloons.

These Are Accused.

The places reported by the detectives, and on which indictments were voted yesterday are will be this morning, are as follows:

Assistant State's Attorney Barnes took other witnesses before the jury to give testimony in relation to illegal voting in the Eighteenth ward. A dozen witnesses were heard from the lodging house districts, and the matter was postponed for further consideration.

STATE'S ATTORNEY INVITED TO COL. LOWDEN'S DISTRICT.

Mr. Deneen Accepts Call to Deliver Address at Mount Carroll on the Fourth of July.

Charles S. Deneen is billed to deliver the Fourth of July speech at Mount Carroll, in Carroll county, on Saturday, and out of this has grown the report that the state's attorney is preparing to invade Col. F. O. Lowden's territory. Carroll county is part of Congressman Hitt's district, in which is situated the colonel's Ogle county farm and from which the Lowden gubernatorial boom has been directed. It had been hoped that the district would declare in favor of the Ogle county farmer, and hence the invitation to Mr. Deneen to make the patriotic address here on Saturday, and his acceptance is looked on as a breaking down of the Lowden forces.

A meeting in favor of the candidacy of Mr. Deneen has been arranged for tomorrow evening at the Avenue house in Evanston. It is the republicans of that suburb are expected to declare in favor of the state's attorney for governor.

A meeting of the Circuit court judges has been called for today to consider the appointment of a jury commissioner, William Walsh's term being about to expire. The democratic machine has indorsed James Walsh, a member of the democratic county committee, for the place, but it is reported that of the judges are in favor of reappointing Mr. Walsh, Judge Dunne leading the movement. The politicians are watching the result with considerable interest, as indicating how far the newly elected judges are going to be bound by the wishes of the democratic county committee.

The matter of a successor to Justice Kersten is also likely to come up. Mayor Harrison is advocating the appointment of Theodore Mayer, his private stenographer, while Assistant Perkins is being pressed by the anti-Harrison faction. It is hardly possible that Perkins will be appointed and there is considerable opposition to Mayer on account of his youth and inexperience. In the meantime it is reported the mayor will name Justice Woods, a republican, as magistrate at the Chicago avenue police station.

HER SAVINGS LOST IN SCHUMACHER BANK.

MISS LOUISA PRIMANN.

OLD NURSE A BANK VICTIM

LOUISA PRIMANN'S SAVINGS ALL LOST BY SCHUMACHER.

By Hard Work and Strict Economy She Had Secured $300 to Enter a German Home, but Now It Is Gone and She Is Penniless and Hopeless—Fund for Blind Sebastian Greszer Amounts to $118.50—Many Expressions of Sympathy.

Louisa Primann, 1002 South Oakley avenue...$300

Among the many larger claims which have been filed in the probate clerk's office against the estate of Banker Charles C. Schumacher that of Miss Louisa Primann may seem insignificant in amount, but to the woman who for eighteen years has scraped and saved to provide a home for her old age the loss has proved a crushing blow. Since she learned that all her savings have gone down in the Schumacher bank crash she has aged appreciably. The despair that was blind Sebastian Greszer's is to some extent hers.

In the old country Miss Primann learned how to care for the sick and when she came to the United States she found employment as a nurse. Her patients were poor and not able to pay the wages of a regular trained nurse, but Miss Primann was satisfied with whatever they could pay. "I did not care for the money," she said in broken English yesterday. "Of course, I had to live, but the wages, ach, the good I could do for the poor sick people was enough for me."

Saved a Penny at a Time.

The saving of $300 out of wages that were barely enough to live on was no easy task, and the money was literally saved a penny at a time. It took nearly eighteen years for her to get $300, but with that in bank she thought her troubles were over. The money she knew would assure her against being an object of charity. Then Miss Primann made the mistake of trusting Schumacher with the money. The result is poverty.

Knew Schumacher; Trusted Him.

"No one knows how hard it was for me to save that money," said Miss Primann. "I knew it cost $300 to go to the Altenheim old people's home, and I knew I just had to save that much. Sometimes I could only earn about enough to live on, but always I tried to save something. If it was only a few cents a month. I took my money and gave it to a woman I knew on the north side. She kept it safe for me and I should have left it with her always. But when I got the last of my $300 in February I thought it was better to put it in a good bank. I had known Mr. Schumacher for many years and I always thought he was such an honest man. So when I got my money all saved I gave it to him. 'Keep this for me until the time when I get ready to go to the Altenheim,' I said, and he gave me a note. Now I have the note, but it is no good. They say I must go to the poorhouse now, but I don't know, I don't know."

Give $118.50 to Blind Man.

The fund which is being raised to keep Sebastian Greszer from the poorhouse, after he had struggled through thirty-eight years of blindness to earn $1,150 with which to care for himself in his old age, had reached $118.50 last evening. Readers of THE TRIBUNE whose hearts had been touched by the old man's pathetic story of his loss through his confidence in Schumacher have been generous in their offers of assistance.

Remittances have come not only from women and children but from busy business men as well. Such a one is E. J. Nally, general superintendent of the Postal Telegraph-Cable company, who says:

"Your pathetic account of the loss sustained by the blind Sebastian Greszer, who, crippled and broken in health, is facing the poorhouse because the small savings of a lifetime have been swept away, has touched me much, and I inclose a check for $55—$50 being the contribution of a kind hearted and prosperous friend to whose attention I called the article in question and $5 for myself—to go to the fund, which I hope will swell until the full amount shall have been realized, and I trust that THE TRIBUNE will continue its good offices in the matter until the entire amount is raised."

"O. W. G." of St. Joseph's chapel, West Pullman, says: "Surely generous Chicago will not allow this old man to languish in a place that he so bravely tried to avoid," while two sympathizers from Englewood "trust there are enough kind people among us to keep the poor old man from the fate he dreads. Let them be assured they will never miss the help they give him and assuredly they will get it back in blessings that money cannot buy."

Three children in one family send $3 and five of another send $1 each.

RUNS A PATTI FACTORY.

MISS SHEDD'S SYSTEM ATTACKED IN COURT.

Evangeline Wallace, Who Longed to Learn to Warble and Pour Out Her Soul in Song, Sues to Recover Money She Paid to Singing Instructress, but Judge Smith Rules Against Her—Pupils Become Air Consumers—Wonders Explained by Circular.

Evangeline Wallace wanted to warble like a bird, so she went to Miss Mary M. Shedd, who conducts a singing school in the Auditorium.

"I long to warble," said she. "I yearn to pour my soul out in song."

"Warble? Well, that's my specialty," replied Miss Shedd, and then and there a contract was entered into by which Mrs. Wallace was to go through a certain course of instruction which Miss Shedd proudly refers to as "the American system."

Briefly described, the system is supposed to make you a Patti almost while you wait.

But time went by and Mrs. Wallace, still warbleless, began to regret the $350 she had paid Miss Shedd. She filed suit for the recovery of the money and yesterday the case was heard in Judge Smith's court. The judge, after hearing a lot of conflicting evidence, decided that Mrs. Wallace had received her money's worth, warble or no warble, and the decision was for Miss Shedd. Mrs. Wallace lives at 235 East Forty-second street.

System Is a Wonder.

The "American method of voice culture" is "the science, not art, of singing." It does wonders. Here is what Miss Shedd says about it in one of her circulars:

"Through this science every acceptable voice is developed into the same tones with which Patti, De Reszke, and other great artists were born."

Good enough, you say, but listen to this, also from the circular:

"One year will place a talented pupil in great demand. From the standpoint of purity of tone, two years will place him on an equality with any singer on the European or American stage. At the end of five years, with the American method, America will show more artistic singers than all Europe combined.

"Every soprano or contralto voice, if the voice be of good quality, should be developed into tones as pure as Nordica's, Albani's, or Carey's. Every bass, baritone, or tenor, if accepted by a teacher, should equal Campanari or De Reszke."

Exercise Made Her Dizzy.

Mrs. Wallace, in an extraordinarily weak voice for a Nordica, told about the "American method." She said it consisted of inhaling air in spasmodic jerks, uttering meanwhile the letter H.

"Its effect on me was a dizziness in the head," she said, "and a weakness of the muscles."

She told how she had taken sixty or seventy lessons, and how gradually the realization came over her that she was not a Patti.

Robert A. Augustine, a music teacher, testified that he was a pupil of Miss Shedd for a year.

"What is the effect of her method on the singing voice?" asked Mrs. Wallace's lawyer.

"Generally destroys it," said Augustine, faintly.

"Miss Shedd did not give me any voice," declared George A. Smith, while Mamie A. Reid, 317 West Sixty-third street, declared that she took lessons from Miss Shedd and that she could not control her voice at all.

"Her method is to breathe deep and then to throw out the breath all at once," said the witness.

CONSIDER A PRISON PROBLEM.

Penitentiary Commissioners Meet to Discuss the New Anti-Convict Labor Act.

The commissioners of the Joliet and Chester penitentiaries and the Pontiac reform school held a joint meeting at the Great Northern hotel yesterday to discuss the situation growing out of the passage by the legislature of the anti-convict labor act. Under this act, which becomes a law today, the employers of convict labor can make no more contracts either with the state or outside parties, and the machinery now installed in the prisons must be removed as soon as possible.

The situation is complicated by the fact the method by which the prisons are to get the necessary supplies is not clearly defined and there may be a lack of clothing and perhaps food for the prisoners before matters are finally straightened out.

At the meeting a committee was named to meet in Joliet July 15 to further consider the situation.

Planned His Own Funeral.

York, Pa., June 30.—Philip Altland, an eccentric octogenarian, who is dead in the village of New Salem, made preparations for his funeral forty years ago. He will be buried in an oddly patterned coffin, which he built with his own hands at that time, and which he always kept in the house.

Fire Sweeps Kentucky Town.

Lancaster, Ky., June 30.—Fire today at Point Lick destroyed several stores, including the National bank and Oddfellows' hall. Only one store is left in the town. The loss is $150,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

MANDEL BROTHERS

This store will be closed all day Saturday, July 4.

Our great July clearing sales continue with wonderful success. Monday and yesterday were record breakers, but we have rearranged our stocks, readjusted our selling space, combined many small lots and are prepared to offer the best of bargains in all sections this morning. People intending to spend the Fourth out of town will find wonderful saving advantages in summer apparel and outing comforts here today.

Women's $12 white waists, 3.95.

REAL value and cost price receive but little consideration in our waist section now—everything is marked to close in the shortest possible time—that means extraordinary bargains for our customers.

Today we have readjusted stocks and marked fresh lots of waists that will be suitable for Fourth of July outings at great reductions.

We have collected a number of fine white waists that sold all the season from 7.50 to $12—a grand assortment of styles in butchers' linen, crash, sheer linen and cheviots, trimmed with embroidered fronts, French knots, hemstitching and fancy buttons—and marked them to close at 3.95.

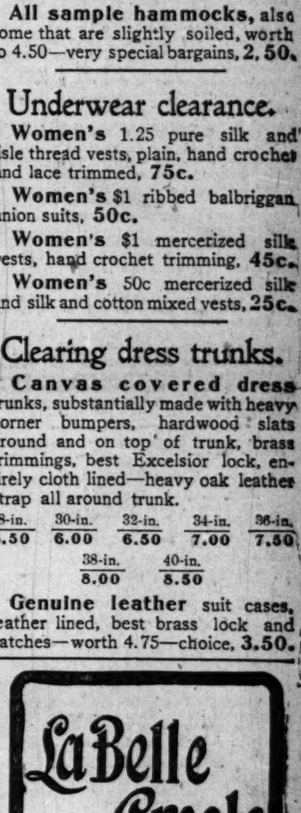
Very fine quality white linen waists, made with broad tucks forming front yoke—hemstitched stock and cuffs—large pearl buttons—specially priced for this sale at 1.95.

White and colored waists finished with tucks, lace and embroidery—white lawn and striped madras; also black polka dot lawns with white ground—regular 2.25 and 2.50 values for 1.25.

Basement: Women's fine lawn waists, trimmed with tucks and embroidery—long and short sleeves—shirtwaists that are actually worth 1.50 offered today for 50c.

Clearing the shirt waist suits.

IF you want something cool and comfortable to wear on your summer outing, or for a trip "over the "Fourth," take advantage of the great clearing sale of women's shirt waists and summer dresses.



Cool lawn dresses, natty linen suits, crashes, chambrays and smart checked taffetas—all must go at once — and the reductions have been made without flinching.

Stylish shirt waist suits made of fancy figured hairline white drill, entire suit plaited, strapped yoke—regular $15 values for 9.75.

Voile, etamine and twine cloth dress skirts, unlined, with full flare bottom, entire skirt trimmed with taffeta folds—$10.

Taffeta shirt waist suits in stripes and fancy checks, waist tucked and plaited—fancy sleeves trimmed with fancy ornaments, skirts in both walking and dress lengths, $20 values, now 13.50.

White corded linen drill shirt waist suits, entire waist and skirt plaited—were 22.50, now $15.

Basement: White pique skirts, trimmed with embroidery, 2.50.

A great sale of shirt waist hats.

THIS morning we inaugurate a great clearance sale of sailor and shirt waist hats—the very thing for summer outing, at $1, 1.50 and $2.

We are displaying a very large variety of shirt waist hats in straw, duck and grass cloth, as well as the smartest styles of sailors in rough, Milan and split straws.

The sale prices on smart sailors and outing hats are $1, 1.50 and $2—other chic outing hats come at prices ranging upward to $6.

Men's negligee shirts, $1.

Men who are going out of town for the Fourth will find it decidedly to their advantage to visit our men's furnishing section this week.

We have taken our regular 1.50 shirts and marked them down to $1 for the great July clearance—the variety leaves nothing to be desired.

Men's negligee shirts of printed and woven madras, cheviot, light-weight nainsook and batiste—the very stylish plaited shirts in all the new colorings, all-linen madras and percale, in white, tan, blue, solid colors, plain and plaited, at $1.

Basement: Men's madras and percale negligee shirts, 35c.

Imported wash fabrics less than half.

NOWHERE in the entire store are the price reductions more radical than in this section—the cool weather of the past two months has left vast stocks on our hands that must be closed out regardless of cost or value.

Although the sales of the early part of the week were unprecedented, the values for today are just as great as at the beginning of the sale.

45-inch St. Gall grenadines, quite a number of handsome colorings and beautiful designs to choose from—regular 1.50 value, our special clearing price, 50c per yard.

28-inch all linen suitings in blues, tans, greens, reds and a complete line of fancy stripes and mixtures, formerly 85c, special clearing sale price, 50c per yard.

Linen canvas suitings and French suitings, in fancy weaves, two-toned effects, actually below cost of importation, regularly 65c and 75c, special sale price, 25c.

Dimities, the very best quality imported goods, beautiful colorings, exquisite designs, in two-tones and multi-colors, usual price 35c, at 18c per yard.

Basement: Remnants of madras, cheviots, oxfords, lawns, white and colored goods, in waist and dress lengths, values to 35c, at 10c per yard.

BORAX IN FOOD HARMLESS NOW DECLARES DR. WILEY.

"Chemical Boarders" at National Capital Not Injured by Diet Doped with Drugs.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—[Special.]—Dr. Wiley declares he has proved that borax and boracic acid, when used to preserve meats and other foods, has no deleterious effect on the human system. He made a preliminary report on his experiments today:

The tests were made by a number of department clerks, who volunteered to eat "borax" food three times a day for six months. Reports have been printed that the borax boarders have turned pink, that their health was undermined, and that they were finally compelled to go on a strike for plain food.

Experiments Not Complete.

Dr. Wiley will not make public at this time the result of his experiments, as he does not regard them as complete. He says:

"The preservatives used thus far are borax and boracic acid, and while it is the intention to continue the investigation after a rest of three months, it is not now considered that it will be necessary to make further use of either the borax or the acid."

Speaking in general terms, Dr. Wiley said there had been a class of fourteen men, all of them engaged in the agricultural department, and most of them in the chemical bureau, and that there were two divisions of them, half of them having the preservatives administered to them at a time, the period of continuous service continuing for forty days at a time in each instance.

"We have not," said the doctor, "administered the preservative with the food, but have given it separately, generally in capsules. At times the dose has been as large as the men could stand, and at other times we have given only small doses. In other words, we have been experimenting.

Effect on the Boarders.

"In cases in which large doses were administered we, of course, checked ourselves when we found that the men had been pressed to the utmost limit. We found some of them capable of taking far more than others.

"I may say in a general way that we found that fully nine-tenths of the chemicals passed out through the kidneys and most of the remainder in the perspiration."

Dr. Wiley says that salicylic acid will be the next article experimented with, and that the experiments will continue indefinitely.

ATLANTA GREETS JUDGE PARKER

Crowds at Depot on His Arrival Greet Him as the Next President of the United States.

Atlanta, Ga., June 30.—[Special.]—Judge Alton B. Parker was given an enthusiastic greeting by the crowds that surrounded the depot on his arrival today. He was enthusiastically hailed as the next president.

Iowa College Loses Professor.

Ames, Ia., June 30.—B. C. Price, professor of horticulture and forestry of the Iowa State Agricultural college, has tendered his resignation. He has been elected dean of the college of agriculture of the Ohio state university at Columbus, O.

LAWS GO IN FORCE TODAY.

ACTS PASSED BY LAST LEGISLATURE BECOME OPERATIVE.

Reforms in Child Labor Now Possible, as the New Requirements Are More Stringent than Those Adopted by Any Other State—Many Children Already Discharged Because Their Employment Does Not Comply with Provisions of the Statute

Laws passed by the last legislature which will become effective today are

Child labor law.
Sanitary district annexation.
Laws providing for new parks and enlargement of present parks; for Field museum and Crerar library.
Compulsory education.
Convict labor law.
Mueller law for municipal ownership.
Torrens law amendment.
Recorder's guarantee fund.
Military code.
Local improvement.
Game laws.

Of the many statutes enacted by the last general assembly, which become effective today, that regulating child labor is one of the most important. Edgar T. Davies, chief factory inspector of the state, estimates that 2,500 children were discharged last night in Chicago because the conditions of their employment did not comply with the requirements of the stringent law.

The vital features of the statute follow:

No children under 14 years of age shall be employed.

Children between 14 and 16 years of age must possess an age and school certificate, containing an affidavit of age and of ability to read and write from the child's teacher, an affidavit from its parents as to age, the certificate to be issued by the board of education.

Children under 16 years of age are not to be employed in dangerous occupations, and the law defines what occupations are dangerous, so that the matter cannot be left for opinion and expert testimony.

Children under 16 years of age are not to be employed more than eight hours a day or forty-eight hours a week; they are forbidden to work except between the hours of 7 a. m. and 7 p. m.

"The law is the most stringent of its kind ever passed by any state," Inspector Davies said. "The nearest approach to it is the new measure in New York, which limits the hours of work to nine a day."

The board of education has opened offices in the Jones school, Harrison street and Plymouth place, for the issuance of the new certificates, and it is expected that 5,000 children will flock to the school today for the slips of paper. Nearly 2,000 children and their parents already have called at the board rooms.

By the new compulsory education law children within the legal age must attend school not less than 110 days a year, in place of the old requirement of sixteen school weeks.

Of vital importance to Chicago is the enlargement of the sanitary district to include Evanston and the Calumet region. These parts of the metropolitan area have poured their sewage into the lake steadily since the completion of the drainage canal by the central portion of the district. Now they will be connected with the great canal.

ILLINOIS HELD THE CENTER OF EDUCATION IN COUNTRY.

President Andrew S. Draper of State University Tells Eastern Men of Western Love for Schools and Colleges.

Albany, N. Y., June 30.—[Special.]—The University of Illinois was declared to be the educational center of the country, just as the state is the center of the country's great productivity, by President Andrew S. Draper of the University of Illinois at the annual state university convocation today.

"It is not for me to interpret what the west has to say," he continued. "I do not live in the west. I live in the center of things.

"There is another great side to the marvelous civilization of the west. You have little conception here in the east that the public high school is the most prominent of buildings in a western village or city. You cannot appreciate the feelings of the western people for their schools. In all moderation would I say it—that a westerner has a far more general and a warmer feeling towards all kinds of educational work. The good old 'common school' has ceased to be what it once was, 'common' to all, and is not now good enough for your man of wealth, and he educates his children elsewhere. It is not so in the west. There is no public high school question there. The masses of the people of the west support the public high school. The educational sentiment of the west leads also to the willing support of the colleges and universities for all the people. Those universities of ours are the pride of the masses."

President Baker of the University of Colorado spoke for the west, and Head Master Henry White Callahan of the state preparatory school of Boulder, Colo., read a paper on "What the West Says."

Life Saver Passes the Test.

Patrick Murray, first mate of the Evanston life saving crew, who, it is thought, will be Capt. Lawson's successor, received word yesterday that he had successfully passed the examination. His appointment as captain is therefore expected almost any day. Capt. Lawson's resignation was to have taken effect today, but nothing was done in regard to retiring him yesterday.

FIND A SMALLPOX CENTER

OFFICIALS DISCOVER POLICEMAN ON BEAT—HIS FAMILY SICK.

Disease Exists in Residence of Patrolman Etchingham, 547 Forty-first Court, for Months, Being Considered Measles, and No Physician Called—Man Continues to Report for Duty at West Chicago Avenue Station Till Last Sunday.

With one or more cases of smallpox in his home at 547 Forty-first court every day since early in March and a total of four cases in as many months ending last Sunday, Patrolman Thomas Etchingham of the West Chicago avenue police station has been mingling with his brother policemen and performing his regular duties.

These facts became generally known at noon Sunday, when a carriage sent by the health department called for Mrs. Etchingham and her daughters, Annie, aged 9, and Susan, aged 7 years, and removed them to the isolation hospital. The result is a smallpox scare in that part of the city of which Forty-first court and Harvard street constitute the hub.

Other Cases in Neighborhood.

On June 23 Mamie Roberts, 2170 Gladys avenue, was found to be suffering from smallpox and was taken to the hospital, where she is now convalescent. Only a few days before she had visited relatives residing near the Etchingham home.

Last Friday another case, that of John Le Beau, 7 years old, the adopted son of Mr. and Mrs. George Provencher, 553 Forty-second avenue, was reported to the health department. The Provencher residence is also near that of the Etchinghams. The Le Beau child was removed to the isolation hospital, and while the case is by no means a light one, it is thought the boy will recover.

Neighbors Long Suspicious.

For some time past—some months, the neighbors say—there had been suspicions that smallpox had a foothold in the Etchingham family. Mrs. Etchingham four months or more ago was observed to have a rash which was said to be either the measles or the chicken pox. Later her 5 year old son exhibited similar symptoms. The daughter Annie was the next victim, and a few days ago neighbors with whose children little Susan was wont to play became alarmed at her appearance and reported the matter to the health department.

Dr. J. A. Riley of 410 South California avenue was sent to investigate the case. All the members of the family were vehement in denying that there was any smallpox there, but Dr. Riley disagreed with them. He found Mrs. Etchingham and Annie almost recovered, but Susan was in an advanced stage of the disease.

At the direction of Dr. Riley the mother and two daughters were taken to the isolation hospital, where their clothing was fumigated, after which Mrs. Etchingham and the elder child were permitted to return to their home. The younger daughter, Susan, while practically out of danger, was detained at the hospital. The house of the Etchinghams was fumigated. Patrolman Etchingham was ordered off duty, and two grown sons who work downtown were ordered to remain at home for a few days.

Few Found Unvaccinated.

Nearly all of the children of the neighborhood have been exposed to the contagion from playing with the Etchingham children, and there is anxiety in many families. Those who had not been vaccinated hurried to the nearest doctor at once. Most of the children, and there are many, in the neighborhood, already had been vaccinated, and to this fact the health department attributes the remarkable failure of the disease to spread.

Patrolman Etchingham says the reason the cases were not reported to the health authorities was because none of the family was sick enough to require the services of a physician, and there was no suspicion that the disease was smallpox. In fact, he does not believe now that it is smallpox, and complains bitterly of the loss of income resulting from the enforced vacations of himself and sons.

WILL GIVE MORE TO GLENWOOD.

At Annual Reception E. B. Butler Announces That Commercial Club Plans a Contribution.

Five members of the Commercial club and 400 other friends of the Glenwood school farm left on a special train yesterday for Glenwood to attend the sixteenth annual reception. The Commercial club has contributed $50,000 to the school, and it was announced that more will be given in the near future. At the exercises in Clancy hall E. B. Butler delivered an address, reviewing the history of the farm and saying that he expected the club to make a contribution of $100,000 in the near future, half to be used in enlarging the farm and the remainder as an endowment fund. Other members of the club present were R. A. Keyes, J. Harley Bradley, John V. Farwell, and Franklin H. Head.

RUNS HIMSELF INTO TROUBLE.

Fred S. Lucas Is Told to Sprint and When He Does So a Crowd Pursues.

Strange was the experience yesterday of Fred S. Lucas, an insurance solicitor with offices at 601 Home Insurance building. Shortly after 1 o'clock yesterday a man approached Mr. Lucas at Washington and La Salle streets and in a threatening tone said: "Now, run, and run fast."

Mr. Lucas, fearing that his life was in danger, started south in La Salle street, and had taken only a few steps when a crowd began to pursue him. "Thief, thief," and "Shoot him," were some of the cries.

Detective Flynn joined in the chase and as the fleeing man dashed into Mangler's saloon at 121 La Salle street he arrested him. At police headquarters Lucas explained and was released.

SUE TO REMOVE A HOSPITAL.

Heirs of Justice Scully Object to Kedzie Institution Adjacent to Their Residence.

A bill to enjoin the Kedzie hospital from conducting its business in Warren avenue was filed in the Superior court yesterday by the heirs of the late Justice Daniel Scully, owners of an adjacent building at 850 Warren avenue. It is alleged that the occupants of the residence are aroused in the night by the cries and moans of the suffering. The complainants say that the first intimation they received of the establishing of the hospital was on May 1 when ambulances stopped in front of the place and persons on stretchers were carried in.

NURSES GRADUATED AT MERCY.

Hospital Awards Diplomas to Eighteen Young Women After Address by N. S. Davis Jr.

The surgical amphitheater of the Mercy hospital assumed an aspect of gayety last evening, when the friends of the eighteen graduates assembled to witness the presentation of diplomas. In his address to the graduates Dr. N. S. Davis Jr. mentioned a few "don'ts." "The most important of these," said he, "is the necessity of avoiding thoughtlessness in your relationship with the family of your patient."

COURT TO OPEN DEPOSIT BOX.

Judge Holdom Orders That Theodore Gross' Property Be Exposed to View.

The Illinois Trust and Safety Deposit company was ordered yesterday by Judge Holdom to disclose what is in the safety box held by Theodore Gross, the accused mine promoter. An order also was entered on the receiver to commence certain suits for the benefit of Richard Polsen, who declares that Gross has possession of $123,000 in commissions due him.

Sorosis shoe seconds.

First section of the new basement salesroom.

WE took the entire collection of the Sorosis factory—Thousands of pairs all told. Why they are called seconds is only evident to the inspectors who rejected them when it came to filling orders. They wear as well as those you pay $3.50 for at other times. It is this extreme care, this almost finical regard for details in workmanship and finish, that has made the "Sorosis" shoes the world's leading $3.50 make—equal in fact to many $5 grades of footwear. $1.95 $2.45

Now you pay neither $3.50 nor $5, but take your choice, $1.95 and $2.45.

Marshall Field & Co.

Clearance Prices in Women's Summer Knit Underwear.

These are some of the very special items from our wonderfully complete stock—several of them have been marked at very much below the regular prices—all of them are bargains at their respective prices.

Third Floor South Room.

Vests of fine white Swiss ribbed soft Lisle, lace trimmed—25c, 40c and 50c.

High-grade Silk Vests, crochet and lace trimmed—odd lines reduced to close quickly at these prices, 65c, 85c, $1.50, $2.00, $3.50.

Union Suits, low neck, sleeveless and knee length, fine soft Swiss ribbed; also lace knit—each, $1.50.

Umbrella Union Suits, light weight Swiss ribbed, and trimmed with fine lace—65c.

Mercerized Union Suits—$1.00.

Umbrella Drawers, special values in mesh with fine lace trimming—50c and 75c.

Knit Undergarments in the extra large sizes are shown in this section in large and very complete assortments.

Fine White Washable Shirtwaists.

Priced for an immediate clearance—$5.00.

Some of the finest waists we have carried in our regular lines are included at this price. The extent of the reduction is due to the lines being broken, or to the waists being soiled from displays. They are otherwise as perfect and as desirable as if taken from new, fresh lines.

They are made of fine linens and lawns, some trimmed with embroidery, lace or Mexican drawn work, and some handsomely embroidered or braided.

There are sizes in the assortment to fit almost every one—waists formerly selling at a wide range of prices are included at this remarkably low reduction—$5.00.

Fourth Floor Middle Room.

Colored Waists of mercerized ginghams, Chambrays, Oxfords, cheviots and lawns—two lots—reduced to $1.95 and $2.50.

Women's Tailored Suits and Skirts.

Seasonable, Desirable Styles Reduced for Rapid Clearance.

With scarcely an exception our entire stocks of handsome, new Tailored Suits and Skirts have been marked at reductions which in very many instances are less than their actual cost. Owing to the immense business of the past several months there is a great variety of styles in these odd and broken lines, and the prices are accordingly considerably lower in every case than are usually made in our end-of-the-season clearance sales.

Fourth Floor South Room.

The bargain opportunities can best be appreciated through an inspection of the values.

Practical Runabout Suits of black or blue cheviots, reduced to $15.00.

Runabout Suits, broken lines of handsome men's wear mixtures, reduced to $15.00.

Pongee Blouse Suits reduced to $20.00.

Runabout Suits of blue and black mohairs, reduced to $20.00.

Etamine Runabout Suits, in tan or gray—several smaller sizes in blue, reduced to $25.00.

Fancy Blouse Suits of fine white voiles, elaborately trimmed with white laces, extremely heavy reductions have been made—to close, $35.00, $40.00, $50.00, $60.00.

Tailored Skirts of wash etamine in novelty mixtures, black and white, and blue and white, with white pipings, also in plain shades of light blue and tan, $10.00.

Walking Skirts in plain blue, white and natural colored linens, special $5.00.

Shirtwaist Costumes. Extraordinary Values to Close.

Some of these Suits are slightly soiled, in some the assortments are broken. There is an abundance of styles suitable for golfing, outing, vacation, etc. They are of cool linens and cheviots—among the most popular lines we have had on sale this season. All are bargains of exceptional merit at the extremely low reductions.

Fourth Floor North Room.

Shirtwaist, Golf and Outing Suits of linens and cheviots, all white, navy blue and tans—special $8.00.

Runabout Suits in black and white checked cheviots, piped in red; and all-white Tailored Linen Costumes—reduced, $10.00.

Suits of figured dimities in navy blue and black and white, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and velvet ribbon, $10.00.

Suits of plain and pink figured organdies, new, fresh styles, attractively trimmed with Valenciennes lace, $15.00.

Broken lines of hand-embroidered Linen Suits in white and colors—reduced to $15.00.

Shirtwaist Suits, of white linen, box plaited waist and skirt, trimmed with lace insertions—an exceptional value, $15.00.

Handsome Coat Suits of a fine quality of linen—one of the newest styles with plaited coat and skirt—tan and white—reduced, $25.00.

Linen Gowns, of fine white and colored linens, hand embroidered and effectively trimmed with fine lace—a broken line priced to close, $25.00.

Midsummer Clearance of Odd and Broken Lines in Tea Gowns, Kimonos, Dressing Sacques.

The only reason for the immense reductions which have been made in this sale is that the broken lines are occupying space needed for the display of new goods now being opened. Very many of the season's best selling styles are represented in colored lawns, dimities and percales.

Fourth Floor Middle Room.

Colored Wrappers, Kimonos and Sacques, reduced to 95c, $1.25, $2.25, $2.50 and upward.

Attractive bargains are also on sale in White Wrappers and Kimonos at $2.95, $5.75 and upward.

Silk Tea Gowns, Sacques and Kimonos at prices greatly reduced.

Misses' Shirtwaist and Walking Suits.

Typical mid-summer styles are now being placed on sale in great numbers—attractive, simply designed styles which owe their charm and beauty largely to the novelty designs of the materials. The frequency of these new arrivals and the varieties they contain for girls of all ages leaves this stock better than ever prepared to please every patron, both in matter of low prices and selection.

Fourth Floor Middle Room.

One of the handsomest of these new suits is made of white novelty wool with light hair stripe in brown, plaited skirt and white taffeta lined jacket—purchased at one-third less than manufacturers' prices and marked accordingly (see illustration)—$20.00.

Silk suits in dots of various sizes and figures—special, $7.75.

Annual Sale of Sample Ends of Lace Curtains.

The unprecedented success of the opening days of this great sale has not in the least affected the bargain opportunities.

Prices are but a very small percentage of the actual cost to the manufacturer.

Almost every grade and every style manufactured is represented, and every pair is as desirable as if just taken from the regular lines. Among the different kinds are Nottingham, Irish Point, Swiss Tambour, Brussels, Muslins, etc. There are pairs in almost every pattern, and in many patterns two or more pairs are obtainable.

Prices range from 15c to $4.00 each.

CHICAGO HISTORICAL SOCIETY

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS.

GENUINE BARGAINS IN PIANOS AT LYON & HEALY'S.

And bear in mind that these figures include overhauling in our own repair shops by workmen of the very highest skill. THIS IS IMPORTANT. The hours spent by a first class workman on a piano of this class may mean all the difference between satisfaction and dissatisfaction. Besides it does away with the danger of hidden defects.

[illegible]ALE UPRIGHT. An old instrument, overhauled and made capable of meeting requirements of practice work. $100.

KNABE UPRIGHT. Large size, rosewood case. Attractive but plain case. Intrinsically worth much more than the price asked. Fully warranted. $275.

SOHMER UPRIGHT. A good instrument. Oak case. Three pedals. 7 1-3 octaves. Modern style. Motion fall board. Has not deteriorated much through use. Warranted. $200.

COLLARD UPRIGHT. Very small and very old. Rosewood. Fretwork panels with candelabra. Not warranted. $50.

HUNTINGTON UPRIGHT. A very handsome instrument, just returned from rental. Beautiful mahogany case. Extra value. Fully warranted.

KRAKAUER UPRIGHT. A beautiful mahogany instrument of delightful tone. Medium size. Would readily pass for new. Fully warranted.

KNABE UPRIGHT. Largest size, ebonized case, beautifully etched panels. Practically as good as new. We recommend this piano most highly. $325.

THREE STEINWAY UPRIGHTS. Nearly new, ebonized cases, modern in every respect. These pianos present a unique opportunity, for we have marked them much below their value to close them out before receiving our fall stock.

ASHLAND UPRIGHT. Oak case. In first class condition. Thoroughly modern. $125.

EVERETT UPRIGHT. In good condition. Modern. Very popular pattern. $200.

NEW ENGLAND UPRIGHT. Ebonized case. Clean action and limited but clear tone. $125.

SOHMER UPRIGHT. Ebonized case. Fretwork panels in fair condition. This piano recommended more for its tone than for its appearance. Price, [illegible]

CHICKERING UPRIGHT. Medium size, mahogany case piano. Finish perfect. Excellent value at $275.

A sample piano at a sacrifice, $165. This is a very plain but neat walnut case.

And many others.

GOOD PARLOR ORGANS VERY LOW. Choice of 20 different styles from $35 up. Second hand organs from $10 up.

Our regular stock embraces over 600 pianos, including Steinway, Knabe, Mason & Hamlin, Millers, Hazelton, Krakauer, McPhail, Fischer, Sterling, Huntington, and other great makes. All these different pianos are distinguished by some special feature. The workmanship in each is of a superior character, and every one of these pianos is of a design approved by the highest standards of public taste. Wonderfully low fixed prices are quoted.

EASY PAYMENTS—Pianos may be secured from us on very easy terms. No advance in price when paid for by installments.

Buyers at a distance should write for special bargain list, and also our schedule of freight rates. We ship pianos everywhere.

LYON & HEALY, Wabash-av. and Adams-st.

The business of Lyon & Healy largely exceeds in volume and value that of any other musical establishment in either Europe or America.

MONEY SAVING BARGAINS—

GREAT SUMMER CLEARING SALE

Standard Pianos at Sweeping Reductions.

TEN PERFECTLY NEW PIANOS OF EXQUISITE design and workmanship—well known eastern make—bought at our price, to be sold at yours—a saving to you of over $100—you pay only $185.

VOSE RENTS ONLY NEW PIANOS—VOSE, Ludwig, Merrell, and Howard makes. When one of them is returned from rental it is sold outright at a sweeping price reduction. We have fifty handsome pianos, only slightly used, at a saving to you of $50.00 to $150.00.

AN IMMENSE ASSORTMENT OF SQUARE and upright pianos—including practically all the leading makes—taken in exchange for Vose pianos—will be sold this week on your own terms, at prices ranging from $30.00 to $130.00. There is only one time in all the year when such marvelous price cutting holds good throughout our establishment. It is when we hold our popular Summer Clearing Sale.

YOU ARE CORDIALLY INVITED TO VISIT the Vose warerooms and to hear the rich mellowness, the delightful purity of the genuine Vose tone. The tone quality of Vose Pianos is the acknowledged standard of tone excellence—and TONE is what you want in a piano above all else. The reason for this superiority is found in the exceptional quality of the materials used in building Vose pianos and the unusual skill of the Vose artisans.

NEWS OF THE RAILWAYS.

ROCK ISLAND FILES A VIGOROUS PROTEST.

Threatens Retaliation for Action of Its Competitors in Adopting an Interchangeable Mileage Ticket — General Rate War May Be the Ultimate Outcome of the Trouble — Alton Earnings for May Make a Better Showing than Was Expected.

The Rock Island filed a vigorous protest yesterday with the chairman of the Western Passenger association against the action taken by the interchangeable mileage bureau lines at Monday's secret meeting, when an interchangeable mileage ticket was adopted. This meeting, the Rock Island says in its letter to the chairman, was held behind closed doors, and it was not invited to attend, although a member of the mileage bureau. It votes "no" on the proposition and protests against any combination for the introduction of tickets which will affect its revenues.

The Rock Island people feel that they have been badly treated by their competitors ever since the completion of the new transcontinental line via El Paso and the acquisition of the St. Louis and San Francisco road. In the first place, the Rock Island was refused a fair proportion of the immigrant business over its new line to California, which compelled it to withdraw from the immigrant bureau and Western Passenger association. The attack now made on it is claimed to be for the purpose of compelling it to quit the mileage and clergymen business. If the new mileage ticket arrangement is put in effect by its competitors the Rock Island means to retaliate by extending the present 2,000 mile credential book over the entire Rock Island-Frisco systems, or will allow the southwestern lines, all of which use the "mileage credential," to cover all of the Rock Island-Frisco lines.

"More radical steps will be taken," said a prominent official of the Rock Island yesterday, "if this fight against our road is continued any longer." The final outcome is likely to be an all around rate war.

Rock Island Report Denied.

There is no truth in the report that the Rock Island has suspended operations on the line being built between Kansas City and St. Louis. About ten days ago W. B. Leeds, president of the Rock Island, ordered the contractors to suspend operations on the line between Kansas City and Pleasant Hill while a plan to connect the Rock Island and Frisco lines near Pleasant Hill was considered. But the contractors already had several hundred men and steam shovels and graders at work on this part of the line, and the work was not suspended, the contractors continuing on their own responsibility. Since then the stay order has been revoked. The contractors are hurrying the work on all parts of the line and expect to have the grading of the road completed between Kansas City and Versailles within four months.

Alton Earnings for May.

The statement of earnings and expenses of the Chicago and Alton for May, issued yesterday, makes a much better showing than was expected. There was a good increase both in gross and net earnings. Figures for the month and for the eleven months ended on May 31, 1903, were as follows:

May:	1902.	1903.	Increase.
Gross earnings	$ 703,826	$ 837,703	$133,877
Operating expenses and taxes	518,084	598,028	79,944
Net earnings	185,742	239,675	53,933
July to May, inclusive:
Gross earnings	8,498,023	9,323,134	825,111
Operating expenses and taxes	5,776,849	6,385,264	608,415
Net earnings	2,721,174	2,937,870	216,696

LAKE SHIPPING NEWS.

Freights and Charters.

CHICAGO.—Grain freights steady at 1¼ cents for corn. The demand for boats was limited on account of advancing grain prices. Charters: To Quebec—Wolvin, corn. To Buffalo—Wolf, Flower, Plankinton, Paris, corn.

CLEVELAND, O.—Buffalo coal shippers are trying to cut rates and are only offering 30 cents to the head of Lake Superior and 40 to Chicago. Local owners refused to accept the cut and are pulling their boats out of the trade. Small carriers are in good demand in both the coal and ore trades here at old figures. The ore docks are still in bad shape. There are twenty-five vessels waiting here and as many more are hung up at Conneaut.

"MOST REPRESENTATIVE OF ITS CITY."

[From Rowell's Printer's Ink, June 24.]

THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE is most representative of its city, and is the most comprehensive and stable newspaper in a community of changing newspaper fortunes.

The Rates Will Be Raised.

The Chicago Evening Post of yesterday printed the following:

There are about 68,000 users of telephones in this city, and of these 56,000 pay at measured or message rates, having voluntarily chosen this method. The report of the committee referred to would make a reduction of about 30 per cent in rates for these 56,000 users. It might reduce the rates of some of the remaining 12,000 users, while it might, probably would, increase those of the most frequent users.

THE TRIBUNE denies that "56,000 users" would have "a reduction of 30 per cent" under the measured rate system. Most of the 56,000 users referred to have nickel telephones. These are mainly used by transient customers, and the rate for them is not reduced under the measured system. If such telephones are used about once a day the rate to the subscriber will be increased under the "measured" system. Why not be frank about the "measured" system? Why not state that the gainers under it would be the few persons who now pay $75 a year or upwards for measured service? The transient customer would get no reduction, nor would the lessee if he used his telephone more than once a day. There is some apparent reduction of "measured rates" as compared with some "measured rates" previously in force, but a large increase of charges "in measured rates" over all annual or maximum rates.

Plea for the Telephone Company.

As a specimen of ingenious sophistry THE TRIBUNE commends to the attention of the intelligent public the following from the Chicago Evening Post of yesterday:

In March, of this year, a committee consisting of Mr. Linn H. Young, Ald. Francis D. Connery, and City Electrician Edward B. Ellicott made a report to the city council, acting under instructions from that body. This report was for the purpose of informing the council as to what legal methods could be adopted for regulating existing telephone rates and improving the telephone service.

Taking the Chicago Telephone company's actual investment, actual earnings, actual expenses, depreciation, number of telephones in use, and the character of service given as a basis, a schedule of rates was recommended with the message as a unit. This was given as the only way in which the council could hope legally to regulate existing rates.

What has the committee to do with the "actual investment, actual earnings, actual expenses, depreciation, number of telephones, etc.," of the Chicago Telephone company? Why this intense zeal to discover some method of introducing the "measured rate" service and "regulating existing rates?" The Supreme court has decided that the company may not charge more than $100 for a residence telephone nor more than $125 for a business telephone. Is there any good reason why that maximum rate should be removed by the city council of Chicago under the specious plea of introducing "measured" rates? The solicitude of the committee as to the "actual earnings" of the company is truly touching. THE TRIBUNE undertakes to say that neither the committee nor the company will disclose the class of users that will have their rates "reduced" under the "measured system," nor the extent to which they will be reduced, nor the number of calls per diem to which each beneficiary of the "measured system" will be entitled without extra charge. The Evening Post has given the impression, "perhaps unintentionally," that on the average about five-sixths of the present users of the telephone system will pay reduced charges under the measured system. THE TRIBUNE denies that anything of the kind is true if the telephone is used by the subscriber with even moderate freedom.

ATTEMPT TO CORNER COTTON.

A bull clique, engineered by W. P. Brown of New Orleans, operating on the New Orleans and New York markets, seems to have cornered the visible supply of cotton. As a result of the running of the corner the Brown crowd counts $10,000,000 winnings already and expects to double the sum before the end of the deal. Most of the winnings, however, are as yet on paper, the bulls multiplying the present artificially sustained prices of cotton by their holdings and taking the result as their assets. Of the two hundred odd thousand bales of cotton in the country the Brown crowd is supposed to control between three-quarters and nine-tenths. Much of their holdings they bought at or near the present high rates. When they start to unload, unless they do it most deftly, the prices will drop fast. If there were treachery in the clique, as in the Gould-Fiske gold corner, or a far greater reserve of the cornered commodity in the country than was realized even by the government experts, as in the case of the Leiter wheat deal, the corner would smash and the paper profits vanish.

The high prices fixed by the Brown crowd have caused the shutdown of a majority of the south Lancashire mills, the English manufacturers stating that they cannot sell their goods at the prices equivalent to the present raw cotton prices. Likewise and for the same reason sixteen Fall River (Mass.) mills suspended on Monday for a week, throwing 8,000 operatives out of work.

So the result of the corner thus far is a reduced supply of cotton goods by the mills, consequent higher prices for the public, and a certain amount of misery for factory operatives. The attempt of "corners" is to obtain a monopoly in a staple necessity and upon obtaining the monopoly to raise prices artificially. Obviously it is advantageous to the public when such attempts fail.

"POOR DEVILS OF MILLIONAIRES."

The capitalization of the Chicago City railway company is $18,000,000. The dividend rate is 9 per cent. The present value of the tangible property of the company is only 65 per cent of $18,000,000. Stockholders are receiving dividends of nearly 14 per cent on the value of their tangible property. They have an El Dorado, a Golconda. They are resorting to every expedient to keep it. The stockholders are fighting for their dividends with the energy and devotion with which men who are not "poor devils of millionaires" fight for their altars and their firesides.

There is a word which, when uttered by an alderman, throws the representatives of the traction company into spasms. That word is "compensation." It upsets them as holy water does Satan. Whether 20 per cent, or 10 per cent, or any per cent be spoken of as the city's share of the gross receipts the spokesmen for the company say that that struggling corporation will have to spend so much money to better its service that it really cannot afford to pay the municipality anything—that it is an "infant industry" which needs protection. "We will have to spend," they say, "from $18,000,000 to $20,000,000 to be able to give fine service, and yet you ask us for compensation." Then they look reproachfully at the aldermen.

"Lord, Lord, how this world is given to lying," especially where dividends are at stake. If the City railway company, being granted an extension, should spend $8,000,000 in improvements it would feel that it had done all that was necessary. An underground trolley conduit is expensive. It will cost in the business district $100,000 per mile of single track. But the company does not propose to extend that costly work south of Eighteenth street. From there to Lake street is, roughly, two miles. Double track conduits on Wabash and State for two miles and on Clark street for one mile would cost $1,000,000. The cost of installing the overhead trolley where there are now cable lines is too small to be mentioned. Much new rolling stock will have to be purchased, but a million dollars will go a great ways in that direction.

The actual value of the tangible property of the company is $12,000,000. Add to that $8,000,000 and a capitalization of $20,000,000 will be justifiable. A dividend of 6 per cent on that capitalization—or $1,200,000 a year—will not be unreasonable, though it will seem pitifully small to men now getting $1,620,000 a year on a capitalization of $18,000,000. Here is where the shoe pinches.

It will be argued that after gross earnings have been drawn on to pay maintenance, transportation, taxes, damages, and 20 per cent compensation to the city the dish will be swept clean, and not a crumb will be left for the stockholders. It is true that if one-fifth of the receipts for 1902 had gone to the city there would have been only a shadowy dividend, but operating expenses will not eat up so large a percentage of the total earnings after the trolley has been substituted for the cable. There has been steady progress in the direction of cheaper operation. The cable has displaced the horse only to be displaced by electricity. The end is not yet. The cost of motive power will be reduced still more during the next twenty years. In 1887 transportation and maintenance consumed 62 per cent of the gross receipts of the road. In 1902 they consumed a little less than 52 per cent. In 1913 the percentage will be smaller.

Taxes will decrease. When the stock becomes a 6 per cent instead of a 9 per cent stock it will not be worth 20¢. It will not attract the earnest attention of the state board of equalization as it does now. The value of the capital stock hardly will exceed that of the tangible property and there will be no taxes to be paid on account of capital stock. That will be a great relief to the company. It will no longer have to send representatives to Springfield to argue with an obdurate board. Its legal expenses will be less than they are. Furthermore, when the city is given 20 per cent of the gross earnings it will surrender the car license fee it collects now.

The dividends which the company says cannot exist along with compensation will be drawn chiefly from the exuberant stream of increased earnings, which will grow more rapidly than do operating expenses. Watch the mother bird using her tricks and lures to draw away the attention of an intruder from her nest. Then watch with interest the efforts of the traction officials to call away attention from the earning power of the road in the coming years. They know what it will be much better than the general public does. They are rather dull, matter of fact men, but they have a clear idea of what the receipts will be when the vacant spaces between Twenty-second and Seventy-third streets are filled up. It takes no effort of the imagination for them to see the receipts trebled while the operating expenses are only doubled.

No city is growing like Chicago. The stupidest "man in the street" cannot help noticing it. The farms and market gardens of the outlying territory are being cut up into building lots and covered with houses to shelter the newcomers. The most profitable passengers are those who are carried the shortest distance. Their number is growing rapidly. The cross town lines of the City railway company, which served at first only as feeders for the trunk lines, would be extremely profitable now if there were no trunk lines. Not all the inhabitants of Hyde Park and Lake who use the street cars come downtown. They travel back and forth within the two towns to the local working and trading centers or to the parks. A long look at the cars leaving the stockyards neighborhood after the day's work will correct the impressions that none but cars running to or from the business district are crowded and therefore extremely profitable.

The immeasurable wealth of future traffic is what the company wishes to reserve for itself. It would like to make the public believe that receipts and operating expenses will remain about what they are, and hence there will be no room for compensation. The public is pretty gullible about matters it does not clearly understand. When business men pose as experts and plead for "the widow and the orphan" the public usually defers to them. It cannot be deceived on this occasion. It is no longer a stupid Esau, ready to sell its inheritance for a mess of pottage. It understands the traction question.

Consider the population of the towns of Hyde Park, Lake, and South Chicago ten years hence and the amount of long and short haul traffic it will provide, and then know where the money will come from to pay the city 20 per cent compensation and pay the traction company's stockholders the highly profitable and respectable dividend of 6 per cent.

THE "RARE DAYS" OF JUNE.

The weather bureau tells us that last month was the coldest June for thirty years in Chicago, the thermometer going as low as 44 during the second week. It has been the coldest June all over the north for many years. It has been a month of copious downpour, fires in the grate to "take the chill off," uncertain wraps, pneumonia, apologetic straw hats, humidity, and general discomfort—a month without that "perfect tune" between heaven and earth of which the poet sings, without soft blue skies and romantic moonlights, and fortunately without flies and mosquitoes. There is compensation in every situation. It has been a month which will be quoted in the future when some one complains of a cold June as that June of 1903 which broke the records, a month dear to the oldest inhabitant.

June has been a discourager of the summer resort. Last year the resorts had a hard time. This year they have lost a whole month's profitable business, and only about three months remain in which to make good. Only Chicago, the great place of summer resort, has been making money, and this in spite of the efforts of the strike organizers to prevent it. Nothing can contend against the attractions of Chicago, which has neither floods nor cyclones, where the weather is always agreeable, and where "every prospect pleases." The country to the west of us has been washed with floods, and to the east of us has been parched with drought and desolated with fire, and now heavy rains and cold have followed until nearly everything east of the Alleghanies is under water and almost congealed.

May was a month of disasters, and June, the month of roses and the "perfect days," has not fallen behind it. In some respects it has exceeded May in its list of fatalities. The cyclone at Gainesville, the floods at Spartansburg and East St. Louis, and the awful cloudbursts at Clifton, Ariz., and Heppner, Ore., followed each other in rapid succession and destroyed hundreds of human lives and an amount of property the value of which has not yet been reported. After more than three weeks of this general wretchedness June has sought to retrieve herself by three of the "rare days," but as she goes out there comes the ominous report that a plague of lice is destroying the eastern apple crop, that wire worms, cornroot worms, and chinch bugs are blighting corn and wheat in the west, and that a mighty host of army worms, "in a solid column 150 yards wide and nearly three miles long, is "inching along" through the state of Washington, denuding the growing crops and all other vegetation.

BETTER MILK.

The health department has its milk ordinance at last. There are reasons for believing it will be enforced. It is true that, compared with the health departments of various other cities—New York, for instance—our health department is scandalously overloaded and ridiculously undermanned. It is also true, however, that our health department has made milk its beneficent hobby. People find time and money for their hobbies. This summer probably will see the milk supply of Chicago in an improved condition as the result of the earnest enforcement by the health department of an ordinance it has worked for so hard.

The way to secure obedience to a measure of this kind, which has to contend with the sleepless dishonesty of some dealers, is to punish the first offender up to the limit. This is not the customary policy. Usually he gets off with a gentle reprimand. That encourages others to break the ordinance. There should be no temporizing with a mob. It should be given a quick, hard blow. That is the treatment which should be dealt out to the first violators of the milk ordinance. Then the first offenses will be the last ones.

COUNTING from the middle of June the deaths in this country from lockjaw caused by the toy pistol now number over fifty, and the real harvest is yet to come. Still, let us enforce the mayor's proclamation "judiciously."

LETTER OF MARQUISE DE FONTENOY

Copyright: 1903: By the Marquise de Fontenoy.

PETER is an ominous name for a sovereign to bear and its possession is not precisely calculated to reassure people of the future of the new king of Servia.

The last Peter to occupy a throne was the late Dom Pedro of Brazil, who, seized in the middle of the night by conspirators, was placed by them on board an outgoing steamer and shipped off to Europe, where he died in exile, having lost not only his crown but also his private fortune and all his most prized personal possessions.

King Peter V. of Portugal died suddenly in November, 1861, succumbing, according to the popular story current among his subjects, high and low, to an Abyssinian poison administered to him for the purpose of accomplishing the vengeance of a great woman of his court whom he had promised to wed, but whom he jilted in order to marry Princess Stephanie of Hohenzollern. The latter had died in an equally mysterious and sudden manner a few weeks previously, a victim to the same fate.

Emperor Peter I. of Brazil, who was likewise King Peter IV. of Portugal, abdicated both crowns in succession, having spent the greater portion of his stormy career in fighting chiefly against his brother, Dom Miguel, who, though his mother's favorite son, was generally believed to be illegitimate.

The reign of King Peter III., a silly and vicious man, was the most ignoble and disastrous in the annals of Portugal. King Peter II. remains on record as having become infatuated by the wife of his elder brother, whom he ousted from the throne, imprisoned, and eventually drove into exile in order to be able to wed her after a dissolution of her first marriage. Long before his death he lost his reason, the government of his kingdom being administered by his second wife as regent.

The tragic incidents of the reign of King Peter I. are among the most dramatic in the Portuguese history, have furnished inspiration and theme to Portugal's greatest poet, especially the murder of his fiancée, Dona Ines de Castro, by the orders of his father; his conflict with the latter on this account, and the extraordinary posthumous honors which he rendered her on his accession to the throne four years later, when he caused her embalmed remains to be disentombed and to be solemnly crowned as his queen in the presence of the court and of the grand dignitaries of the kingdom before being reinterred in the convent of Alcobaca.

King Peter the Cruel of Castille was killed by his brother in single combat.

Emperor Peter III. of Russia was strangled by conspirators. Czar Peter II. is officially asserted as having succumbed at the age of 15 to fever.

From this it will be seen that the name of Peter is an ominous one for sovereigns and that its possession bodes ill for the new king of Servia.

In one respect, at any rate, the present ruler of Servia presents a striking difference to his two immediate predecessors on the throne at Belgrade. He is not only a man of the highest order of education and of extensive reading but also a soldier by profession, and one of tried and proved courage. Neither Milan nor Alexander ever received any military training, whereas King Peter is a graduate of the French military academy of St. Cyr, a former officer of the French army, who fought through the Franco-German war of 1870, both as a regimental commander and as a staff officer, receiving the cross of the Legion of Honor for conspicuous gallantry on the battle field.

This cannot fail to impress the officers and soldiers of an army such as that of Servia, which, since 1875, has always distinguished itself by the ignominy and completeness of its routs, both in its campaigns against the Turks and against the Bulgarians ten years later, and whose only real feat of arms has been the shocking murder of King Alexander and Queen Draga, the details of whose assassination, especially as regards the queen, are, according to private advices from Vienna, too horrible to print.

The extraordinary attack upon Archduke Francis Ferdinand, the heir apparent to the Austro-Hungarian throne, in the imperial parliament at Vienna, the other day is calculated to augment rather than to impair his popularity. For the deputy by whom he was assailed with the most bitter invective was Herr Choc, one of the leaders of that Bohemian or, rather, Czech party which the archduke has been generally regarded as unduly favoring until now.

It seems that the archduke and his morganatic wife, who belongs to an ancient family of the Bohemian aristocracy, attended a short time ago a public concert given at Vienna by an excellent singing society from one of the German towns of Bohemia, and that he as well as his consort, the Princess Hohenberg, joined in the applause with which the songs were received.

This innocent episode has been regarded as a deliberate affront to the Bohemian people by the Czech-moiety thereof, who view everything German with the same abhorrence as the evil one. And in an impassioned speech which the presiding officer endeavored in vain to interrupt and to stop, the deputy declared that "Bohemians had not deserved such treatment from the house of Hapsburg," that nothing good was to be expected from any member thereof who bore the name of Francis or Ferdinand, but that when a prince had the misfortune to be both a Francis and a Ferdinand, his case was hopeless, and that under the circumstances it was incumbent upon the government to keep the archduke in order.

This affront, which the archduke is not the man to either forgive or forget, cannot fail to improve his position in all the non-Czech portions of his uncle's empire, where apprehension has always prevailed with regard to his advent to the throne, owing to what was believed to be his undue predilection for everything Bohemian.

Since the fall of the Campanile at Venice, a thorough examination of the huge palace of the vatican has been by orders of Leo XIII. undertaken by a commission of the most eminent architects and engineers available. This commission has just completed its labors, the character of which will be understood when it is borne in mind that there are no less than 11,000 rooms in the vatican. According to the report which it has presented to the pope, extensive repairs as well as methods of consolidation will have to be inaugurated at once, owing not only to deterioration of the stone work but also to the dry rot of the huge wooden beams supporting floors and ceilings.

Nowhere, however, is the condition of affairs in this connection more serious than in the world famed Sistine chapel, where the beams supporting the ceiling and those supporting the floor have rotted to such a degree that the pope has given directions for their being immediately replaced by steel girders of the most modern type.

Of course, the most elaborate precautions will be taken during the progress of these repairs to preserve from all injury the wonderful frescoes of Michael Angelo that adorn the walls and ceiling of this celebrated chapel, the scene of so many historic ceremonies in the annals of the church.

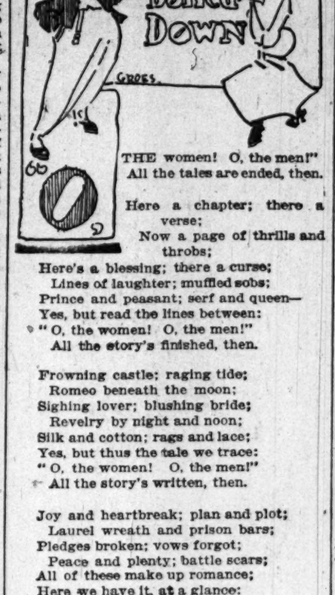
THE TOP O' THE MORNIN'.

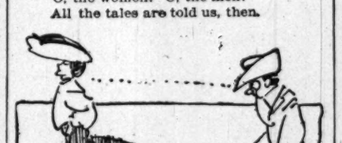


THE women! O, the men!"
All the tales are ended, then.

Here a chapter; there a verse;
Now a page of thrills and throbs;
Here's a blessing; there a curse;
Lines of laughter; muffled sobs;
Prince and peasant; serf and queen—
Yes, but read the lines between:
"O, the women! O, the men!"
All the story's finished, then.

Frowning castle; raging tide;
Romeo beneath the moon;
Sighing lover; blushing bride;
Revelry by night and noon;
Silk and cotton; rags and lace;
Yes, but thus the tale we trace:
"O, the women! O, the men!"
All the story's written, then.

Joy and heartbreak; plan and plot;
Laurel wreath and prison bars;
Pledges broken; vows forgot;
Peace and plenty; battle scars;
All of these make up romance;
Here we have it, at a glance:
"O, the women! O, the men!"
All the tales are told us, then.



Often a man spends more for firecrackers than he could get for his vote. About as often, also, he puts more patriotism in the Fourth than he does in the ballot box.

THE DROPSTITCH FAD.

Dropstitches are the fad today;
There is no damsel, glum or gay,
But who is glad when she may strike
Some fabric porous plasterlike.
We see the dropstitch gloves and waist
Of patterns epidermis-traced.
And now the poets, full of glee,
Are writing

dropstitch
poetry.

Vain man adorns his clumsy feet
With hose in dropstitches replete;
Full soon he'll haggle with the clerk
For shirts that show more openwork.
But woman—her dropstitched attire
Would move a monk to strike the lyre.
The fashion spreads, and now we see
A wave of drop-

stitch
poetry.

The dropstitch pie has long been known—
"Cross-kivered," it has held the throne;
And toothless people are in style,
For they possess a dropstitch smile;
The women, though—their wit is such
They don't take a dropstitch too much.
Which wise reflection, then, will be
All of this drop-

stitch
poetry.

Be not deceived. The timid damsel who shivers and clings to your arm during the fireworks display may positively refuse to consider you as a protector later on.

They say that Shamrock Third was First,
And Shamrock First was Second—
If this be true, we fear the worst
That ever could be reckoned.

You see, if Shamrock Third is First,
And Shamrock Third is Second,
One need not be in doubt immersed
For there the winner beckoned.

'Tis thus: The First, they say, was Third,
The Second was the First one—
It takes more than an idle word
To prove which is the worst one.

The argument we would advance
Unless ere this we've spilled it,
Is that the Fourth will have a chance
To win before they build it.

For, Shamrock Third is now the First,
The First is Second—therefore
The Fourth, ere launched, should have dispersed
The others—that's the wherefore.

DO YOU REMEMBER THAT—

FORTY YEARS AGO TODAY:

The battle of Gettysburg began with the death of Gen. John F. Reynolds, the retreat of the union troops, and the capture of over 3,000 of them by the rebel Gen. Early.

A negro emancipation platform was drafted by the Missouri republican state convention.

The Chicago newspapers explained their entire absence of telegraphic news by surmising that a great battle was being fought somewhere, and that the government had control of the wires.

Gen. Morgan, with 3,500 rebels, defeated the union troops under Gen. Jacobs at Burksville, Ky., and crossed the Cumberland river on his dash toward Indiana.

The Columbus (O.) city council voted to enroll all male citizens between the ages of 18 and 45, and to begin drilling them for defense on July 4.

THIRTY YEARS AGO TODAY:

Ex-Judge W. H. Cooley of Louisiana was killed in a duel with R. B. Rhett, editor of the New Orleans Picayune.

Germany invested $10,000,000 in United States government bonds.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY:

Ex-Senator Roscoe Conkling announced that he was done with politics, because a politician found it impossible to retain his friends.

The Rev. Robert Collyer declared that the lack of great preachers was due to "too little life and too much learning."

Father (now Archbishop) P. W. Riordan, pastor of St. James' Roman Catholic church at Chicago, was appointed bishop coadjutor at San Francisco, Cal.

TEN YEARS AGO TODAY:

William Jennings Bryan was named as fourth in a list of probable defenders of free silver coinage, while William McKinley was omitted altogether from a list of ten likely opponents.

Mayor Carter H. Harrison Sr. was hissed for favoring annexation in a speech to Canadians at the Chicago world's fair.

THE STAR THAT WENT OUT.

A NUMBER of years ago, when theatrical people who now are big were little, as many as twelve years ago, which is a generation theatrically, a company with a comic opera which was a favorite then and almost forgotten now came to Chicago.

Many people heard it not only once, but a number of times. The man who is interested in this story confesses to twelve times, which may or may not have been the record for that season.

Among the persons on the stage who were interesting from the auditorium point of view was a little girl in a minor part. She was little in respect to her size, not her age. The Gerry society would not have interfered with the management on her account, and yet she was not a great deal over the age limit.

She was a fresh faced young woman, with a girlish face and a girlish figure. Her voice had the freshness which occasionally delights the theater goer. She was a sort of Edna May girl, demure and quiet, garbed mostly in gray and wearing it well.

With the man who went twelve times she made the hit of the opera. He was attracted by her voice, which held the promise of development. He was willing to stake his reputation as a theatrical prophet that one of the opera stars of the American stage was to develop from that little girl. She had the voice, she had the manner, she had the beauty, and she had the figure.

There was another man who had not gone quite so often—he probably went seven or eight times. Both men were friends, and the first spoke of the girl.

"There's a girl that will amount to something," he said to his friend. "She's got the voice. Have you noticed her?"

"Yes," said the other. "She's got the voice."

"Eight or ten years from now," said the first, "she will be one of the great singers of this country."

The comic opera left the city and carried the little girl with it. All during the next dramatic season the two men watched for her reappearance. They figured that her ability would be making its way and that she would be found advanced in comic opera at least.

They heard nothing of her that season or the next. Several theatrical seasons came and nothing was heard of the little girl with the fresh voice and the pleasing face. The two men did not forget her. They simply wondered what could have befallen her. They could not understand how it had happened that a young singer with such promise had been lost completely.

They spoke of her to each other frequently and began to wonder if their judgment had been entirely wrong. Last week they were sitting in a restaurant at midnight, when they observed that the comic opera actor who had headed the company in which she made her appearance had taken a seat at a table near them.

"Let's go over and ask him what has happened to that little girl," proposed one, and they went to his table.

"Do you remember a little girl who was with you twelve years ago, here?" they asked, and described her minutely.

"Yes," said the actor, finally, "I remember her."

"Well, what's become of her?" they both asked.

"She's married to a Jewish tradesman in Baxter street, New York," said the actor.

"A Jewish tradesman," exclaimed one. "How did that happen?"

They told the actor how they had predicted a great operatic career for the girl and how they had watched for her reappearance.

"You were not wrong, at that," said the actor. "After she left our company that season she went to Munich and studied music. She studied hard and her teacher had lots of faith in her. Finally she came to make her début in grand opera there in Germany. She made her first appearance and they went wild over her in Munich. They declared that a great opera singer had come into being.

"She sang three times, and each time she increased the reputation she was making. Then her voice failed her completely. Lost it entirely. She didn't have a note left. Just at the beginning of her career she lost her voice.

"Well, there was nothing more for her after that. She's married the Jewish tradesman in Baxter street."

THE FLYING DUTCHMAN.

Once in a while the musical director at a rehearsal goes over the limit, in the opinion of the people who are doing their best on the stage to suit him and please the stage manager. What follows depends on the temperament of the insulted player. He may advance to the footlights and talk to the director in language calculated to make the chorus jump behind the scenes. He may stop the rehearsal for fifteen minutes while he flays the director with sarcasm.

There are many things which he may do, but it is not often that he takes a flying leap over the footlights and mixes with the director. W. J. Carleton, now the general in "Johnnie" at McVicker's, was rehearsing many years ago in the same theater for the initial performance in America of "The Flying Dutchman."

One morning Clara Louise Kellogg brought a number of women to the theater for rehearsal. When they entered, Joseph Maas, the tenor; George Conly, the basso; and Mr. Carleton, as Van der Decken, were rehearsing the long scene in the first act with the musical director, a German named Siegfried Behrens. Carleton found that his voice was tiring and finally said to the director:

"Herr Behrens, I cannot sing this number again until you have corrected the orchestration."

The conductor, whose temper was on edge, replied after the manner of overwrought and indignant conductors. Carleton saw the party of women in time to prevent the outbreak then. Finally they left the theater, and as soon as they had he turned to Behrens and demanded an apology.

"Ach, vat iss it?" exclaimed the director. "Apologize! You vas notings but a English loafer."

At that Carleton took one leap from the stage into the music pit. He became the Flying Dutchman in reality. The orchestra was in flight in a minute, the men not in fear of their hides but of their instruments, which were threatened with permanent injury by the fracas. Carleton did not have the opportunity for more than one or two punches at the director, for he, fearing for the safety of his valuable violin, took to his heels. The other violins, the 'cellos and basses, the cornet and the wood instruments, and even the traps hastily evacuated in more disorder than dignity and left Carleton standing in the empty orchestra pit.

The stage manager came hastening to the scene of riot, and recognizing that the scene was one demanding diplomacy succeeded in getting the singer back to the stage and the director and orchestra back in their places again. Then the rehearsal continued. Mutual expressions of regret ended the episode and the singer and director swore eternal friendship over large steins.

SCIENTISTS TELL OF YEAR'S WORK.

New President, C. C. Tomlinson of Concord, Takes Office with Fitting Speech.

TRIBUTES TO MRS. EDDY.

Report of Clerk Shows Wonderful Growth of Church Since It Started.

BY GEORGE SHAW COOK,
Reader of the Fifth Church of Christ (Scientist) of Chicago.

Boston, Mass., June 30.—[Special.]—When the annual meeting of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, was called to order this afternoon at 2 o'clock the auditorium of Mechanics' hall was filled by members of the mother church from all parts of the world.

The meeting was opened by the singing of the hymn, "Shepherd, show me how to go," written by the Rev. Mary Baker G. Eddy, after which the chairman of the meeting read from the bible the twenty-first chapter of Revelation, and then read some selections from the Christian Science text book. After this prayer followed the audible repetition of the Lord's Prayer.

The chairman then announced the names of the officers for the ensuing year in the following order: President, C. C. Tomlinson; clerk, William B. Johnson; treasurer, Stephen A. Chase.

New President Installed.

The new president, the Rev. C. C. Tomlinson of Concord, N. H., then was introduced by the retiring president and assumed the chair. In his speech of acceptance Mr. Tomlinson referred gracefully to the gratification expressed by many of the leading citizens of Concord with reference to the visit made by the Scientists to Mrs. Eddy at her home in Concord yesterday.

He added to his remarks by making a beautiful tribute to the constant labor performed by Mrs. Eddy on behalf of the church and humanity and in doing so reminded his hearers of her words of counsel uttered to them yesterday: "Let truth be your trust and have no other trust."

He then read a letter from Mrs. Eddy in acknowledgment of the message sent to her by the members of the church on Sunday.

The report of the treasurer was then made, after which there was an interesting report by the clerk, in which he said that the first meeting of the church, which now has a membership of 27,796, was held in a private house in October, 1879, with only a few persons present.

Facts in Report of Clerk.

The first annual meeting was held in December, 1879, the first communion service in January, 1880. Pickering hall was secured in 1885 and a Sunday school organized Dec. 30, 1894. The first communion service in the present mother church edifice was held with a membership of 3,881, being about one-seventh of the membership today. During the last year 3,696 members have been added. Sixty-six new churches and societies have been formed making a total of 769.

The death rate among members of the church during the last year was 2.24 to the 1,000, and as compared with the death rate of Boston, which is 18.73 to the 1,000. This is quite a testimony to the efficiency of this church as a healing agency.

E. A. Kimball of Chicago was recognized by the church and made a motion to send Mrs. Eddy thanks for her letter to the church, received on Sunday, and for her invitation to Pleasant View, and extending thanks to the people of Concord for their hospitality. The motion was adopted by a rising vote.

Mr. Bicknell Young of Chicago was then recognized and offered a resolution of thanks to the Boston and Maine railroad for the splendid accommodation given the scientists on their trip to Concord. The resolution was unanimously adopted. Judge Ewing of Chicago offered a resolution of thanks to the directors, officers, and members of the mother church residing in Boston for the excellent provision made by them for the comfort of their visitors. Unanimously adopted.

Reports from the Field.

The next order was "reports from the field," and under this head reports were read from only a comparatively few churches selected at random and read by members of the Christian Scientist publication committee.

Among those who read the reports were Osman Digman of Toronto, Canada; Edward A. Merrick of Cleveland, O.; W. D. McCrockman of New York, James A. Logwood of St. Louis, Lord Dunmore of London, G. D. Wickensham of Denver, Adam H. Dicker of Kansas City, and James G. Greenwood of Houston, Tex.

Reports were read from London and Manchester, England, Berlin, Germany, Toronto, Can.; Fort Worth, Tex.; Louisville, Ky.; New York City, Washington, D. C., Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Montreal, Canada, Cambridge, Mass., Hartford, Conn., Dallas, Tex., Concord, N. H., Atlanta, Ga., Detroit, Mich., Lynn, Mass., Jamestown, N. Y., New Castle, Colo., and Providence, R. I.

New Churches Thriving.

Much interest was attached to reports from the new churches in Berlin, Germany, and Manchester, England. The latter was started in January, 1901, and has recently laid the corner stone of its new church edifice in Victoria park, Manchester. This corner stone is of Concord, N. H., granite, and was presented to the church by its first reader, Lady Victoria Murray.

Judge Ewing of Chicago made an address at the laying of the corner stone. The church in Concord, N. H., reported a gift by Mrs. Eddy of $120,000 for its new church edifice, the corner stone of which will soon be laid. After listening to these reports the meeting was closed by singing "Nearer, My God, to Thee."

The week's program will be closed by the great testimonial and experience meeting in Mechanics' hall tomorrow night.

WOMAN WHO DIVORCED HIM HAS UNIVERSITY REORGANIZED.

Directors Adopt Resolution Dropping Socialistic Ideas, Which Will Cause Withdrawal of 100 Men Students Recently Taken to Glen Ellyn from Trenton, Mo.—Administration Building Will Now Become Girls' College Under Charge of Miss Ada C. Sweet.

No more socialist propaganda at Ruskin university. The doctrines of Walter Vrooman have been banished from the institution's curriculum.

The board of directors yesterday adopted a resolution declaring the university "emphatically opposed to the propaganda of political socialism."

One result of the decision will be the withdrawal from the university of 100 men students, largely recruited from Ruskin college, which was transported last April from Trenton, Mo., to Glen Ellyn. Dean George McA. Miller will find himself without pupils, for the principal building at Glen Ellyn will be the seat of a woman's college, of which Miss Ada C. Sweet will be the dean.

Mrs. Walter Vrooman the Cause.

Mrs. Walter Vrooman, who recently divorced her husband, is the patroness of Ruskin university. She formerly had some sympathy with her husband's socialistic views, but since the divorce it is said her convictions have changed.

Miss Ada Sweet would not consent to act as dean unless she was assured full control of her own field. To satisfy her scruples the directors adopted the following resolution:

"Resolved, That in view of the resolution of Miss Ada Sweet to act as dean of the woman's school and college of Ruskin university we hereby order that the administration building at Glen Ellyn be dedicated to her work and that she have the custody of said building and the exclusive control of the moral and social conduct of the college."

"It must not be supposed that there will no longer be any male students of the university," said Dr. Tobias. "We will continue to teach them, but they will be transferred to other departments—in the Chicago Law school, the Steinmann college at Dixon, and other affiliated institutions. We will have male students in the shops and other departments at Glen Ellyn some distance south of the woman's college.

Plans of Miss Sweet.

The woman's college, to be conducted by Miss Sweet, will be organized along unique lines.

"I wish to start with about 100 girls between the ages of 16 and 18," said Miss Sweet. "The course will be for three years. A feature will be the study of nature in out of door classes. The main object will be to encourage every girl to select some line as her life work by which she may be made self-supporting. There will be classes in housekeeping, cooking, sewing, and artistic dressmaking in addition to arts and crafts."

Commencement exercises of Ruskin university came to a conclusion yesterday afternoon.

COMMENCEMENT AT FERRY HALL

Garduation Exercises Are Held in the First Presbyterian Church—Dr. Rush Rhees Speaks.

The Ferry hall graduating exercises, the final event in the Lake Forest college commencement, were held yesterday in the First Presbyterian church at Lake Forest. The graduates were dressed in white and wore picture hats. Each was attended by two green gowned ushers and flower girls. Dr. Rush Rhees of Rochester, N. Y., spoke on "The Power of Expression." The members of the graduating class are as follows: Mary Edith Amen, Mary Ethel Farwell, Jessie Lee Fisher, Hazel Marguerite Hatch, Gertrude Charlotte Hea, Edith Amelia Held, Ruth Shannon MacClintock, Sarah Maud Monier, Louise Hazen Morgan, Emma Barton Paddock, Florence Therese Priebe, Mary Edith Redway, Luella Mae Uehren, and Myra Louise Vance.

BOYS AS GOOD AS GIRLS WANT.

Dr. J. G. Wolfe Tells Epworth Leaguers Morality of Young Men Depends on Women.

"The morality of the young men of this country is just as high as the young women demand," said Dr. J. G. Wolfe, Illinois state president of the Epworth league, at a preconvention meeting of leaguers at Grace Methodist Episcopal church last evening.

"Less than 15 per cent of the young men of the country have any church membership," he continued. "Something must be done. Don't fold your arms and say that it is no concern of yours, young women. Suppose young men do like to drink, and to smoke, and to gamble. Let them choose between you and these vices, and they will choose you every time."

Then the speaker turned to the general subject of the evening—the plans of the international convention at Detroit July 16 to 19.

The Rev. C. B. Allen of Detroit, who has made a tour of the country in the interests of the convention, told the leaguers of the arrangements Detroit has made to care for the 25,000 members of the league expected to attend the convention.

ASK MILLION FOR UNIVERSITY.

Trustees of Wesleyan Pass Resolution to This Effect—Alumni Association Pledges $100,000.

Middletown, Conn., June 30.—The trustees of Wesleyan university at their annual meeting today passed a resolution asking for an addition of $1,000,000 to the permanent fund of the university, to be raised within two years. Subsequently the alumni association pledged itself to give $100,000, provided the rest of the million dollar fund is raised. W. P. Hubbard of West Virginia was elected president of the board. At the commencement luncheon President Eliot of Harvard and Carroll D. Wright of Washington responded to toasts.

FINISH CLUB LAND DEAL.

UNION LEAGUE DIRECTORS BUY SITE OF OLD BUILDING.

Price Paid for Ground Fronting in Jackson Boulevard Is $360,000—Organization Now Owns 100 by 150 Feet—Mortgage for $400,000 Is Issued—New Structure May Be Delayed Owing to Labor Troubles and High Cost of Materials.

The deal by which the Union League club becomes the owner of the site of its clubhouse has been closed, so that the club now owns 100 feet frontage on Jackson boulevard by 150 feet on Custom House place. For the 100x100 feet occupied by the clubhouse, formerly held under a long term lease, the club pays $360,000. The grantors were Charles W. Bonynge, who conveyed 75x100 feet, and John H. Whittemore of Naugatuck, Conn., who conveyed 25x100 feet. The 50 feet frontage in Custom House place, adjoining on the south, was secured by the club some time ago for $105,000. Title in both cases was taken by the Union League Auxiliary association.

In connection with the acquirement of the ground the association, through Marvin A. Farr, president, executed a mortgage for $400,000 to the Equitable Life Assurance society of the United States, running ten years, at 4½ per cent. Of this loan $80,000 will be used in paying for the Custom House place frontage and the remainder will be applied on the purchase of the corner, the association paying $40,000 in cash.

May Delay New Building.

This loan has nothing to do with the club's building plans, although arrangements have been made with the Life Assurance society for a supplementary loan in this connection. It is said, however, there is some doubt as to when the construction of the clubhouse will be undertaken, there being, it is said, a disposition to postpone this until the labor situation clears up and the price of building material drops. The cost of the new clubhouse, plans of which have been prepared by D. H. Burnham & Co., will be $1,000,000.

Other Real Etsate Transactions.

The Chicago Title and Trust company has taken title as trustee from George S. Thomas to 16 2-3x176 feet in Armour avenue, 300 feet south of Seventy-second street, and eighteen other parcels of land in Cook county for $56,000.

The estate of Chauncey Kelmer has conveyed to Mr. Thomas 24x122 feet in Wentworth avenue, 250 feet south of Seventy-first street, and other property, for $41,750.

Justus Martenson has sold to John M. Cameron the flat property in Indiana avenue, 240 feet south of Fifty-sixth street, with 50x162 feet of ground, for $25,000.

The June showing of transfers is a good one, the number of instruments filed being 2,394, with a total consideration of $10,572,998, against 2,193 transfers and $9,240,295 consideration for June, 1902.

At a special meeting of the real estate board yesterday resolutions were passed thanking the real estate exchange of St. Louis and the officials of the Louisiana Purchase exposition for courtesies shown the board during the recent visit to St. Louis.

"OLD BOYS" LEAVE CHICAGO FOR A VISIT IN TORONTO.

Former Residents of the Canadian City Depart for Their Former Home, Where a Great Welcome Awaits Them

The day will seem brighter
When the boys come home,
And our hearts will be lighter
When the boys come home.
JOHN HAY.

Five trainloads of the Toronto "Old Boys" started back to their Canadian home yesterday, the last special leaving the Dearborn street station at 6:30 o'clock.

In the rear car of the last train a stage was improvised by placing boards across the arms of two seats. On this stage a vaudeville performance was given, which, if predictions were fulfilled, was long enough to stretch from the United States into Canada. And the vaudeville performers included nearly the entire trainload, for almost every "Old Boy" was down on the program. There were others on the program, too. Some of them were Miss Jardine Thompson, formerly of the Bostonians; C. E. Williams, Mrs. E. H. Roden, and J. B. Wilson.

W. H. Charlton, speaker of the Ontario house of commons, came to Chicago yesterday to accompany the "Old Boys" to Toronto. When they reach the Canadian city they will find the populace ready to welcome them, together with 50,000 old boys from every part of thee United States and every province in Canada. The stay in Toronto will be from July 1 to 4, and the home coming will be on Monday.

CUPID AT WORK OVERTIME: BREAKS RECORDS FOR JUNE.

More Marriage Licenses Issued by Cook County than Ever Before in the Marrying Month—Total Is 2,850.

In the twenty-five "working" days of June more marriage licenses were issued by the county clerk than ever before in one month of any year. In June, 1902, 2,496 licenses were issued in twenty-six days, while in the twenty-five days of June of this year 2,850 licenses were issued.

June 1 was the day of the judicial election, a holiday. On June 2, 269 licenses were issued, and on June 3, 265 permits were written.

The age of the youngest man married in June was 17 years, and his bride was 16 years old. The ages of the oldest couple was 61 and 60 years respectively for the groom and bride.

NEWS OF THE INSURANCE FIELD.

June Losses Much Less than Last Year—Underwriting Shows Profit Since January.

Losses in the United States for June aggregated $7,627,000, compared with $9,663,000 last year and $8,200,000 in 1901. For most of the western departments the month had been a favorable one till its last week, when there came several large losses, like that at Milwaukee, and a flood of small losses. For the first six months of the year the losses are $62,000,000, compared with $79,000,000 last year. The first half of 1902 was noted for unusually heavy losses, with the great fires at Waterbury, Conn., and Paterson, N. J. Most of the companies close the first half of the year with a profit on underwriting.

The patrol committee of the Chicago board of fire underwriters kept open house yesterday noon at the quarters of the new patrol company, No. 8, at 25 Michigan avenue. A large number of contributing underwriters visited the quarters.

Brummel Bros. were yesterday appointed Cook county managers of the Germania of Peoria, taking effect today. A. Cremer, the former manager, will represent the company in the west. E. A. Becker, formerly with the Cook county office, has been made special agent for Wisconsin and Michigan. Brummel Bros. also represent the Delaware and the Buffalo German.

The anti-compact and valued policy laws passed by the legislature of South Dakota go into effect today, and fieldmen there are afraid that demoralization and rate cutting may result. A few of the large companies are understood to be after the choice business without much regard to rates.

The executive committee of the Chicago Underwriters' association took no final action yesterday on the proposed increase in allowance for sprinkler equipments, putting the matter over to Friday.

FOES OF G. T. SULLIVAN HAVE A RED LETTER DAY.

Suit for $2,000 Alleged to Be Due Is Begun and Complaint Against Alleged Bucket Shop Made at Postoffice.

The troubles of George T. Sullivan, alleged "bucket shop" operator at 259 La Salle street, have filled the proverbial peck to overflowing. Yesterday's contribution included a suit for the recovery of $2,000, brought by a country patron and an announcement that the postoffice department had received complaints of Sullivan's dealings. The "red letter" which has been Sullivan's trademark and sobriquet is the matter toward which the attention of Inspector James E. Stuart has been called.

It is expected at the postoffice that the verbal complaint will be followed shortly by the submission of letters and literature sent through the mails to Sullivan's customers. As soon as these are received the federal department will commence an investigation.

Lawrence Smith of Eagle Point, Ia., was the complainant in the suit against Sullivan and the George T. Sullivan company, commenced in the Superior court. He declares that the defendant is indebted to him for the profits in a grain deal. Sullivan, it is said, admits the obligation to Smith.

"THIS IS MY BIRTHDAY."
—SHAKSPEARE.

FARWELL—Charles B. Farwell, merchant, formerly United States Senator.

From the drudgery of an Illinois farm to a seat in the United States senate and to a place among the wealthy citizens of Chicago are the boundaries of his endeavors.

Four distinguished characteristics of Mr. Farwell: Simplicity, honesty, independence, painstaking.

Mr. Farwell is a famous ranchman and owns the largest ranch in the world.

This ranch is in the northwestern corner of Texas and covers all or portions of nine different counties. It is larger than Connecticut, and covers 5,000 square miles and over 3,000,000 acres.

Mr. Farwell raises thousands of thoroughbred Hereford, Aberdeen, Angus, and shorthorn cattle, which have won many prizes at stock expositions in Chicago and elsewhere.

Mr. Farwell enjoys club life, was one of the founders of the Chicago club, and is a member of the Union League, Commercial, and Bankers' clubs of Chicago.

He is a practical philanthropist. Lake Forest university has been the recipient of much of his bounty.

It was mainly through him that the Washington street tunnel was built. Its contractors had left it in chaos, so that it was rapidly going to ruin, when Mr. Farwell came to the rescue. He furnished the bulk of the money for its completion, having the design reconstructed and supervising it to the finish.

Mr. Farwell's early Chicago career was unpromising of his later successes.

He came when 20 years old, with a $10 bill in his pocket and no friends, and looked for a "job" for nearly three months. Then he found a place in the county clerk's office, which he filled for two years at $8 a month and board.

TWO CENT DROP IN WHEAT

GOOD RAINS IN THE NORTHWEST FORCE HEAVY LIQUIDATION.

Dry Weather Motive Removed from the Market and Trade Influenced by Reports of Big Yield in Kansas—Corn Has Quick Advance in Spite of Big Increase in Contract Stocks, but Loses It All—Oats Tame, Provisions Heavy.

There were good rains in the northwest on Monday, as shown by the weather map yesterday morning. It was still raining at scattered points in the Dakotas and Minnesota during the session, and the forecast was for continued showers for last night and today.

The action of the market showed that the selling done in anticipation of rains in the spring wheat country had not been on a scale sufficient to discount the effect of the rains when they finally came, on the speculative mood and on the market. The lowest opening prices were about 1c below the previous close, and while there was a rally of ½c it was almost entirely in sympathy with the sharp upturn in the corn market, and as soon as corn stopped going up wheat began to go down and kept going down, with occasional feeble reactions, under the weight of general and almost incessant liquidation.

At their lowest, prices were off 1⅞c to 2⅜c, and there was not much rally at the close, which was 1⅞c to 2⅜c lower than the last prices of Monday. As has been the case since the decline started, the most weakness was shown by the July deliveries, and there was a good deal of selling of July in anticipation of the possible depressing effect today of free deliveries of No. 2 red. This grade has been selling sparingly at about July price, and it was an open question how much, if any, of the 1,089,000 bu in store would be delivererd. There was a disposition to look for it all to come out and to have a depressing effect. New July sold down to 77¼c and closed at 77½c bid, a loss of 2⅜c and only 1⅛c premium over September, which sold down to 76¼c and closed at 76⅜c, sellers.

Big Yield in Kansas.

The northwest rains were the principal factors, some authorities in that section declaring that the drought had been entirely relieved and the crop put in fine condition again. Equally good authorities declared that there had not been much rain in the Red river valley, where there was the most need for it, and more must be had to prevent further deterioration, but the prospect was for getting the more rain needed. Reports from Manitoba were generally of a fine crop outlook, but there was one claim from Winnipeg that wheat was looking bad at the roots and estimates were being reduced.

The Kansas board of agriculture estimated the probable yield of that state at 90,000,000 bu, which more than offset the bullish report for this state, reducing the conditions 20 points, to 72. Other domestic markets were off about as much as this, St. Louis 2c to 2¼c lower, and the fear of a collapse of the St. Louis bull movement was the excuse for some selling here. Local contract stocks decreased 138,000 bu for the week, to 2,262,000 bu. The movement keeps light, 250 cars northwest, compared with 295 a year ago, and 368,000 bu at primary points, compared with 509,000 bu. There was some milling demand here on the break, with sales of 100,000 bu, but the export demand showed no improvement; sales, 40,000 bu. Clearances were 180,000 bu. English markets were inactive, Liverpool steady to ⅛d lower, but Paris was strong for some unexplained reason, prices 1½c to ½c higher.

Erratic Corn Market.

There was an easy opening in corn, because of the clear, hot weather through the west, just the thing for the growing crop, and a liberal addition of 788,000 bu to the contract supply here for the week, and of 1,672,000 bu to the total local stocks, but there was not much for sale on the slight dip, there was buying from the start by houses supposed to be acting for Armour or Cudahy, and the theory that the crop is going to be a short one, or some other bull motive, took possession of everyone, and for a time there was a fine runaway market, prices up 1¼c in very short order, and the trade of tremendous volume.

After the price had been marked up there was some uncertainty as to what the advance has been about, and as wheat kept growing weaker and weaker the early corn buyers tired of their bargains, and there was a gradual decline until at the close prices were ⅛c to ½c lower than on Monday. The sharpest break was in July, which closed at 50c bid, a discount of ⅝c under September. The July weakness was on pressure of cash corn or by longs who were afraid of heavy deliveries, as even No. 2 yellow was offering at ⅛c over July, with the demand slight, sales of only 100,000 bu reported. The total contract stocks were 1,643,000 bu, and total stocks in all positions 6,092,000 bu. Country acceptances were not heavy. There were 582 cars inspected in, with 77 contract and about 200,000 bu contract out of private houses. Estimated receipts for today, 205 cars. Primary receipts were 874,000 bu, compared with 422,000 bu last year. Export sales at the seaboard were 40,000 bu, and clearances 353,000 bu.

Little Change in Oats.

In oats as in corn there was a slight yielding at the start, then a sharp upturn in sympathy with the corn advance, and on buying based on the belief that the crop would be short. The upturn was a sharp one, but the gain was all lost on the slow decline, except in the May, which closed ¼c higher. December, after touching 34⅞c, closed unchanged at 34¼c; September ⅛c lower at 34c, and July ½c lower, at 39c, after having sold at 40c. There was some buying of December and May early by the Howe interests. Cereal interests were sellers. There were 318 cars in, with 11 standard, and 21,000 bu out of private houses. Estimated for today, 145 cars. The cash market closed steady. The shipping demand was light, sales 50,000 bu. Clearances were 37,000 bu.

Another Setback in Provisions.

There was a renewed disposition toward liquidation in hog product, and lower prices were established in everything in the list. The July pork lost 47½c and the September 37½c, as compared with Monday. Lard was 12½@15c off, and ribs 15@25c lower. Geddes sold quite a line of pork. The National was the principal buyer of September ribs and lard. At the decline there was some little demand for pork from commission houses. There were 12,000 hogs here, with 29,000 estimated today. Western points reported 67,800, as against 79,000 the previous week, and 62,300 a year ago.

Rye was easy at a decline of 1c, demand being much more limited. Receipts were 11 cars. No. 2 regular was quoted nominally at 51c. July sold at 51c and September at 51½c. These deliveries were changed early at even money.

There was a slow market in barley, screenings being sparingly offered. Hot weather is also cutting down the demand. Screenings ranged 30@45c for poor country. Low grade or feed barley, 43@45c; ordinary malting, 47@48c; good to choice, 49@52c; fancy about 53c.

Timothy seed was weaker though more business was done. Prices ruled about 1c lower. September ranged from $3.52½ down to $3.45. October sold at $3.50, closing $3.45 asked. Clover seed was unchanged at $11.50@11.75 for contract, and $9.00@9.50 for October.

Flaxseed was about 2c lower on improved crop prospects, No. 1 northwestern, $1.02 bid and southwestern 99c. July was nominally 99½c. September sold at $1.00@1.01. October was $1.01 bid. There were 3 cars here, 29 at Minneapolis, and 46 at Duluth.

Trade Gossip on 'Change.

The weather map showed good rains, fairly well distributed over the northwest, and while there were some claims that the showers had been too light in the Red river valley to check the deterioration of the growing spring wheat, the forecast was for more rain. There were some reports of good rains through the valley of the most reliable kind. The board of trade of Grand Forks, N. D., which is in the valley, wired THE TRIBUNE yesterday: "Advices from Minot, Devils Lake, and south through Red river valley show heavy rains and consequent prospects of splendid wheat crop throughout entire state of North Dakota."

Another message from Souris, N. D., said: "Crops here doing well; late grain little short, but conditions generally above average."

Van Dusen Harrington of Minneapolis, in a review of weather and crop conditions, says: "There were scattered showers in North Dakota and northern Minnesota Saturday and Saturday night, and some on Sunday. It rained on the Soo line from Enderlin to Minneapolis from half an hour to an hour this morning. There was rain all over the Hastings and Dakota division of the Milwaukee road from 3:30 until 8 this morning and all over the Jim river division west as far as Everett, south to Redfield and from Aberdeen north. Central and southern Minnesota reports a good, general rain. There is an area of low barometer in the west and observers at Winnipeg and Minneapolis report prospects good for further rain. The section most in need of rain now is the tier of counties in the Red river valley, west of the river, from Richland county north, including Walsh county. The rains have given considerable relief, and with the probability of more tonight the situation is considered much improved.

Secretary Coburn of the Kansas agricultural department made a report Monday, in which he said: "Reports from nearly every township in Kansas, based on conditions existing June 20, summarized, indicate that the area of winter wheat that will be harvested aggregates 5,709,485 acres, or 94.6 per cent of the area sown, and the general average condition of this on the eve of harvest is 89 per cent." Continuing, Secretary Coburn stated that 90,000,000 bu of wheat may be claimed for this year, against 55,000,000 bu yield in 1902 and 90,000,000 bu in 1901, the last named being the largest crop in the state's history. Other Kansas people claim a yield as high as 100,000,000 bu to 106,000,000 bu on the basis of Coburn's report. Some of the elevator people here who do a large business in Kansas had not looked for over 80,000,000 bu.

Grain Deliveries Today.

The No. 2 red winter wheat here, which has been selling from ¼c over old July to ¼c over and sold yesterday at July price, 50,000 bu, may add to the discomfort of the bulls today. There were 1,089,000 bu of it in store Saturday night, and there was a good deal of selling of futures yesterday on the theory this wheat would be delivered out today and would cause a weak market. There are 1,172,000 bu of No. 1 northern, but this grade is still bringing 2c premium over July and will hardly be seen on the delivery tables. There is no concentrated ownership of the No. 2 red wheat, and the deliveries may not be as heavy as expected.

The directors voted to adjourn over Friday, making the fourth of July holiday from Thursday afternoon until the following Monday morning.

Deliveries of corn are expected to be heavy today, and those of oats will probably be fair, but not much wheat is expected to go around.

McNeil on "the Carpet."

C. G. McNeil of Sioux City, Ia., was before the directors yesterday on charges of irregular trading methods, preferred by Simon Fritzon of Randolph, Neb., and Col. J. H. Brown of Wakefield, Neb. Vice president Gregson prosecuted the case for the board. The defendant was his own attorney. Treasurer E. G. Brown of the Weare company, with whom McNeil at one time did business, was, besides the men who make the charges, the principal witness. A claim made by McNeil that trades in question were effected through the Weare office is denied by that house. The case was unfinished yesterday, an adjournment being taken to next Monday.

Estimated receipts for today are: Wheat, 20 cars; corn, 305 cars; oats, 145 cars, hogs, 29,000.

"If this wheat market keeps going down," observed a trader, commenting on the 4½c break, "the estimates of the amount of money Armour is going to lose on short wheat when the price gets to a dollar may have to be revised."

Railroads have made a 20c rate on wheat from Texas and Oklahoma to St. Louis, and it is claimed red winter wheat will be coming to the St. Louis market early this month if prices are maintained, and possibly to this market.

The firm of Lake-Leask, which has been active and successful during a short business life, was dissolved yesterday, Arthur Leask retiring to take a rest. The business will be continued by W. H. Lake.

Clarence E. Gray and Harvey S. Williams have organized the firm of Gray-Williams, to take up the business formerly conducted by Karrick-Gray-Williams. They commission and will clear their trades through the Calumet Grain and Elevator company.

Memberships are now quoted $3,250 net to the buyer.

W. L. Green of St. Louis, who was on the floor yesterday is still bullish on wheat, although, like a good many other bulls, impressed by the severity of the recent break. "It is not true," he said, "that the only bulls in St. Louis are the Cleage party. There are a good many others. Reports of disappointing yields of red winter wheat all over our territory keep coming in."

The Iowa crop bulletin for the week ending June 29 says: "Though the average temperature was below normal, the last week was favorable for field work and advancement of crops. The conditions have been especially favorable for wheat, oats, and barley, and except in limited areas these crops are doing well. The cultivation of corn has been continued vigorously with but little interruption from excessive moisture in the larger part of the state, and all reports indicate that the crop as a whole has made fair progress. The acreage of corn, including the late planted area, is much greater than was deemed possible a month ago, though materially less than last year. Notably good progress has been made in cultivating the early planted fields, and in size and general condition this portion of the crop is nearly up to the ten year average in this state.

The United Grain company of Toledo claims to have information that the corn and oats crops are all right. It wires Ware-Leland: "Our advices from Iowa, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio are to the effect that corn is coming along in fine shape, and the present warm weather will certainly make it grow beyond all expectation, especially as there has been so much moisture, and the roots have been going down every day and every night for the last ten days. 'Nature always pays her debts,' and by the middle of July, with the kind of weather we are having today, corn will be up to the full average height, and ready to lay by, in most of the territory. We get nothing but the most favorable reports from oats, short straw, long heads, the crop all standing up in good shape, and the promise of a big yield."

POTATO MARKET DEMORALIZED.

Demand Drops to Almost Nothing and Holders Anxious to Sell at Any Price.

Dusty rurals sold yesterday as low as 65c, with 50c the best bid on good white stock. These prices are one-half those of a week ago. Demand is greatly restricted and dealers who have stocks are willing to take about what they can get for them. Veal was weak and lower, as a result of the hot weather. The berry list was generally easier.

IN THE NEW YORK MARKETS.

Quotations on Dry Goods, Coffee, Poultry, Butter, Metals, and Other Special Lines.

NEW YORK, June 30.—The dry goods market shows no signs of weakening, but, on the other hand, prices are being advanced in all directions. Agents, however, are not urging the placing of liberal contracts, as the market for raw material has caused an artificial situation, which should not be conducive to healthy trading.

Coffee at Home and Abroad.

Coffee—Futures opened steady at a decline of 5@10 points under liquidation following lower European cables. The close was steady, net unchanged to 5 points higher. Sales were reported of about 20,250 bags.

READING HAS LARGE GAINS

INCREASE 230 PER CENT IN NET OVER MAY OF LAST YEAR.

Deficit of $264,467 Is Wiped Out and Over $600,000 Increase Shown—Abstract of the Reports of the Condition of All the National Banks in the United States for June 9 Show They Are No Better Off Now than Last Year—Gain in Clearing.

Earnings of the Reading system for May are relatively better than those of the Erie, and again emphasize the fact that the anthracite coal roads are making more money since the strike than they did before and that the consumers of coal are paying the increased miners' wage and the increased railroad profit.

A deficit of $264,467 in the Coal and Iron company's net for May, 1902, is wiped out and an increase of $635,716 is shown. The railway company's net for the month shows an increase of 101 per cent. The net for all companies shows an increase of 230 per cent.

This is what Wall street calls a good statement. It is certainly instructive, apart from its exposition of the earnings of the road.

For the eleven months of the fiscal year the surplus over fixed charges shows an increase of 27 per cent. The figures follow:

	Earnings.	Increase.

Banks No Better Off than Last Year.

The abstract of the reports of the condition of all the national banks in the United States at the close of business June 9 has been prepared by the controller of the currency. It makes an interesting exhibit, showing an increase in individual deposits of $32,718,248, compared with April 9, and an increase of over $102,000,000 compared with July 16, 1902. But there is an increase in loans of $11,828,132, compared with April 9, and an increase of $193,186,119, compared with July 16, 1902.

It would appear from these figures that the banks of the United States are as a whole no better prepared to meet the fall demand for money than they were this time last year. Indeed, the percentage of legal reserve is not quite so high, the comparison being:

	June 9, 1903.	April 9, 1903.	July 16, 1902.
Percentage legal reserve	22.33	22.08	22.68

These figures show how necessary has been the conservative attitude of the banks with reference to stock market speculation. While they have held down loans to the stock market, they have increased them to business interests. But the expansion in loans is there, nevertheless, and the banks are going to enter the fall period in a close condition.

The abstract in full is as follows:

Gain in June Clearings.

Local bank clearings for June showed a gain of over $80,000,000 compared with the corresponding month last year. The total was also better than either April or May, but not so good as the previous three months of the calendar year. For the first six months the increase over last year was $135,696,184, or 3.2 per cent. The record by months follows:

	1903.	1902.	Increase.	Pct.

Financial News Notes.

The governing committee of the New York Stock exchange declines to close the exchange on Friday as well as Saturday. The sentiment of the floor was unanimous for closing.

S. B. Chapin & Co. have moved their New York offices from the Empire building to the main floor of 10 Wall street.

The New York subtreasury has gained $647,000 from the banks since last Friday.

It is reported that a number of New York stock exchange memberships are for sale and that $50,000 is the best bid. A recent sale was at $70,000, which was about $10,000 below the high price.

Lake Street Will Pay Interest.

Directors of the Lake Street Elevated voted yesterday to pay as usual the semiannual interest on the first mortgage bonds. After the meeting of the board it developed there had been no intention of doing otherwise.

Western State Bank.

Today the stock of the Western State bank will be exchanged for that of the Western Trust and Savings bank, and the Western State shares will be immediately retired.

The $500,000 new capital was all paid for yesterday, and the Western Trust and Savings bank will have a capital of $1,000,000. The business of Otis, Wilson & Co. will be consolidated with the bank, and at the meeting of the directors on July 7 the changes in the board previously outlined will be made.

Range of Exchange in June.

New York exchange for the month of June ranged from par to 55c premium. The low prices were at the beginning of the month. There was a moderate volume of business, with the demand considerably in excess of the supply as the end of the month drew near. A considerable amount of funds was sent in connection with July disbursements.

The following, showing the range of exchange, is compiled by W. G. Sturges. Where two prices are given the first is the market before clearings and the second after clearings, as follows:

June.	Premium.	June	Premium.

Subtreasury and Clearing House.

It is probable the subtreasury will not begin clearing its checks through the local clearing house until about the middle of July. Secretary Shaw has practically agreed to all the details except one with reference to the subtreasury's admission. It will take several days to hear from Washington, and then notifications will have to be sent out before the clearings begin.

Chicago Stocks.

Chicago stocks were a little more active yesterday, and prices were steady to firm with the exception of City railway, which, on trading in small lots, sold down to 195.

While the outcome of traction negotiations cannot be forecast, yet it seems fairly evident that any terms which may be reached will not be such as to advance the price of the stock at this time. It is manifest that a greater amount of compensation is going to be asked and secured than the companies have heretofore figured on. In addition, it seems likely also that heavy expenditures will have to be provided for as a part of the terms of settlement. Barring, therefore, some extra value which may attach to the shares because of a presumed consolidation movement, the stock will be less valuable after the Traction settlement than it is now.

American Can shares were firm, with but little doing. Chicago Pneumatic Tool advanced to 57. There was nothing of consequence doing in the Boxboard issues. In the bond department prices were steady.

Sales on the Chicago stock exchange yesterday were as follows:

	Shares.	High.	Low.	Close.

FALLS WITH A FIRE ESCAPE.

Harry Hardiman Killed While Inspecting Rusted Cable and Ladders at 74-78 Michigan Avenue.

Hurled forty feet to the cement sidewalk from a fire escape which he was inspecting at 74-78 Michigan avenue yesterday, Harry Hardiman, 23 years old, was instantly killed. The corroded condition of the wire cable which held the section of the fire escape to which Hardiman was clinging, forty feet above the sidewalk, was responsible for the accident. The cable parted, allowing a twenty foot section of the iron ladder which it supported to fall.

The building is occupied by the E. L. Mansure upholstering company. Hardiman was 23 years old and unmarried. He lived at 3751 La Salle street.

Accepts Presidency of Roanoke.

Salem, Va., June 30.—The Rev. Dr. John Alfred Morehead of Mount Pleasant, Charleston, S. C., who recently was elected to the presidency of Roanoke college, has notified the trustees of his acceptance of that position. He expects to enter upon his new duties on Sept. 1.

MARKET CONTINUES GOOD

SECOND DAY OF BUOYANCY IN THE STOCK LIST.

Traders Thankful to Those Who Permitted the Improvement in Prices, No Matter What the Reasons Were—Coalers, Especially Reading, Show Surplus of Over a Million, Where Seven Months Ago There Was a Deficit of $2,000,000.

[BY A SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT.]

NEW YORK, June 30.—[Special.]—Two good days together constitute a record in recent Wall street experience. Monday's temper carried over into Tuesday, and if the improvement in the price record is not strictly continuous nor even at an unchecked rate, nevertheless, the change is pronounced and agreeable enough to deserve thankful recognition of those who allowed it. For it must be admitted that one of the chief factor in the improvement was the reduction of selling pressure.

London sent over stimulating prices, the produce markets were again weak, and there were several excellent traffice statements. Chief among the latter was Reading's report of a surplus for May larger by a million than last year. At the close of last October the company had a deficit of nearly $2,000,000, which the ensuing seven months have turned into a surplus available, although unlikely to be availed of for a dividend on common. The improvement in second preferred by 2⅞ indicates where the chief benefits for the improvement is expected to be felt. Erie has a similar record of recovery from the strike's effects, and the whole group is in a good condition to profit from any general market movement.

There were not many price changes among the active properties, but steel preferred rose 2⅛ to parity with the fives, which were taken from 82⅝ to 83 and closed at 82¼. The movement may be justified, but is not natural. Outside the active list there were a number of striking changes, Panhandle rising over 4 and International Power over 8. The latter has all the diverting characteristics of the late A. Ward's kangaroo. It is an amusing performer and gives outsiders a run for their money, and they are likely to drop it if they meddle with it. Last year this acrobatic insecurity leaped from 95 to 190 and back to 120—all within a month, and the movement retained strength enough to ignore a flurry in money and closing strong if not the best for all.

The appointment of a receivership in the ship building trust was not a disturbing factor, but the contrary, it being argued that combinations of this sort of property were for the better or worse of all concerned and not for the certain profit of any element in the combination to the loss of any other.

IN THE FOREIGN MONEY MARKET.

General Tendency of Cash, Bonds, and Securities in London, Paris, and Berlin.

LONDON, June 30.—Money was in demand in the market today and considerable sums changed hands. Over $10,000,000 in dividends and interest was disbursed. Discounts were easier. Prices on the stock exchange were strong and trading was moderately active. All departments benefited by the strength of consols, which were in good demand.

CHICAGO LIVE STOCK MARKET.

Movement of Cattle, Hogs, Sheep, and Lambs, with the Range of Prices.

Receipts of live stock were liberal enough on cattle, but there was a low average on hogs. The figures are: 5,000 cattle, 12,000 hogs, and 10,000 sheep. Purely on prospects of today's run the buyers were disposed to let cattle alone unless they got them at lower figures. Hogs opened a little higher, but failed to hold the advance. Sheep were dull and lower. The car run on three principal roads indicated a run of about 20,000 cattle, 35,000 hogs, and 12,000 sheep for today.

Following is a statement of the movement of live stock at the Chicago stockyards for the period indicated, with comparative figures:

Cattle.

The market for fat cattle was dull from the start to finish. The estimate of 5,000 included upward of 2,000 Texas cattle, 100 cars of which were consigned direct to local slaughterers. This of course let the cattle on market to barely more than 3,000. Prices were weak to 10c higher, probably in most cases on the strength of an anticipated run for Wednesday, buyers preferring to hold their orders over unless they could get supply at bargain prices. The market for she stock of all kinds was irregularly steady to 25c lower, with the dull market falling on grades of cows that had been selling close to top prices. Quotations:

Hogs.

The hog market opened on a 10c advance, but the big slaughters would not follow the pace set by speculators, and a few small buyers, and the market slumped to about the extent of the advance noted early. Supplies were pretty well bought and the cost of droves was slightly more liberal than on Monday, but the close was slumpy, with quite a number of desirable droves locked up for want of bids. Quotations:

Sheep.

Grass western sheep are now beginning to come freely. The market for mature sheep was dull and generally 10c to 15c lower. A few prime lambs made steady prices, but the general market for lambs was dull and lower again. Quotations:

CROPS IN BETTER SHAPE.

GENERAL CONDITIONS THROUGHOUT COUNTRY ENCOURAGING.

Deterioration in Wheat in North Dakota on Account of Drought—Corn Shows Improvement, Though It Is Late in Western Portions of Belt—Cotton Retarded Some by Cool Nights and Some Local Troubles, but as a Rule Doing Well.

Washington, D. C., June 30.—[Special.]—Following is the official weekly crop report of the department of agriculture:

Throughout the central valleys, the lake region, the Atlantic coast districts, and the northern portion of the southern states the week has been decidedly cool, and the Atlantic cost and the east gulf districts have suffered from continuous rains.

While too cool for rapid growth, crops have made favorable advancement in the central valleys. Warmth and sunshine are greatly needed in the Atlantic coast and the east gulf districts.

Further improvement in the condition of corn is generally reported, and while the crop continues late it is making good growth over the western portion of the corn belt, the condition of the crop in Iowa now closely approximating the average. In the middle Atlantic states corn has made slow growth and is backward and much in need of cultivation.

Except over local areas the weather conditions have been favorable for winter wheat harvest in the central valleys, but this work has been interrupted by rains in the middle Atlantic states. A marked improvement in the condition of winter wheat is reported from New York and Michigan, and the crop is maturing rapidly and is in good condition in Nebraska.

In North Dakota there has been a decided deterioration in the condition of spring wheat as a result of drought, which also has proved damaging in portions of South Dakota and northern Minnesota. The crop continues promising in Wisconsin, Iowa, and Nebraska. Decided improvement is reported from Washington and Oregon, except in central Washington, where drought is causing injury.

The condition of cotton is generally improved throughout the belt, but continues late and is suffering for cultivation in the eastern districts, where low night temperatures have checked growth. Lice and rust have caused injury in North Carolina and Missouri and in Texas boll weevil are spreading and are more injurious.

Reports by States.

ILLINOIS—Wheat harvest is progressing in the central portion, but yield is below average; corn backward, too cool for growth, fields generally clean; oats and grass improved since rains; clover heavy, yield good quality; small fruits promising; apples continue dropping badly; potatoes promise heavy yield.

INDIANA—Temperature much below average, otherwise weather favorable; thrashing wheat in south section, where there is not half a crop, elsewhere prospects are better, but less than average promised; corn late and growing slowly but clean; oats improved, but rust prevalent; good crop of clover being saved; minor crops in fair condition; prospect for apples improved, light to good yields promised.

MICHIGAN—Ample showers followed by warmer weather caused marked improvement in wheat, rye, oats, barley, peas, and meadows; corn small and weedy, but improving rapidly; sugar beets and early potatoes doing well.

WISCONSIN—Corn improved, but still backward; winter rye seriously injured in Wisconsin valley by late frost, elsewhere heading well; winter wheat good; oats, barley, spring wheat, and rye satisfactory.

MINNESOTA—Rains at end of week insufficient in dry portions, injury by drought in northern half of state to oats, barley, and flax on sandy soils and spring plowed lands, but wheat, oats, and barley on fall plowed lands and clay soil are standing drought safely.

IOWA—Conditions favorable for spring wheat, oats, and barley, which are heading and filling satisfactorily; corn cultivation continued with little interruption and early planted corn is close to ten year average in size and condition.

SOUTH DAKOTA—Beneficial rains; favorable weather, except in some northern counties, where damaging drought, especially to spring wheat and oats, was generally broken Sunday night; elsewhere spring wheat, oats, barley, rye, grasses, flax, and potatoes generally thrifty.

NEBRASKA—Good growing week. Winter wheat maturing fast and generally in good condition; spring wheat and oats heading and growing fairly well; corn small and many fields weedy, but crop now growing nicely and condition improving.

KANSAS—Wheat harvesting central and south, good crop, stacking begun south; corn improving rapidly, being cleaned.

Our Great Annual July

Clearance Sale

The most remarkable sale of the year—Such selling was never witnessed in this or any other city.

IT seems hardly necessary to refer to the success of this sale. There is not a woman in Chicago that does not know about it, and those who have not yet attended will make an effort to do so before the sale is over. Monday morning the store was filled to its fullest capacity before the doors had been open an hour, continuing so throughout the day. With the assistance of several hundred extra salespeople we were not equal to the task. Such remarkable selling has never been witnessed in Chicago. But we expected just such enthusiasm and selling. We knew when we were throwing out the beautiful things to go at the low prices we had marked them that we were planning the greatest sale ever held in America.

The success of this sale can be attributed to honest, straightforward merchandising. The women of Chicago know that we would not mislead them; that we do inventory our stocks before July 1st, and that our clearance is a legitimate one—every article offered being just as represented.

This time over $500,000 worth of desirable merchandise was thrown out for clearance. Not an article will be returned to stock. The cost or value is not given consideration. We shall open the fall season with a clean, new stock.

Today's Wonderful Bargains.

Just as good values are here for those who come today as at the opening of this sale. To make up for the novelties that will be missing other lots have been reduced. A thorough clearance in every department.
